

Alpine Becomes 'Complete' Club with Swimming Pool

"Before" and "after" pictures of new owner of the completely remodelled Alpine Health Club, in Wesleyan Street would show form Humenick twenty eight pounds lighter since he took over the club.

Little wonder with all the equipment available for toning these muscles never used as we walk from house to car and car to office.

There's a "mini-gym" designed by chiropractors, in which your feet tied together and pulled up and down by hauling on ropes is great for the stomach muscles. Then a bicycle, stationary, that is, with the revolutions per minute turned up as your legs get stronger.

You can pretend you're rowing on the lake on the "rower" then do sit-ups on a posturizer board. For the not so ambitious, there's automated exercisers, a belt massager, and a table massager, both of which are supposed to shake and rub the fat off.

Exhausted from all this you can sit in the sauna bath and relax. The sauna bath is a type of dry heat with the three levels of benches varying fifteen degrees, the hottest being at the top.

Then a cold shower and jump into the swimming pool. All of this costs the ladies only a dollar fifty per time. The men pay ten dollars membership and a dollar fifty per visit.

The men pay more since the club is available to them more frequently; at present only Mondays and Wednesdays are ladies days. The hours are from one in the afternoon till ten at night.

In addition "Norm's Barber Shop" which used to be on Main Street is in the front of the building so you can be groomed and healthy at the same time.

If all this activity is too much you can swim only for fifty cents.

If groups of more than six couples want to rent the pool there will be special rates for private parties.

Guessing Game in Blind Tourney at North Halton

A blind 3 hole tournament added interest to men's day at North Halton Golf and Country Club last week. In this, only 6 holes are counted, but contestants are not advised of the three holes being dropped from the scoring until after the game ends.

Joe Strite and Eric Ross shared low gross honours with 23, while John Thomas and Harvey Chappel tied for third place with 24. Another group were closely bunched only one stroke behind — Gord King, Don Curry, Bill Schenk, Bill Anderson, Sharky Grozelle and Bud Varney.

In the low net division Jim Bradley stood first with 13½ and Doug Jarvis second with 15½. Bruce Walker and Rupert Beaumont had 17 and Donny Wright, Del Wallace, 'Duffy' Wilson and John Agnew each had 17½.

John Todd was awarded the prize for the most honest net and Harvey Handy for the most honest gross.

This week it will be a string tournament. Each player is given one foot of string for each stroke of his handicap, which can be used up to three times.

Petes Retain Playoff Hopes in Hornby Victory

The Halton Hotel Petes just took too long getting started.

The Petes have only a mathematical chance of catching up with Omagh and the fourth and final playoff spot, but suddenly they have a winning ball club.

Last Tuesday Wayne Swanton and the Petes kept their theoretical playoff hopes alive with their second win in as many outings an 8-5 decision over Hornby Redshirts.

Terry Whitehead led the Halton attack with three singles. Jones had a double and a triple. Parritt a single and a triple, and John Bronson a single and a double. Bill Robson, had a double for Hornby.

The line score:
Halton 000 021 302 — 8 13 4
Hornby 000 301 100 — 5 5 5
Halton — Swanton and Yorke
Hornby — Hall and Stemmans.

Golfing Activities Rain Hampers For Women

The two consecutive victories doubled their total for the season.

Halton had to score three times in the seventh inning to wipe out a 4-3 Hornby lead and take the lead to stay.

They clashed in their three runs with a single by Mac Yorke, error on a ball hit by Barry Jones, Don Parritt's triple, and a sacrifice fly by Paul Tenyson.

An interclub match at Chingacousy Golf and Country Club on July 21 made quite a few lady golfers from North Halton, and Georgetown clubs very wet, but happy.

Some did manage to play nine holes between raindrops, but then the rains really came in

Third Inning Too Much For Giants, Drop 3-1

The Waterdown Tigers moved into seventh place in the Halton County League standings with a 3-1 victory over the Georgetown Giants in Waterdown last Wednesday.

The Tigers scored all of their runs in the third inning and then rode a surprisingly strong pitching performance by ex-second baseman Laurie Williams to the victory.

Those third-inning runs were scored on singles by Joe Scanlon and Aird Wilson, a fielder's choice, a walk, a fielder's choice and an error by second baseman Bob McCordell on Garth Dodmans ground ball.

The Giants scored their only run in the seventh when Don Westbrook doubled stole third, and scored on a wild pitch by Williams.

Infielder Danny Arbie pitched the final four innings in relief of Westbrook and chalked up eight strikeouts. The linescore: Georgetown 000 000 1 — 1 3 2
Waterdown 003 000 x — 3 3 0

G — Westbrook (1-3), Arbie (4) and D. Lindsay. W — Williams (1-0), Dodman (7) and Lang.

