Anglers, Hunters May Limit Membership to 50

Georgetown Anglers and Hunters executive is looking into closing the club at fifty members.

At a business meeting Thursday night the possibility of putting a limit on the membership was discussed and left with the executive to investigate. Membership is just a few short of fifty right now.

Members also voted to have the club cabin floor tiled and log cabin siding bought and installed as soon as possible. The work is part of a general improvement project at the club property east of Ballinac.

A tree clearing bee recently spruced up the club's new Centennial Small Bore Rifle Range.

Tonight is the regular film night, May 4 the club's full agenda will be reviewed at a business meeting night. May 11 Reming Rifle Co. people will be at the club with films and their hunting show; May 18 Ontario Water Resources Commission will be represented with films and demonstrations on the Water Pollution problems in the Credit watershed; May 25 regular film night; June 1 regular business; June 8 Winchester Rifle Co. will show films and put on their gun show; June 15 fly tying and shotgun shell loading will be demonstrated; June 22 Department of Lands and Forests will put on their film night and talk on changes in the hunting and fishing worlds; June 29 will finish up the schedule with regular film night. At the same time creating a good supply of firewood for next winter. Work parties have also been steadily improving the clubhouse facilities.

But its not all work and no play. Arrangements have been made to have target angling in ponds on the property for those who want to try their casting skill.

This will be a feature at the club every Thursday night and is not restricted to members. Anyone who enjoys fishing or hunting or just being outdoors is welcome on these special evenings.

In fact the Thursday nights at the A & H property will be pretty interesting for the next two months.

If playing cards stick, rub with talcum powder and you'll have a smooth deal.

Mike George to Manage Realtors Fastball Team

Junior Beaumont, manager of the Georgetown Hunters of the Tri-County Fastball League has handed the reins over to Mike George but not to retire.

The stocky Glen Williams native, who was instrumental in the team's formation last spring will probably play a more active role in the Hunters' fate this year as a playing-manager.

With him on the Hunter roster this year will be returnees Junior Tibbets, Bob Sinclair, Jason Field, Denny-Bacon, George Bacon, George Balasko, Bob Newman, Bob Gourlie, Bill Somerville and anyone who can win a place on the team according to manager Beaumont.

Would-be-players with that idea in mind can make their bid at the Hunters' first practice in Georgetown Park Sunday, May 7th.

The team gets its name from the sponsoring firm, Hunters' Real Estate.

As last year, the Georgetown team will play its home games in the Glen ball park.

There is also a strong possibility they will enter in Ontario Softball Association play-downs at the end of the Tri-County schedule.

Cool Weather, Showers No Obstacles To Golfers

Below average temperatures and scattered showers are small obstacles to golfers anxious to renew their vendetta with the little white ball.

Both local golf professionals, Peter Carter at North Halton, and Doug Sinclair at Georgetown Golf & Country Club report the numbers have been good since the courses opened a week ago.

At North Halton the ladies section will hold an opening day Tuesday, May 2, and men will officially start their season Saturday, May 6.

Georgetown Golf and Country Club's men's section starts Sunday, May 14, and the ladies begin Tuesday, May 16.

GIANTS WANT BALL PLAYERS

If you can swing a bat or throw a baseball the Giants are looking for you — the Georgetown Giants of the Halton County Intermediate Baseball League that is.

The Giants take the field Sunday morning April 30 for their first practice without a manager. Last year's field boss Dude Lindsay called it a day at the end of the 1966 campaign after guiding the Giants for two seasons.

The club executive is hoping some hidden talents will attend the Sunday session to make their hopes for a good season even brighter. The practice is open to anyone.
