JUNIOR GIRLS

Delroy Queen 21 Cycle & Sports 19

A long awaited win finally came to the 5th place Queens in a close fought game Tuesday August 8. The Queens came out of the 1st inning 3 runs back of their opponents, decreased it to 1 run back by the 4th and pulled ahead 5 runs in the 5th. The top of the final inning saw the Cyclists swinging the bat in earnest, coming up with 9 runs and regaining the lead, but the Queens copied their style and had 6 of their players cross the home plate.

Brenda Muckart was on the mound for the losers, and tagged 1 ball for a home run, teammates Cindy Day, Vickie Marshall and Cindy King also were on the home run score sheet.

As for the Queens, the win was the courtesy of 1st baseman and game star Wendy Sherk. Wendy, returning after a long vacation bagged herself no less than 3 home runs and in the process drove in four of her teammates.

Pam Barrager was the only other Queen's player to tag the ball for a homer. Nora Donahoe went the full 6 innings on the mound for the winning team.

Kinette vs. Murray Motors
Holidays hit the ranks of the Motoring gals, leaving them with only 6 players and a forfeited game to the Kruisers.

Beaver Lumber 35/Uphol. 8
The Upholsters seemed to have their problems regaining their drive after an 8 run 1st inning lead by the eager Beavers. It was a 6 inning game with 4 being heavy ones for the Beavers.

Carol Walsh and Bev Bradley formed a team as 1st baseman and catcher for the winners to earn themselves the game stars. Bev also had one homer to her credit, along with teammates Tina Weatherall and Ruth Finlay.

Lori Ann Sherk and Susan McDonald were the 2 Upholstry batters to tag home runs for their team.

Ross, Curry, Cash Vie for Top Golfer

Just three golfers are left in the match play elimination for A Flight men golfers at North Halton Golf and Country Club. Eric Ross assured himself of a shot at the title when he defeated Jack Timpson to gain the finals. A semi-final match between defending champion Don Curry and Ron Cash is still to be played.

In B Flight, John Todd reached the finals by downing Butch Fisher. He'll play either Bruce Norton or Roy Smith. Don Herrington will meet the winner of a Terry Baines-Bruce Blears semi-final for the C Flight crown. Herrington made it to the finals with a win over Nick Brown.

Superior 20 Zenith 7

The gals proved to be worthy of their name and were superior in all the way. Since only 1 homer showed up on the Superior score sheet, it was a game where steady hitting and playing won out.

Roxanna Sweezie pitched the full game for the Superior Woods team, hit the lone homer and got the game star. Shortstop Annette Grittani turned in the only 4 bagger for the losers.

SENIOR GIRLS

Leone's 16 Sunnucks Halbert 15
There was no loss in this defeat, regardless of the scores. In a burst of enthusiasm that showed their ball talent to the Leone's team, the Sunnucks gals never gave up until the last swing of the bat.

The 1st inning had the lead on the Leone's side of the ledger by only 1 run. In the 2nd it swung back to the Sunnucks team 6 to 4. A batting flurry hit Leone's in the 3rd and they tallied up 10 runs giving them a good lead of 14 to 3. In the final bat, Sunnucks had the top half of the inning and pulled off a real rally that had the crowd roaring in their favour. Their 7 runs had put them 1 up on the opposition, and all they had to do was hold Leone's down in their last half.

Leone's pushed the tying run across when Brenda Stansel hit Cindy Cooper in and the winning run came across on a good game saving hit by Carol Arthurs.

Two home runs were hit by Sunnucks catcher Toni Servos and 1 by Leone's pitcher Ose Poulsen.

It was the type of game that saw the 2nd string pitchers pull the game stars along with the game hero who hit the winning run across. Sunnucks shortstop turned relief pitcher Patty Burns was on the mound the last half of the game, as was Leone's 3rd baseman turned relief pitcher Cindy Cooper. Both these gals made the game exciting to the last swing by the third star Carol Arthurs, centre fielder for Leone's.

Playing for the fired up Sunnucks Halbert team were Debbie Searrow, Patty Monckton, Sue Sherk, Patty Burns, Glenda Elziger, Joan McDonald, Lilly Poulsen, Colleen Cummins, Nancy McBean, Toni Servos, Sue Street, Debbie Paul, and Pat Faris. Coaching the gals are Randy Neil and Allan Arnold. Winning the hard fought battle for Leone's were Brenda Stansel, Carol Arthurs, Jan As-

Delroy Fashions 13 State Farm 8

Delroy left fielder Bonnie Henderson took the game star award in the see-saw battle between the 1st and 3rd place teams. The State Farm batters gave Bonnie more than her share of work but she hustled that ball in, making it tough for the runners to get too far one of the 2 home runs scored by her team, having an overall 3 for 4 night at bat.

