NORVAL

Special Services as Norval Churches Mark Eastertime

Norval United Church was full on Easter Sunday for Communion, Confirmation and Baptism with Rev. R. Walker Ridley conducting the service.

Herman Garret, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. M.H. DeVries, was baptized.

Those received by confirmation of faith were Elizabeth Dahnest, Heather Hyatt, Laurel Murray, Gail Nixon and Michael Lagerquist. Garry Lyons, Alan Todd and those received by transfer of membership were Mrs. Wilbert Cleave, Mrs. Don Cleave, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nixon, Mrs. E. MacArthur, Jim MacArthur and Bruce MacArthur. Special music was provided by the choir with solo parts taken by Gayle Lyons and Mrs. Clark Lyons.

Baptized at a special service in the afternoon by Rev. R. Walker Ridley were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connell, Debbie, Danny Jr., Ricky, Donna, Darlene and Christine.

A highlight of Easter week at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, was a three hour service held on Good Friday starting at noon. People came and left as they wished during the service conducted by Rev. Harold Llewellyn who gave addresses on the last seven words of the Lord.

The service of Maundy was held on Thursday evening.

On Easter Sunday the church was full for the morning service.

There was an excellent attendance at the Easter Service at Norval Presbyterian Church and at Union Church with Rev. R. D. Duncanson in the pulpit. Special music was provided by the Junior and Senior choirs.

The YPS attended the Sunrise Service at Georgetown-United Church, meeting at the church at 8:15 a.m. The Sunrise service was held at the Kidney farm after which the young people returned to the church for breakfast.

A few of the young people attended the Good Friday morning service at Georgetown Presbyterian Church followed by breakfast in the church.

On Sunday evening the YPS held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Janice McClure. In place of the usual study book they watched the play "The Robe" on television after which they had their business meeting.

Union Presbyterian Church WMS Easter Thankoffering meeting was held on Good Friday afternoon March 24th, at the home of the president, Mrs. Lee Campbell.

The program committee were Mrs. Eric Leslie and Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie and the lunch committee were Mrs. J. A. McDonald and Mrs. Herbert Dolson.

Mrs. Howard Dolson gave the devotional and Mrs. George Leslie led in prayer. Mrs. Eric Leslie gave an Easter reading. Mrs. Harold McClure of Norval Presbyterian Church WMS was the guest speaker and gave an interesting talk on the Easter message.

Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie gave the dedicatory prayer. Mrs. J. McMenemy of Glen Williams, president of the Home Helpers, was the soloist accompanied by Miss Ann Puckering.

Mrs. Fraser Macdonald gave the courtesies and Mrs. R.D. Duncanson closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Elmer Carney has returned home from a 3 week trip to Vancouver where she found spring had arrived with the daffodils and tulips in bloom. She accompanied Mrs. Jim Carney and attended the wedding of Miss Marilyn Wrigglesworth of Horsby in St. John's United Church in Vancouver, a niece of Mrs. Jim Carney's. They visited friends and relatives during the enjoyable trip at Victoria, Brandon and Winnipeg.

They were surprised to find so much snow on arriving home however, the snow has been disappearing very quickly these past few days without any rain or flooding. The robins arrived on the Easter week end and were in fine tune for the

BALLINAFAD

Presentation Party For Robert Kerr and Bride

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerr in this community joined with the Churchill neighbourhood to honour them at a presentation and party in the hall on Thursday last week. A gift of a desk and chair was presented to the recent bride and groom and the evening was enjoyed by dancing and social time enjoyed by all.

The Ballinafad Little Burners held their fourth meeting on March 28th at the Community hall. The discussion of this meeting was centred around the Europeans discovering the New World and the German, Dutch and Belgian settlers. Janice Brown and Arlene Shortill made Dutch Chocolate, Heather Kirkwood pea soup; Louise Snow, Doris Burt and Beryl McEnery, pickled eggs.

Mrs. Burgan of German nationality came and demonstrated potato pancakes.

Mrs. E. McEnery was hostess for the evening unit of the UCW on Tuesday last week, and also conducted the worship service with Easter as the theme.

Eastern-parade-so-spring-cannot-be far behind here and they will enjoy it again.

Congratulations to Charlie Carney and Marie Robertson who were married in St. Andrew's United Church, Toronto, on Thursday evening, March 23. Marie is the sister of Miss Gwendolyn Robertson who has taught for several years at Norval Public School.

Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Duncanson enjoyed visits from their daughters and families during the Easter holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Winston Newman of Toronto visited over the Easter week end and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and David of Woodstock visited during the week.

Seven Become Members at Church's Easter Service

Although the United Church renovation is not completed, the congregation met in the Sanctuary for Easter Sunday services when seven young people were received, into full membership of the church with Rev. R. W. Ridley officiating assisted by Mr. W. Klassen.

They were Correen Cooper, Bob Inglis, Brett Giles, Kenneth Hancock, Stephen Hunter, Gary McGowan, Mitchell Wagstaffe. The junior girls' choir sang "It is the joyful Easter time." Nancy Cowtan of London sang a lovely solo: "This joyful Eastertide." The service concluded with all the new members and congregation receiving communion.

Easter lilies and daffodils decorated the church front. Following the service all parents and families of the new members were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. Klassen at a buffet luncheon at their home.

The Easter communion services of St. Alban's at 8.30 a.m. and 10 a.m. were well attended. Rev. H. Llewellyn officiated at both services. A gift of a carpet has been given and recently laid which beautifies the lovely little church even more.

Jeff Haines entertained his little friends at a party for his ninth birthday last Saturday.

Get-well wishes are sent to Mrs. R. McMaster who is in St. Joseph's Hospital in Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starrel and family motored to Rochester for the Easter week-end to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sharpe.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Bill Everson is home from hospital after having leg, bone surgery with the leg in a cast.

Mrs. Margaret McMahon of Montreal is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. Klassen and family.

We welcome home Roland Haines from hospital after a month's stay there.

At home with their parents for Easter were Nancy and Robin Cowtan of London and Catharine and Douglas Ward and family of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen visited with Mrs. Brimblecomb in Drayton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haines visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crichton of Limehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Beam and Blake of Lindsay were here for the Easter week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Giles and family.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper were their son and wife, Glen and Roxanne of Brampton and Mr. and Mrs. Stan Tale of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Spiegelberg of Toronto spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barth.

Visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Allen on Sunday were Patricia and Marlene Allen of Espanola.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Middleton and family of Sudbury and Mr. and Mrs. Graham Barnes of Georgetown were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wagstaffe.

There are still seats available on the chartered bus for Expo on May 28th, contact Mrs. T. Haines if you are interested in going.

Beginning next Sunday the United Church services will be at 9 a.m.

The Cancer Society campaign is coming up so a volunteer canvasser will be calling on you soon.

Winners at Monday Night Bridge Club

Bill Wardell and Bill Coats was first place team at the Monday night session of the Acton Bridge Club. Mrs. Mary Manning and Mrs. Kay Campbell were 2nd, and Pat Jeffrey and Jack Coats 3rd.
