

Wrestling Bear Sure to be Crowd Pleaser Here

Whipper Billy Watson and the Giant Yankee will play pretzel with each other until one yells uncle in a Texas Death Match that will headline a wrestling card in Georgetown Memorial Arena Wednesday, September 13.

In a Texas Death Match falls don't count. Only submissions are counted with the grappler who can take the most punishment declared the winner.

Also on the card is a midjet tag-team bout in which Roger Littlebrook and Cowboy Lang will take on The Mighty Atom and Frenchie Lamonte.

However the show stealer just might be a 600 pound wrestling bear which is matched against two unnamed wrestlers in one of the two preliminary bouts.

This is the second wrestling show in the Memorial Arena this summer. The first, in August, drew a capacity crowd.

Little Leaguers Decide Championship On Saturday

Georgetown's little league baseball teams draw the curtains with a grand windup party and championship games Saturday in the park. The minor league house league which was revived after folding up earlier this year, includes six clubs, Cincinnati, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Weather permitting all teams finish their schedule in morning contests starting at 10 o'clock. Hot dogs and pop will be served at noon and semi-finals start at 1 o'clock.

The championship game will get underway at 3:30.

Bill Anderson, whose desire to see the league continue enabled it to extend into its 8th season, told The Herald he

EX-SCHOOL GRIDDERS PROVE POTENT IN RUGGER UNIFORMS

What happens to old Georgetown high school football players? Well, lately they've been turning up in Georgetown Rugger Beaver uniforms.

Nine former high school gridders were in the Beaver lineup last week when they opened their fall season with a 17-0 win over Kitchener.

Georgetown led 3-0 at the end of the first half on Derek Amm's score. Jim Atkinson, George Ferguson and Al Ferguson struck for touchdowns in the second half. Les' Judge added a field goal and a convert.

Bob Wrigglesworth and Pete Forgrave, though they did not make the score column, were Beaver standouts.

The Rugger league includes Georgetown, Buffalo, N.Y., Hamilton, Kitchener, St. Catharines, and Brantford.

St. Catharines meet the Beavers in Georgetown park in the first home game of the season, September 10th at 3 o'clock.

Georgetown footballers who have made the transition to rugger include Wayne Turnbull, Jim Atkinson, Bob Wrigglesworth, George Ferguson, Al Ferguson, Sandy Mackenzie, Pete Forgrave, Pete Lavell, Dave Mackenzie, Doug Harley and Jim Blair.

Halton Rural Ladies Softball League game Monday night and gave Glen Williams the playoff series with Drumquin in three games.

Ron Cash, Bob Butler Kickers Golf Winners

Ron Cash's 36 was best gross score registered at a Kickers' Tournament which featured North Halton Golf & Country Club's men's nite Thursday.

In a Kicker's tournament golfers are allowed to replay three shots.

Bud Vary, Bill Anderson and Jim Jones tied for second spot with 38s.

Carding 40s were Bill Schenk Leigh Bradbury and Wib Bradley. Jim Bradley's 58 qualified for the most honest tag.

Bob Butler led the low net brigade with a 31%. Harry Sanderson had 32%, Jeff Agnew 33, Jim Peardon and Archie Pollock 33%, and Ben Kantback and Cyril Clarke 34. Jack Malcolm had the most honest net score, a 44.

Today's men's night feature is a Throw-Out Tournney in which competitors may toss out their worst three holes.

WAR DANCE? KINSMEN'S FRED HARRISON and Blue Giant pitcher Ken Kidd aren't really doing a war dance even though their teams start semi-final warfare in the Georgetown Industrial Softball League this week. Kidd and Harrison are merely scrambling for the ball and home plate respectively in a recent action-packed Industrial League meeting. Kinsmen, Blue Giant, Standard Products, and Dodge Brothers made the playoffs. Combines and Benson & Hedges' missed the cutoff mark.

Despite the cool and rainy August, swimming lessons carried on at Georgetown swimming pool, culminating in the Red Cross tests Monday, August 28.

Bonnie Henderson Is Best Lawn Bowler for Juniors

On Thursday, afternoon, August 31 the Junior bowlers had their closing game for the 1967 season and enjoyed a luncheon contributed by the Georgetown Ladies Lawn Bowling club and pop supplied by F. Wilson and W. Robinson.

The Juniors commenced bowling the first Thursday in July.

John Holby who for years made fastball batters around the Halton Rural and Inter-county fastball leagues look like rusty gates while throwing in the uniform of Glen Williams made his second appearance in a Georgetown Hunter suit in Rockwood Thursday and led the locals to a 3-1 win.

Holby locked horns with John Salmon in a torrid pitching duel which produced 34 strikeouts, 17 apiece.

Georgetown scored twice in the fourth inning when Bob Sinclair reached base on an error, Bill Campbell doubled and both came home on Holby's hit.

Blakelock doubled, Nightingale home with Rockwood's only run in their half of the 8th.

Errors played a big part in the game. Rockwood players were guilty of five, to Georgetown's two. Neither Georgetown's bubble was costly. Hunters out-hit Rockwood five to three.

GEORGETOWN — Doucette, Bacon, Sinclair, Campbell, Holby, Webster, Raft, Balasko, Freestone, James.

ROCKWOOD — Blakelock, DeRose, Salmon, Thatcher, Bacon, Wall, Hines, Nightingale and Duncan.

Holtby Pitches Hunters To Key Win at Rockwood

Three new clubs and five old ones will be off and running in the Suburban Junior C hockey league this winter.

The first league meeting, has been set for Georgetown on September 10.

The clubs returning from the six-team setup of a year ago will be the Oakville Blades, Milton Merchants, Georgetown Raiders, Orangeville Green-shirts and Newmarket Redmen.

The league champions last year, Aurora Tigers have moved up to Junior B competition this season and will join the Metro Junior B loop.

The three new clubs expected to enter the league will be Bradford which competed in the Northern Junior C league last year and Richmond Hill and Streetsville, entering Junior C for the first time.

Seniors—Jody Law, Alec Owsden, Tony Meers, Kathie

and have enjoyed each Thursday since. No rain has spoiled their games.

Bonnie Henderson was high for the season and Fin Arnold was high amongst the boys, both receiving a pen and pencil set donated by Mrs. A. Fattenden and H. Moss. The other bowlers each received a small prize. The league consisted of 40 girls and boys with an average of 30 bowling each week. Bonnie Henderson thanked the Ladies and Gentlemen who donated the lunch and Robbie Burns thanked the members of the senior club who had donated their time on behalf of the juniors each week, also for loaning the juniors bowls. A very successful season was enjoyed by all Girls and Boys.

On Sept. 9, 12 Juniors are competing at Streetsville for the Brockbank trophy and there is no doubt they will make a good showing.
