Barrie, Midland Visited by Pupils Of Norval School

(Written by one of the pupils Pauline Lawrence)

Norval youngsters attending Grades five and six at Norval Public School toured Barrie and Midland, Monday, June 19. This was all made possible by the children's fund-raising projects. The first stop was Simcoe County Museum where they saw many antiques and Indian artifacts. Midhurst Reformation Area was the next stop and for lunch they stopped at Springwater Park. The Shrine of the Martyr with its beautiful statues and towers was seen after lunch. The trip was topped off by visiting the reconstruction of St. Marie, the home of the Jesuit saints. It had many French homes as well as Indian homes and all sorts of buildings. The trip was most enjoyable and educational.

The pupils of Grades three and four of Miss Robertson's room of Norval public school enjoyed a trip to Kelso Lake on Wednesday, June 28. They visited the Museum, hiked around the park and went swimming after which they had a picnic lunch before returning home. The pupils raised the money for the trip with projects during the year.

A Leslie reunion was held at Rockwood on Saturday, June 24. On the following Sunday, June 25, many of the Leslie clan attended the Union Presbyterian Church communion service. The late George Leslie was one of the first elders of this church. On the present session now are three of his great-grandsons and one great-great-grandson. At the service Terry Leslie read the scripture lesson and John Young and Kenneth Leslie presented the offering. Rev. R. Duncanson's sermon was on "What's In A Name."

Get well wishes are extended to Russell Foster who has returned home after spending 10 days in the General Hospital, Toronto, for tests.
