School's Out for Adults As Night Classes Conclude

Teens and younger still have three months before they can throw off their shackles, but school's already out for those adults who spend part of their week as students at high school night classes.

Vocational course students came to the end of their term last week. Hobby course concluded back in December.

The pattern of dropping out continued this term with the final attendance, on the average about 50 per cent of enrolment in October.

Sixteen classes received sufficient registration to operate, eight Wednesday and eight Thursday.

Donald Turner was night school principal and the teaching staff included: Mrs. Moss, Intermediate sewing; Mrs. Black Millinery; Mrs. Hall, Beginner's sewing; Mr. Black, Oil Painting; Mrs. Dean, Hairdressing; Mrs. Primeau, basic English; Mr. McKay, Grade 10 Bookkeeping; Mr. Durica, Machine Shop 1 and 2; Mrs. Moss, Advanced sewing; Mr. Routhier, conversational French; Mrs. Eason, Shorthand II; Mrs. Clark, Typing I; Mr. Roberts, Auto Mechanics 1 and 2; Mr. Treadgold, small engines, and Mr. McCulloch, Mechanical Drafting.

ated and made by the members of the Institute. Lunch was served and everyone present enjoyed the evening's program.

Red Cross Outpost Hospitals and Nursing Stations serve the remote areas of Canada where health facilities are not readily available.

Three Would Supply Town's Police Car

Tenders from three Georgetown car dealers for supplying a new police cruiser were opened at Monday's council meeting. The tenders will be reviewed in committee and a decision made on the purchase at a later date.

Bridegroom This Week Friends Have 'Stag'

Friends of Bill Smith who is to be married next week, staged a 'stag party' on Saturday night in the hall at Crewson's Corners. The boys enjoyed the evening playing cards and crokinole as well as several older fellows and fathers.

Miss Jean Laver spent the week-end at her home.

Mrs. J. Black visited with friends in Markham for the week-end.

Mr. Tom Mack had his brother George visit with him one day last week.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Charlie McKim has returned from hospital in Guelph, where he had surgery recently.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Snow family in the sudden passing of their uncle Mr. Sam Snow, in Acton on Sunday morning.

The Institute held a very successful euchre, penny sale and bazaar at the hall on Friday night. There were 19 tables playing euchre - prizes going to Miss Lois Burt and Miss Kranz who also won the travelling prize. Mr. Bert Davidson, Mrs. Sam Snow, Mr. John Polo, Mrs. R. Snider, the lucky cup. All of the articles for the penny sale and bazaar table were donated.

NORVAL

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. W. J. McClure who is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

The Men's Club of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, held their annual election in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening March 14th.

The officers elected were - President, Hank Russell; vice president, Charles Cobb; treasurer, Charles Coulmer; secretary, Andrew Dewhurst.

The newly elected officers asked for the complete co-operation of the Men's Club in order to carry out a year full of activity and success.

To meet the needs of Canadian hospitals, the Red Cross must collect more than 915,000 units of blood in 1967.
