

Mr and Mrs Wayne Presswood Make New Home in Hamilton

MR. AND MRS. WAYNE PRESSWOOD

Rev. Norman Young officiated on Saturday, May 13 at four o'clock at the marriage in Knox Presbyterian Church of Gayle Bonita Little and John Wayne Presswood. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Little, 10 Byron St. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Presswood, 17 McNabb Street.

The newly red carpeted church with tall standards of white gladioli and shasta mums was a nice setting for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gleaming white gown with scoop neckline, 3/4 length sleeves and detachable train all edged in lace scrolls. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held in place by an open crowned pillbox of peau de soie. She wore a single strand of cultured pearls, the groom's wedding gift, and carried her favourite flowers, yellow roses, stephanotis and ivy in a cascading bouquet.

Miss Brenda Crawford, a childhood friend from Hamilton was maid of honour. Her full length aquamarine sat-a-peau over taffeta gown was empire style with bell sleeves, and a floating panel of chiffon fell from the back of the scoop neckline. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Gordon Spence, Jr., of Glen Williams, Miss Rosemary Scriber, Greenwood and Miss Beverly Wells, Georgetown wore similar gowns in yellow, mauve and rose respectively. Their flowers were shasta and star flowers and were carried on white lace fans with streamers of rainbow hues. Their shoes and shasta trimmed veils also complimented their gowns. They wore pearl necklaces and earrings, the bride's gift to complete their ensemble.

Soloist was Mrs. William Barclay who sang "O Perfect Love and I'll walk beside you". Mrs. B. Gowland was organist. Rodney Presswood was his brother's groomsmen and ushers were another brother Paul Presswood, Gordon Spence Jr., brother-in-law of the groom and Dean Little brother of the bride. They wore the groom's gift, maple leaf cufflink sets.

The reception was held at Georgetown Golf & Country Club where the wedding cake, baked by the bride, was flanked by arrangements of shastas and yellow roses and lighted tapers. The tables were centred with pastel sweet pea nosegays and ribbon streamers carrying out the rainbow theme. The bride's mother received wearing a pale blue lace dress, coat and hat and matching shoes. Her corsage was pink roses centred with a white gardenia. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a dark turquoise two-piece dress with matching shoes and white accessories. Her corsage was white cymbidium orchids with touches of pink.

For a honeymoon to Banff and the Rockies the bride wore a pale pink wool suit with fox collar dyed to match, a pink flowered whimsy hat and black patent accessories and a corsage of pink orchids with black velvet leaves.

Honoured guests were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hurren of town. Out-of-town guests were from Buffalo, Rochester, St. Thomas, Haliburton, Sudbury, Lindsay, Bobcaygeon, St. Catharines, Point au Baril, Winona, Toronto and Hamilton.

A trousseau tea was held on May 6 at the bride's home and Mrs. David Hurren, Mrs. Jack Presswood and Mrs. Albert Russell poured tea.

Before her marriage the bride was honoured with lovey showers one by Mrs. Wm. Barclay, Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Stan Norton at the Barclay home; Mrs. Robert Harrelson, Mrs. Albert Russell, Cooksville, as co-hostess; also one by Mrs. Beverly Moody in Glen Williams and another by a group of friends in Hamilton. The bride and groom received presentations from the Radicals Car Club, Horn Elevator co-workers and Varian Associates recreation club.

The bride was employed with Varian Associates and the groom is with Horn Elevator (Niagara) Ltd. in Hamilton where they will make their new home.

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

BY BILL COATS

At last it seems as if summer has arrived. It's even noticeable around the local bridge clubs. Erin has had its last game of the season. The Acton Bridge Club will go until June 26th this year. But there is good news for all local duplicate buffs — Georgetown will continue its Tuesday night games all summer.

For those who missed the news in the larger daily papers, it will be North America versus Italy in the Bermuda Bowl championship. Five teams started off with the top two to go into the finals. Let's hope that North America, with its Canadian pair of Murray and Kehela, can win this year.

A lot of bridge players seem to take a finesse just because it's there to take. Here is a hand from last week's game at the Acton Bridge Club. With neither side vulnerable, the dealer is west.

D-A 4 2
C-7 4

The bidding:
West North East South
Pass Pass Pass 1H
Pass 1S Pass 2H
All Pass

South should not open one no trump with a good five card major suit and a weak doubleton. However, it would be better if North had responded one no trump. South would raise to two which would become the final contract.

