Joe Louth, Frank Richardson, Paul Skinner, Jack Lucas, and Bob Butler each used 15 putts.

Harry Sanderson, Jim Jones, Jim Pearson, Eric Nicholson, Butch Fisher, Doug Young and John Lemay putted 16 times each.

PeeWee Playdowns Set for Weekend

Rain delayed the start of the Ontario Pee Wee Playdown series involving Georgetown and Newmarket slated originally for last Sunday.

The best two-out-of-three start in Newmarket tomorrow night (Friday) at 8:30 with games two and three in the Glen ball park Saturday.

Game two will be at one o'clock, and if a third game is necessary the teams will take a one hour break and go right back at it.

Georgetown Midgets opened their Ontario playdowns in Orillia Saturday and took a 12-1 thumping.

Liptrott - Pullen Golf Semi-Final

Dwayne Hay's opposition in the 1967 Georgetown Golf and Country Club championship will be known after Sunday when former champions Bob Liptrott and Mike Pullen meet in an 18 hole semi-final.

Dwayne Hay reached the finals by defeating his brother Terry Hay who held the title in 1966.

The Liptrott - Pullen match was delayed because of a hand injury suffered by Pullen.

YOUTH-IN

Our Fair Project is "Simply Smashing"

Has your summer been a drag? Then you can't be a member of Youth-In because we have had a blast. Aside from our regular meetings we have had a groovy Freak-Out dance, a wild picnic and a hayride that became a dance because of rain.

In the future we are planning another dance with a Yorkville group to entertain beside a trip to Maple Leaf Gardens sometime in the winter.

By the way, have you ever felt like smashing something? Don't take it out on your steady! Come to Youth-In's Car-smash at the Fall Fair for a swinging time (at the cars that is). If all the violence gets to you come and cool off at our refreshment stand.

As an added attraction for next week's meeting, we will have as a guest speaker, Mr. Frank Corning, a teacher at Georgetown High. Come and be prepared for a controversial evening.

During the school year meetings will be held every second Wednesday so that every other Thursday you can have your homework done. We start school on Tuesday, start Youth-In on Wednesday.

P.S. Charles, David and Patricia are on a trip.

Allow Church Parking Asks Why Not Others?

August 28th, 1967
Dear Editor:
I live on Guelph St. in the area where they have recently installed 'No Parking' signs. On Sunday, August 27th I phoned the police station to inquire if the 'no parking' included Sundays, as I had visitors and had to find a place for them to park.

I was told no one was allowed to park in this area at any time. I asked them about the cars that were parked for the church service — they then told me they were making allowances for church parking only. Could someone please tell me how they can allow some to park in this area while others would be tagged for doing the same thing. Also, I think that parking on one side only would help the situation a great deal on Sundays and Holidays.

This was the last game of the regular season of play and to break the tie for the playoffs, total runs for the year were taken, with the teams finishing in the following order: Beaver Lumber, Zenith Tool, Murray Motors, Georgetown Cycle & Sports, Georgetown Upholstery, Dairy Queen and Kinette Cruisers.

Home Run Queen
The Junior Home Run Queen for 1967 is Roxanna Sweeney, pitcher for the Superior Foods team. Over the past season Roxanna has belted out no less than 11 homers, two more than her closest competitors.

This is Roxy's second year in the league, and with the playing ability she has displayed, combined with the years she has left in the league to improve, you can be sure you will be reading her name in the ball news quite often in the years ahead. Congratulations, Roxy!

SENIOR LEAGUE
Leona's Hair Styles 9
Bryant's State Farm Ins. 8
State Farm began the game with a lead of 3 runs over Leona's and held on to the gain until the 4th inning when a rallying spirit took hold of the Leona batters. They managed to tie the game at 8 all. The top of the fifth belonged to State Farm, but they were put out in short order when Ose Poulsen pitched a perfect inning. Leona's Bev Gummer got on base with a nice hit and teammate Lorraine Godden drove out a long ball allowing her teammate to cross home plate with the winning run. For being the one that counted Bev was given the game star by umpire Glen Wright.

Ose Poulsen and Judy Miller hit home runs for the winning first one of the season. Molly Henderson was the lone member of State Farmers to tag the ball for a four-bagger.

Only one home run was hit in this game and that came from the bat of Delrex Fashions' Judy Draper.

The last game counting for this competition will be played Thursday, August 31. It is proving to be a close and interesting race, as both of the girls in the two top positions are playing for the same team, State Farm Insurance.
