

History Comes to Life At Unique Fashion Show

MRS. JEAN CHAPPEL dressed as Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless and Mrs. Elizabeth McCrea dressed as Annie Koerber, two figures from Canadian history were among 38 models of historical women's costumes at a unique kind of fashion show at Knox Church Hall. The show, entitled Portraits of the Past, was presented by the Georgetown Business and Professional Women's Club. It traced the development of women's styles in Canada from clothing worn by Indian princesses to the early 1900's. Costumes were designed by the Ontario Centennial Planning branch of the Dept. of Tourism and Information.

Peacock-Webb Wedding Vows In Acton Pentecostal Church

Evangel Pentecostal Church, Acton, decorated with baskets of red carnations and white mums, was the setting for the marriage on June 10 of Dianna Marie Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Joshua Webb, RR 3, Georgetown and Milton, William Peacock son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Peacock, 18 Rexway Drive.

Rev. S. H. Thoman officiated. Mrs. Harvey Norton, Limehouse was organist and there were two soloists. Mrs. Gordon Bowen sang 'Because' and Mr. Peter Binney 'The Wedding Prayer' as the couple knelt during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony, wore a floor-length gown of Bemberg organza over taffeta, with hand clipped appliques on the full skirt, chantilly lace on the bodice and lily point sleeves. A three tiered bouffant illusion veil was held in place with hand rolled rose petals with cut daisies and seed pearl trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaid Miss Joan Glendenning, Rockwood, wore floor-length deep pink satin and carried a cascade bouquet of white and yellow mums. The groom's sister, Joyce Peacock, was flower girl wearing a deep pink satin dress and carrying a miniature bouquet of white and yellow mums.

Walter Peacock, Glen Williams, was his brother's groomsmen and ushers were another brother Austin Peacock, Georgetown and Alan Pasmore, Rockwood.

At a reception in Rockwood town hall, the bride's mother received wearing a blue nylon lace over taffeta dress and jacket, pink hat and accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's grandmother Mrs. Rachel Peacock also received in a beige linen gown, white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mr. Thoman was master of ceremonies at the reception and gave a thanksgiving prayer. Guests were seated at attractively decorated tables, with a three tiered wedding cake centering the bride's table. Out of town guests included relatives and friends of the groom from the Maritimes and Toronto, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wilford Williams from Milton, and friends of the bride from Hamilton, Preston, Limehouse, Guelph, Rockwood, Acton, Erin and Georgetown.

For a honeymoon trip to St. Catharines and Niagara Falls, the bride wore a blue lace over taffeta dress with long lace sleeves, matching blue hat and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Friends from the church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pasmore, Rockwood, to honour the bridal couple. Bridesmaid Joan Glendenning assisted Miss Webb with her gifts. Thirty guests were present and several games were played and a Bible quiz conducted. Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. Gordon Bowen assisted the hosts with refreshments.

A shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Goodwin in Toronto where many friends and relatives of the groom were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Peacock are living in the Hilltop Apartments, Queen St., Georgetown. He is employed with Beaumont Knitting Co. Ltd., Glen Williams, and she is a member of the staff of Holmes 5c to $1.00 Store.
