Murray Motors Moves To Fine New Building

Andy Murray Motors' Queen at Guelph operation will be in spanking new quarters come Monday.

When the weekend move is completed the doors will open at the spacious and modern new Murray Sales and Service garage on Mountainview Rd. north of the highway.

The new building incorporates a four-car showroom, service garage, body shop and offices.

The outlet will handle Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Chevy 11, Envoy, Camaro cars and Esso products.

ANDY MURRAY

Six hoists and new electric front end alignment equipment are notable facilities in the mechanical servicing area.

A staff of twenty will be employed at the new location and they'll have their own lunch room.

A garageman in Georgetown for the past ten years, Andrew Murray senior has two other service stations here, Murray's Texaco on Guelph St. near Rexway Dr., and Murray's Esso Service at the town's eastern limits.

The garage business has become a family affair for the Murrays. Andy Jr. joined his dad in the business five years ago, and Mrs. Margaret McGill handles the office end of it for her father.

Andy and his wife Margaret live at Wildwood on No. 20 side-road north of town.

LIMEHOUSE
Mr. and Mrs. John Hackett and Mr. and Mrs. Armand Bujold from Atholville, N.B. with the Hackett's a few days a week ago.

The Ted Brown's visited Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Magwood in Guelph on Sunday.

Mrs. Gisby was hostess for a tupperware demonstration on Thursday evening.
