

Legion, Odd Fellows Cemetery Cairn Dedicated Last Sunday

by Ralph Hawes

It was very obvious that some one up there keeps a kindly eye on Georgetown for on Sunday the weather was perfect when members of the Branch placed wreaths at the cenotaph in the morning and also in the afternoon when the cairn dedication and decoration day took place at Greenwood Cemetery. Many organizations from town were present on this occasion.

Beautifully Entrance
The cairn, which is indeed a very pleasing sight and will beautify the entrance to the cemetery, was erected through the joint efforts of the Odd fellows and Branch 120. We were asked by the Branch padre, Comrade Kelvin Johnson, to draw to the attention of the members that on Sunday, June 18th there will be a Church parade. This will be the completion of the Branch National Veterans Week. The parade will form up at the Branch at 2 p.m. and will proceed to St. John's United Church where a service will be conducted by the Branch padre. It is hoped that as many as possible will be "on parade". For those who are unable to be on parade and wish to make their way to the Church independently, the service will commence at 2:30 p.m. The community of Sarnia were most kind to the many hundreds of Legion members and their wives who stayed in their city last week on the occasion of the Ontario Provincial Command's 25th Biennial Convention. Branch 120 was represented by Comrade Dave Bowman and yours truly. David Capperault represented Zone B7 as the Zone Commander. At the wind up of the convention, Comrade Capperault was installed to the office of District Commander of District "B", an office he will retain for two years. The weather was perfect, and in consequence, we witnessed one of the biggest parades we have seen at an Ontario Provincial Convention. The parade proceeded the official opening of the convention at the Sarnia arena.

Andrews; vice chairman, R. Watson; Ex-Servicemen's Representative, Pauline Lowden. Museum Of Keepsakes Saturday saw a group of ardent members at the Branch working from eight a.m. until 4 p.m. preparing the auditorium for the influx of visitors expected at the Branch during National Veterans Week. These stalwart members also set up the Branch museum which we feel will interest visitors to the building. The museum is made up of souvenirs and cherished keepsakes loaned by the members and nonmembers to the Branch for this National Veterans Week. The exhibits date back as far as the war in 1812 and up to equipment used by Canadian forces of today.

Showbiz Folk Promote Canada's Birthday

What's the good of a birthday if you can't do what you want? A local group, disgusted with the lack of celebration locally of Canada's 100th birthday, July 1st, have decided to do just what they want. They want to have a bash in the grounds of the Centennial project Cedarvale Community Centre. Nothing is organized and nothing provided. All who come provide their own food, musical instruments, and their own fun. Sort of a local love-in for a 100th birthday. Bring your own guitar, banjo, accordion, clarinet, mouth organ, or comb and tissue paper, we're going to have some entertainment — spontaneous with anybody performing when the spirit moves them. There will be a king-sized barbecue, so if you don't have one bring them hamburgers, hot dogs, or steaks, if you're wealthy. The nuts who dreamed up this brainstorm are some of the people connected with the production of Finlan's Rainbow and have been with the Rotary shows in the past. So come to a birthday party where you provide the fun. There won't be a speech, a ribbon cutting, or a politician in sight, at least in any official capacity. So come if you feel like it, but don't come out of duty — probably early evening about seven or seven thirty will start the bash.

Productive Three Days
On Monday we got down to business and for the next three days much deliberation and discussion took place. Many resolutions were passed and some were discarded, all of which we feel went toward making a better Royal Canadian Legion. For those members who are interested, all reports and resolutions pertaining to the convention are available at the branch. The result of the Election of officers which took place on Wednesday is as follows: President, R. D. McChesney; Im-

Run for Office, Mayor Tells Council Critic

In a brief address to council Monday night, Jim McCaig, Maple Avenue, deplored "the spectacle he saw in the council chamber last week." He stated the activities were not becoming to a man in the mayor's position. However, he qualified the statement saying it wasn't all the mayor's fault. He then criticized the procedure. He claimed the meeting had been adjourned for five minutes then resumed without being properly called to order. "This was a situation that has never occurred in all my years in municipal business," said the mayor. "I was doing the best I could to keep order, and it was my intention to have the

SPELLING BEE WINNER

Diane George, age 12, of Georgetown was one of the winners in an old fashioned spelling bee recently at Black Creek. Nearly three hundred children, Pioneer Village, between the ages of 6 and 14 took part in the spelling bee. Diane is a pupil at Howard Wrigglesworth public school. man removed." The mayor then suggested Mr. McCaig should run for office, "and give us some idea how to run the meeting." Mayor Gibbons insisted he was not being sarcastic, but meant it sincerely. Cr. Robert Francis commended the mayor for his handling of the situation, commenting, "it was the only line of procedure left open to you."

European Paper Post For Fred Masterman

A former Georgetown resident, F. E. "Fred" Masterman, has been assigned by Abitibi Paper to special duties in Europe. A report in a recent issue of the company magazine said Masterman, manager of Island Paper Mills in British Columbia has been assigned to special duties in connection with our European operations as they relate to the Island Mill. He will assume the title Special Assistant to the vice president and general manager, Pulp and Paper Group. Mr. Masterman was in the special services department of the Provincial Paper Mill here before leaving for the west coast. He was the public school board's appointee to the North Halton High School District Board and later the Georgetown High School Board where he served as chairman.

Be sure and visit the War Museum in the Legion Hall on Saturday. Everyone welcome. Veterans' Week June 11 - 17th
