Study Dairy Calves At Meeting of 4-H

The first regular meeting of the North Halton 4-H Holstein Club was held in the Ontario Agricultural Office.
The president opened the meeting with the 4-H pledge followed by the roll call, in which the members answered by naming a part of a cow.
The meeting was turned over to John Cockburn who discussed with the members the parts of a cow. The senior members departed to a separate room where they had a discussion on the cow, while Alan Brownridge discussed with the junior members on the Feeding and Managing of the Dairy Heifer Calf.
