Sisters from Newfoundland Rees-Kent Wedding Attendants

Marriage vows were exchanged between Anne Lorraine Kent eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kent, Bell Island, Newfoundland, and Cyril Gordon Rees, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rees, 18 Mackenzie Drive, Georgetown, formerly of Bell Island, Newfoundland, Saturday August 19 in St. George's Anglican Church, Georgetown.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Llewellyn. The church was decorated with gladiolus for the occasion and were left in the church in memory of the groom's grandfather Mr. Edward Mitchell, Bell Island, Newfoundland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, entered the church to the strains of the wedding march. Appropriate hymns were played during the ceremony and signing of the register.

The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white nylon over taffeta with lace insertions, the sleeves of her dress coming to points over her hands. Her gown was bell shaped. The bride's veil of bouffant illusion fell from a pillbox crown of rolled net, rhinestones and pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses.

The bride had as her attendants her two sisters Donna and Debbie of Bell Island, Newfoundland here for the occasion. Matron of honour, Mrs. Donna Ezekiel, wore a street length dress of aqua chiffon over taffeta, her headpiece being a double rose of the same material as her dress. Her shoes and gloves were white and she carried a cascade of gold gladiolus.

Bridesmaid Miss Deborah Kent wore a street length dress of yellow chiffon over taffeta her headpiece being a double rose of the same material as her dress. Her shoes and gloves were white and she carried a cascade of gold gladiolus.

The groom had as his attendants his brother Norman (Butch) Rees as bestman and Daniel Kavanaugh as usher. A reception for the immediate family was held at the home of the groom's parents.

The bride's table was decorated for the occasion and centred with a three tier wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom. The cake was baked and decorated by the groom's mother.

The bride's mother wore a beige dress with bronze trim, bronze hat, beige shoes, purse and gloves. Her corsage was orange carnations.
The groom's mother wore a two piece dress of dusty rose with a white pearl purse. Her corsage was white carnations.
Leaving for the honeymoon the bride wore a three piece green suit with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Anne and Cyril are making their home at the Hilltop Apt., Queen St.
The bride and groom received telegrams of congratulations from Bell Island, Newfoundland
Previous to her marriage, a shower was held for Anne at the home of Mrs. Joseph McIntosh, 24 Mackenzie Dr., where the bride-to-be received many lovely gifts.
The bride is employed by Field Aviation, Malton, and was presented with a bathroom ensemble by her co-workers.
The groom is employed by Hill Co., Malton, Ontario.
Wedding guests at the church came from Galt, Guelph, Owen Sound, Brampton and Georgetown and Bell Island.

Finalist, But Misses Dairy Queen Honours
Halton's dairy princess Carol, one of five finalists, but failed to win the Ontario dairy queen contest at the CNE.
The Ontario crown went to the Northumberland county representative on Thursday. Peel county's Gayle Lowe was also a finalist.
Miss Swackhamer's entry led to mixed feelings among members of Equestrian school area board. She started her teaching duties at an area school. Had she won the contest, she would have been on a year's leave of absence, and the board would have been looking for a last-minute teaching replacement.