The other homer for Delroy was tagged by the catcher Gail Jamieson. The score in this game bounced back and forth between the 2 teams and then would stay tied for an inning, with the final break not coming for the Sunnucks gals until the last 2 innings when they piled up a lead and held on.

Senior League Standings:

Team	W	L	Pts.
Delroy Fashions	7	2	14
Leone's	6	3	12
State Farm	4	5	8
Sunnucks	1	8	2

Senior Home Run Queen

Edge Georgetown, Frank Team Ends in Tourney Win

Hal Kemp was a dirty word to any Omagh softball player during the weekend. Kemp behind a brilliant solid pitching and hitting performance brought Frank's IGA of Port Credit to the championship of Hornby's Softball Tournament Saturday night with a 5-2 victory over Omagh.

Frank's IGA was almost knocked out of the tournament in the starting game with Georgetown. The score was tied up at two all at the end of the seven completed innings but the victory went to IGA because they had one more base hit than Georgetown.

Hornby, Procar, Georgetown Zephyr, Kennedy Ford, Brampton, Hillsburgh and Glen Williams were all knocked out of contention in the first round of play by Cedar Grove, Halton Hotel, Frank's IGA, Acton, Rockwood, Omagh, Palermo and Lowville respectively.

The second round of play saw Lowville who are playing Palermo in the Halton Rural Softball Championship series knock out Palermo with a 7-2 victory. Other winners in the second round of play were Cedar Grove, Frank's IGA and Omagh with defeats over Halton Hotel, Acton and Rockwood. The third and semi-final round of play saw Frank's IGA take Cedar Grove by a score of 4-0. The Omagh - Lowville game saw Omagh take Lowville by a score of 4-1 even behind the pitching of Jacques Paquette who was relieved in the fourth. The final game saw a pitching duel between Hal Kemp of IGA and Dave Pegg of Omagh. Kemp pitched a whopping 20 strike-out game while Pegg contributed 13 strikeouts for the losers. Kemp in the first three innings retired eight of the first ten batters on strikeouts. Kemp also accounted for two of the runs scored for IGA.

In Kart Club Races

Gary Bonham wouldn't be beaten at the North Halton Kart Club races Wednesday. Bonham, who pilots a snarling blur in the Class 5 events, was the only driver at the races who led the field across the finish line in all three of his events, heat, semi-final and feature.

Gerald Whaling chased him to the wire in the semi and Russ Urray got up to take second in the feature. Junior division provided some interesting contests and was the only Class to produce three different winners, Bill Reid in the heat, Blake Morrow in the semi and Harold Boake in the feature.

Greg Morrow spoiled Bob Stevenson's chance for a perfect night by capturing the first place in the Class 5 event.

Green's 20 Points Best In Honey Pot Golfing

Bill Green collected 20 points to win a Honey Pot tournament at North Halton Golf and Country Club men's night, Thursday. Honey Pot scores are calculated by taking a player's handicap and adding a point for each bogie, 2 for pars, 3 for birdies and 4 for eagles.

Four golfers missed the winner's total by a single point, Wib Bradley, Don Herrington, Harold Badham and Tracy Barrager.

One and a half points back were Eric Ross and Scotty Patterson. Dennis Carr, Gob Collier, Jack Wells and Eric Nicholson put together 18 points, and Ron Cash, Jim Peardon, Jack Coulter and Frank Howard had 17 points apiece.

Today's men's competition is a low net tournament.

County All-Stars Triumph in Game With Guelph CJOY

The Guelph CJOYs of the Intercounty Baseball League found out something Sunday afternoon that the Halton County League has known for two seasons - Doug Cholowka of Burlington swings a pretty good bat for a pitcher.

Cholowka blasted a double in the ninth inning this week and then scored the winning run as the Halton County All-Stars struck for four runs in the final inning to nip the CJOYs 5-4 at Waterdown.

The Burlington star, who was also the winning pitcher, cashed two star runs with his double before tallying the winning run. Lefty Jack Roberts, of the Campbellville Merchants, who hurled the fourth, fifth and (continued on page 13)
