

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ellison Married In Trinity United Church, Shelburne

Trinity United Church was decorated with two standards of deep pink carnations and white daisies on Saturday, June 3, at 3 p.m. when Jean Elaine Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, Shelburne, became the bride of Neil MacDougall Ellison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil M. Ellison of Georgetown. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by Rev. W.G. Dickson. The soloist, Mr. Frank Kelly of Bramalea sang the wedding prayer and I Love You Truly. He was accompanied by Mrs. J.C. Stoddart of Shelburne.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with an 'A' line skirt. The elbow-length sleeves were trimmed with applied daisies which also enhanced the train and skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of net was held in place by a crown of crystals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and ivy.

Miss Lillian Archibald of Sault Ste. Marie, was maid of honour, with Mrs. James Fawcett of Brampton, Mrs. Frank Irvine of Grand Valley, Mrs. Jack Hunter of Toronto, girl friends of the bride and Miss Jane Ellison, of Georgetown, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids. The bridal attendants wore floor-length gowns of white sateen featuring a pink velvet ribbon enhancing the empire waist line. Their headresses were a single white rose. They carried crescent bouquets of deep pink carnations. Little Miss Susan Wallace, of Shelburne, niece of the bride, was dressed in a floor-length gown of white sateen and carried a basket of deep pink and white carnations.

Mr. Bob Ellison, brother of the groom was best man and Mr. John Cunningham, Shelburne, twin brother of the bride, Mr. David Cunningham, Shelburne, brother of the bride, Mr. Don Ellison, Georgetown, brother of the groom and Mr. James Fawcett, Brampton, friend of the groom were usherers.

At the reception, which was held in the Shelburne Community Centre, Mrs. Cunningham greeted the guests wearing a jade green crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of tangerine carnations. Mrs. Ellison wore a light green dress with matching jacket. She wore matching accessories with a corsage of brown mums. Over 135 guests enjoyed a delicious supper with Mr. Emerson Greer, of Mansfield, cousin of the bride, as toastmaster. The bride and groom served their wedding cake to the guests.

Leaving for their honeymoon the bride donned an aqua dress and coat, with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was entertained at several showers given by Mrs. Gordon Cave, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ross Avison, Rosemount; Mrs. George Craig, Scarborough; Mrs. Jack Murphy, Brampton; Mrs. Alan McKelvie, Shelburne; Mrs. Jack Hunter, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carmar Smith, Shelburne and Mrs. James Ellison of Erindale.

The newly-weds will reside at 51 McMurchy Street North, Brampton.

SILVERWOOD

Too Cool for Swim At Institute Picnic

Silverwood Women's Institute members and their families enjoyed their picnic this summer at Small Woods park, Acton. Forty people gathered for an outdoor supper and games. Unfortunately the water was much too cool for swimming that day.

Hamilton Family Reunion Held at Stanley Park

The seventeenth annual reunion of the Hamilton family was held Sunday in Stanley Park, Erin. The president, Harold Treanor of Meadowvale was in charge and asked for a minute's silence in memory of William Hamilton and Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton who had both died this year.

A pot luck dinner prepared by the ladies was greatly enjoyed until a severe thunderstorm and heavy rainfall sent everyone running to their cars. Following dinner a short business meeting was held and it was decided that next year the reunion would be held on the last Sunday in June with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marchmont as the host and hostess.

Herb Hamilton was elected as president for 1968 and Mrs. Ian Break as the secretary-treasurer. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Penney, who were host and hostess for this year, and also to Mrs. John Newell, the secretary-treasurer.

Following the business meeting Floyd Hamilton of Oakville, presented the ladies with centennial pins and the children with rings and other treats. Prizes were also awarded to the couple coming to the farthest distance. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hamilton of Wrentham; Albert Marchmont for being the oldest member attending; Debbie Hamilton, the youngest member; Harold Treanor for his VanDyke beard and Wayne Rakestroy of Oakville for the fullest beard.
