Fastball Teams Closely Bunched In Home Stretch

Halton Intercounty Fastball League has a traffic jam on its hands. Things tightened up Tuesday night when Guelph downed Georgetown-Hunters 6-2 to create a three way tie for second place with the locals and Hillsburgh. All teams have games in hand on the first place Glen. The bottom club, Rockwood is just one win behind the pack.

Georgetown committed four errors in the early going as Guelph jumped into a 6-1 lead. Sinclair relieved starter Ferguson in the 5th and gave up the 3th run in the final inning.

A Georgetown 8th inning rally produced just one run as Tibbets bunted safely Campbell hit and Bacon hit to score the lead runner.

| Standing: | P | W | L | Pts. |
|------------|----|----|---|------|
| Glen | 20 | 11 | 9 | 22 |
| Hillsburgh | 14 | 8 | 6 | 16 |
| GEORGETOWN | 17 | 8 | 9 | 16 |
| Guelph | 17 | 8 | 9 | 16 |
| Rockwood | 16 | 7 | 9 | 14 |

Future games:
Sunday — Guelph at Glen
Monday — Georgetown at Hillsburgh
Tuesday — Hillsburgh at Georgetown

Wants Mill Operate Fog Nozzles More

Mayor Joseph Gibbons again brought up the subject of odour from Dornier lagoon at council Monday night.

Deputy Reeve Art Speight claimed that the fog nozzles do work to dispel the odour, however he said they are not on often enough. He suggested the mayor write head office telling them the nozzles are not in operation as often as they should be.

Cr. Young felt the letter should go to local management with a copy to head office.

The debate closed with the mayor commenting, "I bet E.P. Taylor wouldn't want to smell that."

Due to the unexpected rush of business Thursday, August 10, we missed a lot of you people who phoned in orders for fish and chips. We just couldn't get to you all.

We are very sorry if we missed you, also those who had to stand so long waiting. To all of you, please accept our apology.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McMaster returned from a conducted tour to the west. They flew to Edmonton then by train to the coast and boat to Vancouver Island. They came back as far as Calgary by sightseeing bus and then flew back to Malton. They enjoyed the sightseeing bus and think it's the only way to travel but then they might be prejudiced, eh?

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, Ellen and Stephen enjoyed a camping trip to the east and visited Expo.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starrett and family have recently returned from a camping trip to Expo.

There was also another bus trip to Expo July 24-27.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Giles spent a few days last week in Lindsay visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ken Beam and family. They returned Sunday bringing back Diane who has been holidaying there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Corbett of Canton, Ohio are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Wagstaffe. They motored over to Canton recently and brought them over for a holiday.

The United Church service is at 9 a.m. for the month of August and Mr. Alf Goodwin of Georgetown is organist.

We were sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. Harry Moore's barn by fire last week. He is a familiar person in Wheeler's store as he is the egg supplier.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McMaster were down at Malton recently to see Mr. and Mrs. Eric Martin and children, Debbie and Jimmie off to Argentina. They had been to Peterboro at her parents' home for a holiday. She was Audrey Firth a cousin of Mrs. McMaster. Mr. Martin is Vice President of Bendix in Argentina, South America.

Their many friends extend best wishes to Marilyn Barth and Klaus Schneider who were married July 29th in the United Church here. They are living in Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Spiegelberg of Toronto spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Barth. They have just returned from a two week holiday on the Atlantic Ocean at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, also at the same home Barbara Barth of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Klaus Schneider of Brampton and Mr. and Mrs. G.S. Barth of Fort William who are visiting at the farm for their holidays.

If you have been holidaying away from home or if you have folks visiting you, please call me 877-2373. I'd appreciate it and I will include it in the column.

— Mrs. C. Barth.
