Wallace-Sullivan Wedding Vows Given in Holy Cross Church

Father Otter Devent officiated at the marriage in Holy Cross R.C. Church when Stella Marie Sullivan became the bride of Jim Bruce Wallace.

The church was decorated with carnations for the ceremony and her father gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Mrs. M. Dyer was organist and Mrs. Crane sang "Jesus My Lord" and "Holy Mary, Mother Mild."

The bride wore a floor length sheath gown of crystal satin, empire line, with bodice and Lily point sleeves of French chantilly lace. A wattle of matching lace edged in crystal satin was attached from her shoulders with satin bows. A bouffant illusion veil was held in place by a snubst of hand rolled petals of crystal and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red and white carnations.

Miss Diane Newton, Toronto, was her cousin's maid of honor; Miss Linda Wallace, Orangeville, the groom's sister and Miss Sandra Dwyer, the bride's niece, were junior bridesmaids; and another niece, Karen Dwyer and Judy Stone were train bearers. They wore sheath gowns of aqua chiffon over tulle, veils held by matching chiffon rose, and carried bouquets of yellow mums.

Russell Wallace was his brother's groomsman, another brother Murray Wallace, Orangeville and John Adams were ushers.

At a reception at Georgetown Golf & Country Club, the bride's mother wore a blue lace suit and a corsage of white mums. The groom's mother also received, and wore a dress of green chiffon over white lace and a corsage of white mums.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip, the bride wore a blue and white suit and a corsage of red carnations. They spent a couple of days at Expo, then a week at Penn Hills Honeymoon Lodge in the Pocono Mountains.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan of Newfoundland and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wallace, Orangeville. He is employed with Andrew Murray Motors, Ltd. and she at the Northern Electric Company, Bramalea. They are living at 10 Murdoch Street.

Calgary Relatives Attend Scott-O'Rourke Wedding

There were guests from Calgary at the recent wedding of (Judy) Elizabeth Charlotte O'Rourke and Harold Clifford Scott in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Rourke and young son Colin timed their vacation to attend the marriage of Mr. O'Rourke's niece, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Rourke, John St., Acton.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated, and Knox organist E. A. Hansen played the wedding music. Baskets of white gladioli, with pink and white carnations formed a setting for the lovely double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal A-line gown of white crepe and re-embroidered lace, with a detachable lace train.

The lace bodice featured a scalloped neckline and bell sleeves, a row of tiny buttons adding back interest.

A crystal tiara held the bride's finger-tip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of pink roses fern and Stephanotis.

Miss Margaret O'Rourke attended her sister as maid of honour. Bridesmaids, both cousins of the bride, were Miss Becky Fleming, of Bramalea, and Miss Kathy O'Rourke, R. R. 4, Acton. The little flower girl, also a cousin, was Leslie Fleming.

The senior attendants chose floor-length A-line gowns of orange ice crepe, styled with lace bodices, and elbow-length bell sleeves. Single bows accented the Empire waistlines.

They wore matching wedding ring bodices and orange-ice slippers. Their bouquets were white carnations and fern.

The flower girl carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations to complement her full-skirted dress of white crepe.

At a reception at Georgetown Golf & Country Club, the bride's mother wore a blue lace suit and a corsage of white mums. The groom's mother also received, and wore a dress of green chiffon over white lace and a corsage of white mums.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip, the bride wore a blue and white suit and a corsage of red carnations. They spent a couple of days at Expo, then a week at Penn Hills Honeymoon Lodge in the Pocono Mountains.

Offer Costume Prizes for Fair's Centennial Parade

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter, Norval opened their home for a meeting of the men's section of the Georgetown Fair board on Thursday of last week. The president, Keith Webb, was in the chair.

Much of the planning for the September 22-23 fair was finalized, and when brought to a definite conclusion, Georgetown should have a big fair this year.

The directors decided to ask His Worship Mayor Gibbons to officially open the fair, and other speakers could include Reeve George Leslie of Esquesing, Dr. Harry Harley, M.P. and George Kerr, M.P.P.

The lady president of the women's section was at the meeting and agreed with the men that the ladies were in a better position to plan a float for the parade. A centennial costume contest was also turned over to this department. In this contest prizes will be awarded for the best original and reproduction lady's costume and for the best couple in centennial costume.

A report was given in the work of the centennial committee working with the fair board and it was reported that the plans were going ahead as planned—with a big free show Friday evening in the park, and on Saturday a mammoth parade to the fairgrounds.

The work committees have arranged for a week's repair to the cattle ties and other repairs, and the town will be asked to grade the track as soon as possible for the races.

It was suggested that anyone wishing to have a booth at the fair to contact the secretary immediately, as only a limited number can be accommodated.

High Praise for Young Folk's Wizard Production

46 Prince Charles Dr.
August 21st, 1967.

Dear Sir:

The Georgetown Youth Theatre group are to be congratulated for their excellent production of the Wizard of Oz. They performed a valuable service to themselves and to their community and demonstrated their creative and organizational abilities to an adult world which is too often ready to criticize the younger generation.

We look forward to seeing more productions of this kind in the future.

Yours truly,

—G. David Meakin
