Scottish Relatives

Attend Gates - Campbell Reunion

The Gates-Campbell clan held their family reunion recently at the Stockwood Conservation Park with 40 attending. The weather was just perfect and added much to the enjoyment of a full afternoon of sports for the young folk and a social visit for the older members. Following a delicious picnic dinner a short business meeting was held at which time a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gates of Acton, who were the host and hostess for this year.

Peter Gates of Lowville was elected as president and Mrs. Kerry Jepson of Georgetown as secretary. Donald Gates of Hamilton, was elected to assist with the reunion for 1968. The oldest couple attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Campbell of Port Perry. The youngest member attending was Donnie Smith of Hamilton. The largest family present were Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gates and family of Acton. The newest married couple were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith of Hamilton. Those who came the farthest were Mrs. William Little and Mrs. Marion Scott Biggar of Lanarkshire, Scotland. The lucky prizes were won by Catherine King of Burlington and Archie Gates of Acton. A potluck supper was served and a special cake decorated with a farewell wish to Jeanie Smith of Woodstock, who will be leaving in September for Scotland where she will go to university for a year. Jeanie won a bursary at the Western university. Guests attending were from Upper Montclair, N.J., Lanarkshire, Scotland, Hamilton, Port Perry, Georgetown, Lowville, Palermo, Acton, Burlington, Milton and Hornby. The host and hostess were assisted by Mrs. Harold Bell and Mrs. Kerry Jepson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sampson have returned from their holidays at Norwood where they visited with friends and relatives.

Get well wishes are extended to Dr. W. F. James, who is a patient in St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rutledge and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Wallace of Blyth.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson on the opening of their flower shop, 'Hometown Florists' on Queen Street, Brampton. Several friends of the Hornby district attended open house which was held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. We wish John and Ria the best of success in their new adventure.

Robert Wallace has been holidaying in Ireland for the past month with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray of Antrim.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lowden and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Mason have returned from a holiday at Sault Ste. Marie.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Kerry Jepson, Cathy May, John Bradley, Lennie Plant on August 28.

Mr. Harold Wallace of Fairfax, Vermont, visited for a few days with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rutledge and family.
