Dave Bowman Elected to Head Legion Branch 120

by Ralph Hawes

There were two schools of thought regarding the weather on Sunday. Some members thought it was because of the terrible weather that so many members turned out to the election. They pointed out that had the weather been fine, many would have been out with their families.

Others looked at the weather and figured that very few members would come out. However, it was an extremely good attendance and the election of officers, which was conducted by the president and members of Oakville branch, was completed swiftly and very efficiently, thanks to the competent manner with which it was conducted.

Comrade Dave Bowman is the new president for 1967-68. There were three candidates for this position. Comrade (Buster) Henry E. Hale became first vice president by acclamation. Three candidates fought the position of second vice president. Comrade Bruce Collins was elected to this office.

From the nine members who stood for a position on the executive, four were elected: Comrades Lloyd Boyd, Russell Stephens, Bud Hill and Harold Henderson.

The new president and his executive members will be installed by District Commander Dave Capperault on June 22nd following the general meeting.

Committee chairmen, treasurer and secretary will be appointed by the new executive.

Seems that the branch dart teams that went to Acton on Saturday to take part in the annual tourney between 120 and Acton forgot to take the trophy with them. However, talking to one of the Georgetown players on Sunday, we were informed the trophy was left behind to prevent a recurrence of the situation last year when an Acton member purloined the trophy. The confidence in their ability was justified for Georgetown won again this year. The situation was rather unique at Acton where one Branch 120 team was a man short and Acton loaned the team an Acton man who is a good friend of most members of 120, Gord McCutcheon. Gord played such a good game that he had the Acton people really worried. The
