

Kinsmen's Girls Softball League

JUNIORS
Beaver Lumber 33 Dairy Queen 14

This match belonged to the Beaver players from the first inning, where they held a 5 run lead, and steadily increased it through the 4th inning game.

Umpire Dean Taylor picked all five home run hitters on the winning team as game stars. Carolyn Barber and Bev Bradley each had 2 and Carol Walsh, Tina Weatherall, and Denise Milne each tagged one.

For the Queens Nora Donnahee, Sue Bernche and Jennifer Linton had one home run each.

Zenith Tool 21 Kinette 18

The Kinette Kruisers almost pulled the upset of the season when they came close to dumping the top team in the League.

Bonnie Bryant was the Kruisers' inquad star.

Ump Jim Cooper picked the entire Kruisers team as stars for their close fought game. The star players were Margo Burns, Chris McNamara, Pam Moharg, Pat Hunter, Lorraine Enman, Dianne Hennessy, JoAnn Seaton, Brenda Gossill, Collett Teller, Susan Arnold, Heather Hamilton, Bonnie Bryant, and Debbie Jarvis.

Coaching the Kruisers are Kinettes Jean Murphy and Donna Moores.

Hitting home runs for the Zenith Tool Team were Elizabeth Catling and Annette Gritanni with 2 each, and Nancy Shortill, Leslie Burns, and Shelley Bond with one each. Coach Jeff Collins felt that 2nd baseman Elizabeth Catling turned in the best effort for the Zenith team. She made several key plays on 2nd and had a perfect night at bat.

Pitcher Brenda Mueckert with a perfect 7 for 7 record at bat and a dandy mound performance, and 2nd baseman Cindy King with a fantastic 4 home runs were the choices for game star. Both gals play for the winning cyclists, coached by Don Redden.

The Upholsters pitcher, Marilyn Armstrong came up with the lone homer for her team.

Murray Motors 12 Superior 10
This was a dual of 1st place equals and the very close loss for Superior dropped them into 2nd position in the Junior League standings.

Janice Golden and Connie Allan split the mound chores for the Murray team while Roxanna Sweezie went the full 7 innings for Superior.

Murray's held a very slim lead throughout the game and the perfect 2nd and 3rd innings pitched by Janice Martin went a long way towards the win.

Leslie Catling was the game star for her quick action in Murray's left field and for hitting the lone home run for her team.

The single homer for the Superior team went to Janice Martin who according to ump Harry Levy came very close herself to winning the game star.

Stafford's Double Sparks Glen Win From Royal City

A bases loaded double by Glen Williams catcher Max Stafford broke up a light Inter-county Pastball League game in the Glen Friday night and sparked the villagers to an 8-4 triumph over Guelph.

Joe Shaw, pitching his sixth straight game, was credited with the win.

The previous Wednesday, Guelph upset the league leaders 8 to 2 in the Royal City.

The Glen club, which had a bad start this year, vaulted to the head of inter-county group with back to back wins over Georgetown and before the two-game Guelph series.

The league is quiet for two weeks because of vacations, but the Glen will play an exhibition game Friday in their home park, to stay sharp.

Three New Teams Apply for Jr. C Hockey

The Aurora Tigers will be zone, but the Suburban Junior C hockey league will probably expand from six to eight teams for the 1967-68 season.

The Tigers, who made last year's all-Ontario final before being eliminated by New Hamburg, plan to make the move up to the Metro Junior B league. But three new teams have applied to join the circuit. They will represent Streetsville, Richmond Hill and Bradford.

Teams returning from last year include the Oakville Blades, Newmarket Redmen, Orangeville Greenhorns, Georgetown Raiders and Milton Merchants. Admission of the new Streetsville entry could hit Milton hard. Streetsville has always been regarded as Milton territory, and the Merchants have been able to class players from that town as homebrows. Streetsville and Richmond Hill did not have junior teams last year. Bradford was a first year entry in the Georgian Bay Junior C League.

The strongest of the five remaining teams, Georgetown Milton and Oakville have all lost key players through age-drafting by junior A clubs, and college, so this year's circuit should be wide open.

Acton's earlier plans to ice a C entry have apparently disintegrated. Teams in the new league would probably play a 28-game schedule.

LOWVILLE WINS LAST RURAL SCHEDULE GAME

Lowville finished up the 1967 Halton Rural Softball League schedule with a lopsided 20-8 victory over Hornby Redshirts in Lowville Friday night.

Larry Campbell led the Lowville attack with four singles. Larry Colling had a single double and triple. Stu King covered a double and triple. Jacques Paquette shared pitching chores for Lowville with Lee Coulson.

Halton the Greatest Says Baseball Manager

To the editor: I would like to take this opportunity to thank six young men, Steve Gervais, Robert Patton, Roy Schultz, Larry King, Lee and Richard Clements, and Brian Peavoy all worked with me in the Georgetown Junior C League. They were drafted by junior A clubs, and college, so this year's circuit should be wide open.

Acton's earlier plans to ice a C entry have apparently disintegrated. Teams in the new league would probably play a 28-game schedule.
