Building Permits Reveal Suburban Township Trend

Building permits totalling $395,025 were issued in the township of Esqueping during May, building inspector Tom McLean told council Monday night.

Two additions, one to Park Motors for $4000 and one to Acton Limestone Quarries for $4000, were the only commercial or industrial permits. The remainder were all residential, read and invitations received for the Emblem Breakfast at the Old Mill on Sunday sponsored by the Toronto Council of Clubs and an invitation from the Toronto Club to their clubhouse for a reception and strawberry tea in the afternoon of the same day. Several club members will attend.

Six new members joined the club at this meeting, Miss Janet Dykstra, Mrs. Gladys Thompson, Mrs. Lorraine Stevens, Mrs. Jean Narey, Mrs. Anne Rudy and Miss Carol Hopkinson. Mrs. Margaret Parker was a guest.

Miss Jean Mackenzie gave a report on the coming fashion show, "Portraits of the Past" to be held on June 28th in Knox Church Hall at 8:30. Homemade cookies and tea will be served. Tickets were distributed to the members for sale.

The new executive for 1967 and 1968 were installed in a candlelighting ceremony by Mrs. Aileen Bradley.

Church Guild Lilac Tea Scores a Success Again

The annual Lilac Tea and Bake Sale sponsored by the Church Guild, was held on Wednesday, May 31st in the Church hall and was again a great success.

Mrs. J. Ross, Guild president welcomed the ladies, who later enjoyed a game of euchre. Prize winners were Mrs. Jean Perrigo, Mrs. William Sinclair, Mrs. Pat Boyd, Mrs. Audrey Wilson and Mrs. John Dickinson.

Mrs. Reg Williams was the winner of the birthday prize. The ladies served a delicious lunch, and all enjoyed a social afternoon.

Friends and neighbours met at St. John's Church Hall on Monday evening of this week, to honour Miss Jacqueline Barclay, with a miscellaneous shower prior to her coming marriage on June 17th.

Thursday evening, June 1st, about 40 ladies, members of Esqueping W.I. and their friends journeyed by bus to Toronto to attend the University Theatre to see "Thoroughly Modern Milly". All reported an excellent evening, and pass their thanks and appreciation along to Mrs. George Atkinson, who organized the event.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grant, and Kenneth and Mr. Philip Wilson, visited in Barrie on the weekend and attended the 25th wedding anniversaries of Mr. & Mrs. Harry Smethurst, the former Helen McGowan and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Trainor.

Mr. and Mrs. Smethurst, are well known to many in this district, having lived in Limestone for a number of years. Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. Trainor are first cousins and were married in a double wedding ceremony in Toronto prior to their husbands leaving for overseas duty during the war.

Two Lane Bridge For Glen East-End

Construction will start on a new bridge in Glen Williams at most immediately.

The bridge to be built by Cross Town Construction will replace the present one near the eastern entrance to Glen Williams village.

A house close to the western end of the bridge has been expropriated and will be demolished. Some land on the other side belonging partly to Roland Haines, and partly to a garage business will be expropriated. The two-lane bridge will have sidewalks for pedestrians. During construction, a detour will be available for all traffic.

Glen Dumps Hunters In Second Meeting

Georgetown Hunters sagged in the 7th inning under a Glen Williams hitting barrage and bowed 9-4 the villagers in their second meeting of the Inter-county Football League scheduled Tuesday. Earlier Georgetown beat the Glen 8-2.

Neil Best earned the win Bob Newman and Merle Raff tossed for the losers. Georgetown owned a 4-3 edge going into the 7th. Glen's last run as pushed over in the 8th.

Glen beat Hillsburgh 12-4 Monday after losing 11-8 to the same team Friday.

Georgetown Hunters turned back Guelph 3-1 in a Sunday fixture in Guelph.

Guelph visits the Glen Friday and Georgetown hosts Hillsburgh Tuesday.

Woman Cut, Baby Shaken Up When Car Rolls Over

Mrs. Margaret Dishaw, and a 9 weeks old baby, Cindy Leigh Dolan, both of Toronto, were injured in an accident on Guelph St. opposite the coin wash Saturday night.

Mrs. Dishaw suffered a cut on her head, and the baby mihor injuries and a shaking up. They were in a car driven by Walter Dishaw, Toronto, that rolled over on the north side of the road after hitting a ditch.

A police report said the Dishaw car, a 1965 Ford, was in the passing lane when forced to take the ditch by another car. Cpl. T. Oakley placed damage to the car at $700.

"Over the Top"

A very grateful and sincere thank you to the Captain and Canvassers and all those who worked so diligently in the recent campaign for funds for the Georgetown and District Canadian Cancer Society.

Our objective was $6,800, and in excess of $9,000 was collected.

A big 'Thank You' to all who contributed to make this possible.
