

FOURTEEN CHILDREN AT MILLER 50th ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. NELSON MILLER POSE WITH their Golden Wedding Cake at their 50th wedding anniversary celebration at the home of a son Stanley at Limehouse, June 6. The Millers, formerly of Terra Cotta, now residing at Victoria Harbour, had 21 children, seventeen of which are still living. Fourteen children and their families were able to attend the anniversary party.

Five from Glen on Holiday in Britain

A group left by plane last Saturday night for a holiday to the British Isles. They were Mrs. Maggie Crawford and granddaughter Joan Crawford of Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Inglis, and brothers Arthur and William Lorrman.

Mrs. Paul Wagstaffe has been laid up with back trouble. We wish her a speedy recovery.

The centennial committee held a meeting on Tuesday night to make some of the final plans for June 24th.

The United Church Women held their monthly meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Wagstaffe. Mrs. Una Wheeler opened the meeting and the roll call was answered by where each one would like to go on a holiday. An amusing item was read called "The City Cousins and how they visit the Country Cousins" and load up the car with all the free good fresh produce which is so much better than they can buy in the city.

Items of business included catering for a wedding in July and plans for a Strawberry Tea and bake sale to be held on the church lawn on June 22 from 7-9 p.m. In case of rain, it will be held in the church basement.

Mrs. John Hunter read a few items of interest from The Observer — telling the history of the countries involved in the war between Egypt and Israel at that particular time. The meeting closed with the hymn "God be with you till we Meet Again." A lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

Retain Esqueing Name For District Institute

Mrs. M.B. Brown, was hostess to the members of Esqueing Women's Institute for their regular May meeting, Thursday evening June 8th.

Despite the heavy fog, the attendance was good. The regular business was conducted in the usual manner.

The question of changing the name of the Institute to Stewarttown, again arose, but it was the decision of the group that it would remain as Esqueing Women's Institute (Stewarttown).

Plans were made to hold a Community Centennial Dinner, and the committee in charge, are sending out invitations to local families.

Mrs. James Staddon Citizenship convener was in charge of the program and gave a most interesting paper.

The Roll Call was answered with members bringing an article to auction.

Mrs. John Dawson did well as auctioneer and brought good prices for everything.

The proceeds are to be used towards the Centennial Dinner expenses.

Mrs. Fred Armstrong, and Mrs. George Atkinson, assisted the hostess, with lunch, and all enjoyed a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Lawson and family visited friends in Markham on Sunday.

A number from the village attended the Memorial Service at Georgetown Cemetery on Sunday afternoon when the Cairn erected by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and the Canadian Legion and Auxiliary was unveiled.

Hunters In First Place In Intercounty Fastball

Georgetown Hunters sit atop the Intercounty Fastball League today with four victories in seven starts. They rung their 4th win Tuesday night by knocking off Hillsburgh 4-2 in Glen park.

Hunters pushed two runs across in the 4th inning when Dennis Bacon hit, advanced on Tibbets sacrifice fly. Jason Field walked and both scored on Bob Websters solid hit.

The 3rd and 4th runs scored in the 5th frame when Raft reached first on a fielder's choice. George Doucette hit, and they crossed the plate on Hillsburgh overthrows.

Hillsburgh runs were scored in the 2nd on a home run and in the 3rd.

Bob Sinclair started for the winners and went four innings before Merle Raft came on to blank the Burghers for the remaining innings.

Hillsburgh won a 2-1 squeaker from Georgetown Monday in Hillsburgh. Spicer went all the way for the win. Raft took the defeat.

Georgetown's run was scored in the 3rd when Sinclair hit Raft sacrificed, and Doucette hit to push the run over. The Hunters left seven runners stranded.

Georgetown Hunters play Glen Williams in the Glen park Tuesday.

Three Air Cadets Set For Camp this Summer

Three Georgetown Air Cadets members of 121 Squadron RCAC based at Guelph have been selected to attend summer camps at Canadian Forces Base, Trenton and Canadian Forces Base at St. John's Quebec.

LAC Brian Seeler, 23 Shelley St. and LAC David Burns, 25 Mackenzie Dr., will attend the two week cadet camp at St. John's, and while there will make visits to Expo on two separate occasions.

LAC Larry Frazer, 59 Duncan Dr., will attend a two week summer camp at CFB, Trenton. Of the 65 cadets in 121 Squadron, 17 were allowed to attend summer camps. Eleven of the 17 will go to St. Johns.

There are seven Georgetown members in the Air Cadet 121 Squadron.

Show Centennial Quilt At Meeting of Institute

The Georgetown Women's Institute quilt "The Centennial Lady" which will be exhibited at Georgetown Fair was on display at the last G.W.I. meeting of the season in Knox Church Hall, Wednesday, June 7.

Fourteen members attended the meeting and heard a report on the district annual at Milton May 22 by Mrs. H. Bailey.

Mrs. S. Robin auctioned off plants which the ladies had brought to the meeting. On the same theme the motto "preserving the scent of roses" was given by Mrs. K. Davidson.

The institute will not meet again until September.

Terra Cotta Site for St. Paul's Parish Picnic

On June 3 the St. Paul's Anglican picnic was held at Terra Cotta park.

As the afternoon proceeded there were many interesting events, starting with races. Children under 4 all received a prize, while two 6 year old girls tied for first, Judy Russell and Sandy Sedore, and Gregory Harris won for the boys.

Other winners 7 year olds; Lyn MacIsaac, Danny Moore, 8-11 years; Linda LaDru, Billy Hanley; 12-14 years; Conno Carter; teen races, Lynda Manely, Bruce Clarke.

Jane MacIsaac and Leo Phillips were best runners in the adult races, while in the ladies' shoe pile Sylvia and Charles Coomber won by a toe. Monica Hanley spotted the Joker in a joker hunt.

Suspend Institute Activities for Summer

Silverwood Women's Institute held their last business meeting for the summer months on June 8 at the home of Mrs. Donald Lindsay, with a good attendance.

President Mrs. George Henderson was in charge and Mrs. Harry Scott was substitute secretary for Mrs. R. Corbett who was attending Expo.

It was a busy evening getting all the tag ends of business cleared up for several months holiday ahead, and planning for future meetings. A social hour was spent with apple cake and ice cream, tea and coffee.
