

Apartment Firm Will Share Pump Purchase

Farmington Investments, builders of the proposed apartment building on River Drive, advised council Monday they were willing to convey 13 feet of land for road widening purposes and contribute $3,000 toward the purchase of a pump for the sanitary sewage system. "What is the total cost of the pump?" asked the mayor. "Approximately $10,000," replied Cr. Fred Harrison. The letter was turned over to committee for consideration.

Early Church History Reviewed By Union WMS

Union Presbyterian Church WMS held a very interesting afternoon on Wednesday April 5th with a luncheon at the church followed by a Centennial theme program.

Mrs. Jack MacDonald opened the meeting by reading a poem from a 50 year old copy of the Georgetown Herald. Mrs. Leslie Young gave the chapter from the study book on "The church in early Canada." She also gave some of the early history of Union Church.

A special offering was taken for the supply fund. Mrs. Jack McDonald gave the courtesies and Mrs. Lee Campbell closed the meeting with prayer.

The lunch committee were Mrs. Fraser Macdonald and Mrs. Donaldson. The convener for the meeting was Mrs. Frank Dolson.

A highlight of the afternoon was a display of early Canadian items brought by the members which proved to be of great interest to all.

NORVAL

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Percy Donaldson who is a patient in Georgetown Hospital.

We are pleased to report that Miss Crystal Louth is home from South Peel Hospital and progressing nicely. Crystal suffered a broken back as the result of a car accident early in January.

The type gremlins changed the names around of the seven young people who were confirmed at Norval United Church on Easter Sunday. They are Elizabeth Dahner, Alan Murray, Heather Hyatt, Gail Nixon, Laurel Lagerquist, Michael Todd, Garry Lyons.

Congratulations to Leslie Markham of Norval and Linda Laing of Georgetown who were married in Norval Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon, April 1st.
