Course Trains 25 Guides in Leadership For Brownies

Twelve Brown Guides and thirteen Blue Guides successfully passed a basic training course held recently in Knox Presbyterian Church, Brampton and Halton division joined in the five weeks' course held for two hours on Tuesday night.

Instructors were Mrs. G. Broadbent and Mrs. A. H. Beswick of Oakville. The training is to give guides the basic skills and confidence to assist or take charge of a Brownie pack or Guide company.

The groups observed a Brownie pack in operation one evening. This was demonstrated by the Brownies of 1st pack with Mrs. Dorothy Jarrett, Brown Owl and Susan Graham; and the Girl Guides of 7th Georgetown with Mrs. M. Baines, captain and Mrs. H. Dean, lieutenant.

The local associations of North and South Georgetown alternately served lunch to the guides. On the last evening slides of Camp Wyoka were shown to give leaders a preview of facilities available for pack holidays and guide camping.

The trainers presented the following with certificates: Joyce Flindell, Eileen Foster, Vivian Kruger, Norma Nowles, June Robinson, Sandra Watson, Barbara Williamson from Brampton; Queenie Hamilton, Heather Bowen, Susan Graham, Georgina Froudford and Earldine Robinson, Halton Division; Florence Aiboshi, Pamela Grimshaw, Marie Creer, Mary Johnstone, Maria Wainwright, Sandra Berry, Anthonia Van Arem, Evelyn Borden Shirley Blythe, and Marilyn Thompson of Brampton; Mary Trucko, Brenda Wolf and Pat Bowman, Halton Division.

Arrangements for the training were made by Mrs. A. Martin, training secretary for Halton Division.

Should a walrus find himself tired from swimming and still some distance from land, he inflates a pair of air sacs in his neck. They act as water wings and keep his head afloat while he sleeps.

Wear Centennial Gowns as Rangers Host Dinner

The 1st Air Rangers, South Georgetown, held a centennial dinner in St. John's United Church hall on April 3rd.

Rangers met their guests in centennial gowns and the hall was decorated with the coat-of-arms of each of the ten provinces and the two territories.

The buffet supper featured dishes from the provinces. Mary Hay, president of the Rangers, welcomed guests who included the Land Rangers from Norval and their leader M. J. Reed, Land Rangers from St. George's and their leader Mrs. G. Panning; Mrs. I. Presgrave, Halton Division commissioner; Carole Lane, South Georgetown commissioner and Mrs. A. Martin, District Guide.

Jane Collett and her committee were thanked for planning the dinner. Afterwards Mrs. H. Bessem spoke about arts and crafts as a hobby. She showed samples of work being done in this area in leather, rug making, pottery, rock collections for jewellery and weaving. She was presented with the floral arrangement from the head table as a thank-you for an enjoyable and informative talk.

Tells About Other Lands in Brownie Dinner Talk

Brownies of South Georgetown held their annual mother and daughter banquet on April 4th in Holy Cross Church auditorium.

A turkey dinner was served by the Air Rangers. Carole Lane, district commissioner, welcomed the mothers and introduced the head table and Brownie leaders. She thanked Mrs. D. Marshall and the committee which had arranged the evening and welcomed Brown Owl Mrs. J. Munro back after a long stay in bed and presented her with a bouquet of mums from the head table.

After an action song the Brownies heard Miss Jean Johnston from Toronto, who is a Brownie trainer, International trainer and advisor. She took them on a magic carpet to visit Brownies in other lands—England, Switzerland, India, Australia and Mexico—to learn what they are called there and what they do and wear.

Brownie Nancy Townsend thanked Miss Johnston and presented her with a gift. The evening closed with Brownie taps.

See Sugar Making At Farm at Maple

On the morning of March 29, Brownies of 1st and 5th Packs, South Georgetown, travelled by bus to the Amos Baker farm at Maple to see maple sugar-making.

The farm uses both the old method of collecting the sap with buckets on the trees and the newer way with the tubing on the trees. The Brownies were delighted to be able to sample the sugar and could also purchase some if they wished.

Dorothy Jarrett, Jane Collett, and Susan Graham of 1st Pack and Mrs. Russell and three mothers from 5th Pack accompanied the Brownies on their excursion.

LEFT OUT

Two members of the Georgetown Bantam hockey team were missed when a list of scoring points was published in a recent issue. Jamie Moody collected 9 points and Bob Sargent 4 points in Bantam Tournament play.

Use Pupil Performances For Teacher Adjudication

The March meeting of the Student Music Teachers forum was held at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Scull, Georgetown.

There was a short recital by a student of each of the teachers, the performers were adjudicated and these remarks were taken up as subjects for discussion later in the meeting.

Lunch was served to the young performers and attending parents. Velma Linham, Timothy Herbison, Sandra Duncan and CathyLou French played the piano and Kathy Swackhamer the organ.

The business session saw the election of a new executive: Faye Pink, president; Doug Fowler, vice-president; Barbara Champion, secretary treasurer; and Doug Fowler, press reporter.

Teachers presenting pupils at the meeting were Faye Pink, Acton, Larry Marshall, Erin, Barbara Champion, Caledon and Dorothy Scull, Georgetown.

At the April meeting members will study the life of Franz Schubert.

Says Domtar Responsible Seeks Damages From Firm

Claiming that emptying of a waste pool at Domtar Pulp & Paper on April 13 was responsible for damage in a sewer back-up into houses in the area, council on Monday decided to summarize all damage caused and submit an account to the mill.

Elimination of odours from the settling bed near the mill, which has caused many complaints from the district is in sight, according to Deputy Reeve Arthur Spreight.

He has been told by the mill management, he said, that equipment is on order and every effort is being made to have this in operation within a month.
