

Imported Spanish Lace In Ashgrove Bridal Gown

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE MATTIE

Standards of white mums and sea blue carnations with fern, decorated Ashgrove United Church on April 29 for the marriage of Nora Elizabeth Barnes and Lawrence Bertram Mattie. Rev. Keith Hawkes officiated and Mrs. James Carney was organist.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Harold G. Bailey, RR 2, Georgetown and Mr. Horace Barnes, Orillia, wore a floor length gown of imported Spanish lace with scalloped tiers forming a train. The gown had a portrait neckline and scalloped lace long sleeves. A three-quarter veil bordered with chantilly lace flowed from a seed pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of red roses, stephanotis and ivy. She wore her grandmother's heirloom locket.

Mrs. Jim East, Brampton, was matron of honour and bridesmaids were Mrs. Wayne Shields, Bramalea and the bride's sister, Linda Bailey. They wore floor length sea blue empire line gowns with matching rose brocade coats and headbands with seed pearls and crystal trim. They wore single strands of pearls, gifts of the bride, and carried cascade bouquets of white shasta mums, blue carnations and ivy.

Mr. Barnes gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Wayne Shields was groomsmen and ushers were the bride's brothers Jack Barnes and Brian Bailey.

At a reception at Hornby Towers Golf Club, the bride's mother received wearing a mint green peau de soie empire dress trimmed with matching lace, bone accessories and a flamingo carnation corsage. The groom's sister, Mrs. Bob DeCoste, also received wearing a brown crepe skirt with gold brocade top and a corsage of yellow roses.

For their honeymoon the couple motored through the New England States to Antigonish, Nova Scotia, to visit the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mattie, returning via Montreal and Ottawa. Mr. Mattie is employed with Husband Transport, Weston and Mrs. Mattie with the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture Office in Milton.

Legion Plays Intrinsic Part in Local Community

June 1st, 1967
It is indeed a long way back to February 1926, when the Canadian Legion was formed in the Marlborough Hotel in Winnipeg. Only three years ago the Centennial Campaign was formed which got in progress in earnest in the year 1966. The extent of this fund was to be one million dollars, to be put in a trust fund. This was to be raised by the Legion's own membership and was to be used, not for the present day, but for the future generations, and so that the great work of welfare and community work may still be going when the day comes that this great organization is no more, as we all hope and pray that war may be no more, to swell the ranks of ex-service men and women.

The Legion also serves as a strong national voice in matters regarding veterans legislation and gives freely to any ex-service personnel, widows or orphans through its service bureau which helps 30,000 persons yearly with their problems. Over 1 1/2 million dollars a year goes to help welfare cases, a great part of this is raised through the public's generous donations and the sale of poppies of remembrance, which is used whenever and wherever the need arises.

Below is a breakdown made of 75% of the Royal Canadian Legion in Ontario, showing what they spent to help others. Sports $150,360; Scouts, Guides and Cadets, $45,584; Branch Scholarships $22,450; Public Speaking $18,500; donations to others, $183,204. So with this achievement the Legion is exemplifying the golden rule in its day to day operations. In their own community, showing a great interest in the well being of our youth, in whose hands the future of Canada lies and in the welfare of its people.

Now, let us get down to business. To carry on this great work, we must be strong as many of our older members of the Great Beyond. But their dreams and thoughts are still with us, so I appeal to all ex-service men and women to get out and join the Legion nearest you. We need you and you need us to carry on this great work, and keep faith with those who paid the supreme sacrifice and made it possible for us to celebrate this great year in Canada's History, The Centennial. Let us, one and all go forward with faith in God and our community and ever strive to make your Canada and mine a better place to live and for people from all parts of the world to admire. May it be a home for many people from afar and let us be proud we are given this heritage to preserve and bring to maturity and above all let us continue to ever strive for Peace and a better understanding among all mankind.

In conclusion ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for it, as a nation is only as strong as the character and faith of its people and its offspring.

Yours truly,
Harry Hassall,

Chairman of the Centennial Fund

NORVAL NEWS

Delegates from Norval Women's Institute who attended the District Annual in Milton on May 27th were Mrs. Don Murray, Mrs. Graydon Chester and Mrs. E. Burk. Many of those attending wore old time costumes. The roll call was answered with Pennies for Friendship and an exhibit of an old time kitchen utensil. The Norval W. I. exhibit was an iron cooking pot belonging to Mrs. L. May's grandmother, the late Mrs. Samuel Mason of North Trafalgar. It was her only cooking utensil when she was married in 1849.

In the old time quilt exhibit Norval's entry was a crazy work quilt made by the late Miss Victoria Mason of North Trafalgar which won 1st prize at a Toronto fair in 1884 for fancy stitching.

Winner of the old time home made cookie contest was Mrs. Wilbert Cleave.

12 Norval pupils who attend Stewarttown Public School enjoyed the bus trip and 2 days touring Expo over the holiday week end. There were 36 pupils and 10 adult chaperones on the trip arranged by the principal, Mr. Chatten.

On the way down they visited Fort Henry and the Hydro plant at Cornwall and on the return trip they toured Upper Canada Village.

The bus delivered them to the gate at Expo and picked them up there again at night. They stayed in an apartment building with 18 to an apartment. They took along toasters, coffee pots and electric fry breakfasts. The adults made lunches for all which they ate at Expo and this cut down on the expenses for meals.

The pupils report a thoroughly enjoyable time and will remember this Centennial year with knowledge and fun gained on this trip. Pupils from Norval on the tour were Gordon Fendley, Jeffrey Burk, Julie Pomeroy, Margaret Ostrander, Pat Coughlin, Martin Woollett, Dave Jennings, Gail Nixon, Donna Guppy, Aileen Wease, Bobbie Cunningham and Brian Cunningham.

"Man and His World" Talk Subject to UCW

A talk on the Expo theme "Man and His World" by Sheila Ward, was the highlight of St. Andrew's UCW May meeting. Mrs. Ward divided her talk into three parts headed up Man As A Citizen, Man In The Community and Citizenship Means Learning.

Members also viewed two films, Leaving It To The Experts, and Willie Catches On, illustrating the ways young minds are prejudiced.

The June meeting will be a trip to Toronto to view the film Thoroughly Modern Millic.

Choose Dairy Princess At Hornby Garden Party

The annual Halton County Dairy Princess Competition will take place on Saturday, July 15th, in conjunction with the Hornby Garden Party.

For this competition girls must be between the ages of 17 and 26 as of August 18th, 1967. They must be from dairy farms in Halton, and will be required to milk a cow by a machine of their choice, and give a short talk on 'Dairying in Halton County.'

Last year's Halton Dairy Princess, Margaret Hunter of R R 1, Burlington, competed at the Canadian National Exhibition, after winning the title in Halton.

The Ontario Dairy Princess is chosen at the Canadian National Exhibition. The winner is chosen by a panel of qualified judges on the basis of personality, poise, general appearance, ability to speak in public, a knowledge of the dairy industry, and the ability to milk a cow. The 1967 Ontario Dairy Princess, Miss Dolly Ann Edmonds, from R R 3, Cobden, Renfrew County, won her crown at the Grand Final—a competition of the five top girls. Among her many awards were a call of her own; a complete wardrobe; a trip to the United Kingdom as a good-will ambassador.

By lowering high blood pressure, you can lower the risk of heart attack, the Ontario Heart Foundation says.
