North Trafalgar Club Holds May Meeting

The May meeting of the North Trafalgar Community Club was held on Wednesday night, May 10, at the home of Mrs. Ellison Ball, with 22 members attending.

Bandages for the Lepers were rolled followed by an Auction Sale conducted by Mrs. Douglas Dalgleish. The birthday song was sung to Mrs. Anderson May, who celebrated her birthday that day.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Orville Greston and family in the sudden death of a beloved wife and mother who died suddenly on Saturday, May 13, following a car accident.

The May meeting of the Eden United Church Women was held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rutledge on Monday night, May 8.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Frank McCarron and Maria, in the death of a beloved wife and mother, who died on Thursday, May 11.

Good Attendance at Stewarttown Euchre

A good attendance at the Euchre Friday night in the Community Hall made up 19 tables. The euchre was sponsored by the Parents' Group of Stewarttown School, with all proceeds marked for Expo expenses.

Among the prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fry, Mrs. Margaret Appleyard, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. Reg. Williams (We apologize for not having a complete list of these winners).

Children and chaperones leave Saturday morning from the school for their Expo trip. 47 in all.

ASHGROVE

Ashgrove Children Re-Enact Family's Search for New Home

Christian Family Sunday was observed at the service on Sunday morning, the Theme was Old Strengths for New Times. The call to worship was conducted by John McNabb, Mrs. George Wilson read the Word of God explaining how many years ago those who cut trees and cleared the bush and turned the first sods were men of faith and found their strength in the "Bible".

A very interesting play "A Journey into Yesterday or Lost on the Prairie" was put on by some of the Sunday School scholars. It told of a family of staunch Christian faith in the year 1887, left Palmerston Ont. to make a new home at Clark's Crossing, N.W.T. there was James Caswell, Mary his wife and their five children. One evening while hunting their oxen the mother became lost, but when morning came she was found and they rejoiced and thanked God for bringing her safely home, those taking part were Barbara Brownridge, Joanne Wilson, Ann McClure, Janie Critchell, Karen Wickson, Ken McNabb and Douglas Ruddell. The little girls wore long dresses and bonnets of yesteryear and Mrs. Chas. Austin directed the play. Rev. Keith Hawkes closed the service with prayer.

What a cold wet spring we are having, the buds on the trees and early flowers are trying to come out but so badly need some warm days so as the farmers can get their fields.

DID YOU KNOW? Canada's first lay nurse, Jeanne Mance opened the doors of the Hotel Dieu Saint Joseph to the sick in 1644.

Seek Former Norvalites for Villages Centennial Hoopla

Norval Centennial committees met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ewans on Thursday evening May 11 with Mr. Norman Guthrie presiding and further plans were made for Norval's Centennial Day on Saturday, June 24th.

Representatives from the Cub Scouts, Brownies and Guides were present to plan activities. It was decided that a guard of honour formed by representatives from the four groups be on guard at the Centennial Cairn when it is dedicated along with members of the Women's Institute.

If you know of anyone who used to live in Norval or district please forward their names to Mrs. Jack Harrison, Norval, and an invitation to attend the festivities will be forwarded.

Unit Two of Norval United Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Mac Hyatt on Thursday evening May 11 with Mrs. Peter Pomeroy presiding.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. A. Edman. The program consisted of exercises done to music led by Mrs. Nancy Webb of Brampton with Mrs. Mary Williamson of Brampton at the piano, which was much enjoyed by the members.

A bus trip to Yorkdale and the O'Keefe Centre to see "On a Clear Day" on May 31st was planned.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw and Mrs. Lloyd Laidlaw.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Howard Chester who spent about a week in Peel Memorial Hospital Brampton. Their little son Glenn was in the hospital previously and was home only a few days when Mrs. Chester went in.

Also get well wishes are extended to Mr. Joe Hills who is a patient in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital.

We are pleased to report that