At two hearts, declarer is in danger of losing two trump, two clubs, and one each in spades and diamonds. West leads his diamond ten, which leads to declarer's ace. Two rounds of trump are taken and declarer should take stock. What about a spade finesse?

Let's suppose that it wins—so what! You still have a spade loser. Only if East has the king and West has specifically the ten-nine of spades, can you gain a trick. That's asking too much.

East cannot lead diamonds without giving up tricks so he tries the spade suit. Declarer finesesses, not to win a trick but to set up dummy's spade suit.

West should duck the spade but declarer should not be fooled. He should continue with the spade ace and a small spade. This sets up dummy's jack.

When West leads a diamond, declarer should reject the finesse and play the king. The 13th space in dummy provides a parking space for the diamond loser.

In all, declarer loses two trump, one spade and two clubs. Don't finesse just because you can. If you take a finesse, have a good reason.

Last week's winners at the Acton Bridge Club were: first Mrs. Katherine Coats and Pat Jeffares; second, Cam Sinclair and Art Norris; tied for third, Jack Coats and Les Pilotas, with George Solty and Bill Wandel.

Monday's winners at Acton Bridge Club: 1st pair, George Solty, Bill Wandel; 2nd pair, Pat Jeffares, Mrs. K. Coats; 3rd pair, Mrs. Mary Manning and Mrs. K. Campbell.

BRIDGE CLUB

Nine tables were in play at the Georgetown Duplicate Bridge club on Tuesday June 6. North-South winners were: D.C. MacDonald, R.J. Raymond; Mrs. M. Taylor and Mrs. B. Pat-

Finian's Rainbow Abounds With Catchy Show Music

Castling is underway for Globe Productions presentation of 'Finian's Rainbow' in November.

The lead female role Sharon, has been given to Milree Armstrong, and the romantic male lead Woody to Des Nichols.

The raucous senator Rawkins a southerner patterned after Governor Wallace will be played by Howard Wilson.

Many more roles are yet to be cast and the call is out for extras of all kinds, dancers, singers, and actors.

Director Brian Wareing was one of the comic robbers in last year's show, and the musical director is Ralph Ussel, well known locally in all music circles.

If the title 'Finian's Rainbow' doesn't ring a bell, the music certainly will. Remember 'Glocca Mora', 'If This Isn't Love', 'Old Devil Moon', 'I Love the Girl I'm Near'. These songs all originated in Finian's Rainbow.

It was first produced on Broadway in 1947 and has been produced all over the world since then. It is now being made into a movie, with Don Francks as Woody, Petula Clark as Sharon, Tommy Steele as Og, the leprechaun and the old master Fred Astaire as Finian.

Globe Productions is aiming high this year.

where we were to be at a session of parliament in the Parliament Buildings. Here we saw and heard many things new and different for all of us.

Afterwards the guide answered any questions and explained some of the strange things that were done.

The final stop was at Casa Loma, a huge castle with ninety-eight rooms. It was built by Sir Henry Pallett. As Sir Henry got the money he completed the castle. It was built similar to the castles in Scotland. Sir Henry lived in the castle only ten years. After that the taxes became too high and he could not afford to pay them.

The rooms we went in were very large and luxurious. There was an underground tunnel leading to the stables. The carriages are still on display in the stables.

Some of the pupils had a chance to go up to the towers at the top of Casa Loma. The Classes visited the gift shop where many of the students purchased souvenirs.

When we arrived home most of the people were quite tired but I am sure that nobody will forget our trip to Ontario's capital.

of her many adventures before retirement to her present berth. The boys toured from bridge to engine room but the highlight of the day came when they found the 4 inch gun turret on the forward deck still mobile. Quickly a "gun crew" was formed and by some accurate "shooting" they took the top storey off the Royal York Hotel.

All left for home at noon pleased with the tour and the discovery of part of Canada's past history.

On Tuesday evening, June 6 the Scouts of 1st Georgetown again headed for Toronto seeking a tour of the British destroyer HMS Hampshire, here on a 4 day visit. On arrival they found the ship was closed to the public but some "sweet-talking" by Skip Dave and Scouter Fred got the boys aboard for an exciting visit. 25 years of progress showed as the boys were heard to comment "compared to this the Haida is just a bucket of bolts"
