In Memoriam

HAMILTON — In loving memory of a dear brother Jackie, who passed away May 22nd, 1965.

When days are dark, friends are few,
Dear brother we think of you.
Friends are friends if they are true,
We lost our best when we lost you.

Ever remembered by brothers and sister, Nancy, Kevin, Butch, Jim and Danny.

HAMILTON — In loving memory of our dear son Jackie, who passed away May 22nd, 1965.

This month comes back with sad regret,
It brings back the day we won't forget.
You left so suddenly, your thoughts unknown,
But you left us memories we're proud to own.
— Mom and Dad.

MOSSOP — In loving memory of Daniel Mossop, who passed away May 22nd, 1963.

Sunshine fades and shadows fall,
But sweet remembrance outlasts all.
— Lovingly remembered by wife, family and grandchildren.

Funeral Home Plan For Addition Vetoed

Endorsing a Planning Board recommendation, council denied McClure Funeral Home's request to build an addition.

Cr. Robert Francis stated it would be an addition to a non-conforming use, which conflicts with the official plan. "There was a delegation of ten neighbouring residents down here opposing it," stated Cr. Francis, "with one even going so far as to be represented by a lawyer". He explained that the building area would be increased eighty percent, "no minor addition", he said.

Family Homeless After Huttonville House Fire

Mr. and Mrs. William McIlveen and their six children, Bill 22, Wilda 20, Sandy 17, Margaret 14 Jack 11, and Heather 9, were forced into the street in their pyjamas when fire turned their Huttonville home into a blazing inferno early Monday morning.

The family lost all their possessions some of which was not covered by insurance.

Four highly explosive propane gas tanks which firemen

Stewart Saxe, political science student at the University of Waterloo, left Tuesday, May 16 for Moscow. He will spend three weeks in the USSR representing the Canadian Union of Students a student exchange, with about 25 other delegates from all across Canada.

The hosts in Russia are the members of the Student Council of the USSR.

Stewart will visit Moscow, Kiev, Leningrad, and the Black Seas region.

Russians will visit Canada on the second part of the exchange early in 1968.

After returning from the USSR Stewart will spend one week at the University United Nations Conference in New York as senior Canadian delegate. A total of 240 students participate in this conference, coming from Canada, USA, Central and South America, Korea and parts of Europe.

Stewart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Saxe, RR 2, Georgetown.

said would have blown both the McIlveen house and the neighbouring house into little pieces were shielded from the heat by a thin partition.

Sharing in the loss was a Norval-Huttonville young people's group which had planned a gala fireworks in Huttonville for Monday night and had stored the fireworks in the McIlveen home. The $200 worth of crackers and rockets sent the crowd scurrying for cover when they went off shortly after the family made their escape.

In the adjoining garage two cars were destroyed.

Cowd Breaks Roller Record