Among North Halton winners were Dorothy Young, Millie Dutchburn, Eleanor Inglis and Jean Mackenzie.

Tuesday, July 4 was 'Better Ball Play' at North Halton and winners for the eighteen holes were Marg Finlay and Phyl Monckton. Prairie Bessey and Jan MacKinnon scored best in the nine hole category. In the evening Joy Laird and Helen Murray took top prize.

Criers tourney was played July 18 and again the rain made playing difficult for the afternoon ladies. Dorothy Young was the top scorer for 18 hole players and Ann Timmins in the 9 hole. Helen Hambleton and Fran Baines tied for second among the 9 hole golfers.

Most of the evening girls got in before the rains started again and Hazel Arnold was the prizewinner.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

Tuesday, July 18

four way battle has developed for the top spot in the findings of the Junior division of this week's games. A devoted Zenith Tool and three others, Superior Foods, Beaver Lumber, and Murray Motors, all share the limelight. A tie royal is promised as one of these teams meet on, to break the tie in coming weeks.

BEAVER LUMBER 15 ZENITH TOOL 9

From a 0-0 1st inning, the Beavers pulled one run ahead the second, and held the lead for another two. The round saw the lead switch the Zenith side 8-7. An 8 rally in the 6th gave the Beavers a permanent lead, when Zenith gals could only manage one run.

Beaver's pitcher Carolyn Ber came into her own by throwing a perfect last inning, killing all hopes for a final by Zeniths.

Both Carolyn and Zenith's her Leslie Burns failed to tagged for a single homer throughout the game.

The sharpness of base play the Zenith team would make coach green with envy, and it this a match that could be gone to either team.

The star of the game was Zenith's short-stop Annette Ziani for her terrific playing this vital position. Annette held a 4 for 4 batting record for the night. Umpiring game was Hart Sherk.

MURRAY MOTORS 30 GEORGETOWN UPHOL. 21

After watching this game, a ball could never be called. It had everything from a slam home run to an ejected player.

It was "Connie Allan night", pitched her usual good game, tagged the grand slammer, held a 5 for 5 batting record and earned herself the star.

Connie's teammates for Murray Motors took the lead in the 1st inning and hung on tightly pilled up their heaviest in the 2nd when 16 runs took turns crossing the plate.

Inet Richmond, Debbie Norand Carol Bradley were more Murray's gals to a perfect night at the with 5 for 5 records, with ble having a homer am at her hits.

For the Upholster's, Darl-Savage played an excellent game. Her mound performance good and she had a 3 for 3 striking record, including a 3 run. Marilyn Armstrong the only other member of

GEORGETOWN CYCLE 15 KINETTE KRUISERS 8

Kruisers second pitcher, Bonnie Bryant pulled a game star out of a loss according to ump Jerry Wright. Bonnie led her teammates in an effort to put the Kruisers in the win column.

Singles and doubles were the most any batter could muster from the pitches of Kruisers' Dianne Hennessey and Bonnie Bryant and Cyclist's Brenda Muckart.

SUPERIOR FOODS 22 DAIRY QUEEN 5

The Queens just lacked the drive needed to outplay a top rated team like the Superior Foods' gals. These young ladies are coaching one another and talking it up the whole game resulting in plenty of "on the toes" fielding.

Winnipeg pitcher Roxanna Sweeie earned another game star. While in the box she pushed hard to keep the few Queens hits down to short in-field grounders. While at bat, she tagged two lovely homers, and had a perfect 5 for 5 record.

Teammate Janice Martin tagged Superior's other homer, and Dairy Queen's pitcher Nora Donnahee bagged the lone homer for her team.

Junior League Standings:

SENIOR LEAGUE

Thursday, July 20th

STATE FARM 20 SUNNUCKS - HALBERT 13

Holidays hit the ranks of the State Farm players, but the 7 gals on the field fought a hard and determined game, to be rewarded with a win.

Pitching for State Farm was split between Linda and Molly Henderson, with each going two innings. Pat Monckton and Pat Burns shared the mound for Sunnucks.

The game star was Molly Henderson. Her pitching in the last two innings held the Sunnucks score down, as only two players rounded the bases.

Homo runs were hit by Gleda Scarrow and Pat Monckton of Sunnucks team and Becky Cooper of the State Farm team.

LEONE'S HAIR STYLES 12 DELREX FASHIONS 5

Ose Poulsen was the game star and the win for Leone's. A fantastic record of 17 strike outs while pitching the seven inning game made the match an impossible one for Delrex. The 2nd, 4th, and 6th innings were perfect ones for her, while she was tagged for 1 very short hit in each of the 3rd, 5th and 7th bats. Needless to say Ose was the game star.

The lone homer for Leone's was belted out by 2nd base man Lorraine Godden. Delrex Fashions pitcher Janice Inglis was the lone member of her team to steal a home run off of Ose's pitching.
