

Married in Victoria, B.C. Own Couple's Daughter

MR. and MRS. G. E. MURDOCH

Before a large gathering of friends in Oak Bay United Church, Victoria on Saturday, Aug. 26 in a two-ring ceremony, Marilyn Anne Ferguson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson of Georgetown and George Edwin Murdoch, Victoria, B.C., were united in marriage by the Rev. Alex Calder.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length A-line white chiffon gown with lace bodice and elbow length sleeves, a matching chiffon coat with an applique of handmade lace. A pea de soie coronet with white rosebuds held her shoulder length veil in place. The bride's bouquet was of white roses, stephanotis and white carnations in crescent cascade.

Carol Ferguson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Valerie McAteer, cousin of the bride made a charming flower girl. Both attendants wore identical costumes of floor length chiffon gowns in centennial rose with lace bodice and floor length bows at the back, shoulder length matching veils held in place with pearl studded coronets. Both carried bouquets of white carnations and mauve heather.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise two-piece ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of white rose buds and carnations, while the mother of the groom chose for the occasion a teal blue ensemble.

Scores Sales Tax Increase As Affecting Low Incomes

The provincial government has picked a political plum from the Smith Report on taxation, and dangled it in front of the public as election bait, according to Halton East NDP candidate Bill Gillies.

Speaking at the opening of his campaign headquarters, Gillies said it was easy for a party to appear heroic by promising to reduce taxes. However he added the Conservative government would be "somewhat less heroic" if explained to the electorate where the money is coming from.

"The Smith Report was quite explicit in this respect in recommending to Mr. Roberts that the present sales tax be increased and extended to cover services," Gillies said.

This means he added that if you wanted to have your car washed, you would have to pay a sales tax.

Gillies called the sales tax the most regressive type of tax which could have been applied since it burdens people in the middle and low income brackets by further reducing an already limited purchasing power.

The NDP would reduce taxes on property owners by assuming 80 per cent of the cost of education, he said. The province now pays about 45 per cent of education costs. The increase would cost about $400 million a year, Gillies said.

"Although the current government would have you believe otherwise, this additional money has to come from somewhere," he said.

Ask Patience, In Developing Cedarvale Park

51 Hewson Cres., Georgetown.

Dear Sir:

Could the following be published in your next edition of "Letters to the Editor" please.

After the glowing account on the shortcomings of Cedarvale published in the last edition of the Herald, I have felt that a little plain talk is necessary to enlighten and explain to the more impatient that what Cedarvale Board needs is assistance, not criticism; patience and understanding, not blind consideration.

Cedarvale Community Centre Board is faced with the considerable task of having to redesign and allocate the various facilities which were not, in their original capacity, intended to serve as a Community Centre.

Much of the building and surrounding grounds require considerable alteration and the main access to the area has presented one of the more difficult problems. The bridge on the main road leading to the Centre is unsafe in its present condition and this necessitated the closing of the road to ensure the safety of all using Cedarvale. We have constructed temporary parking via a "nasty" but safe little bridge. This area and access when completed will be more than adequate.

Because a few impatient and intolerant people have decided to ignore our efforts to ensure their safety, we then must seek a different approach to the problem, hence this request to ask for the indulgence of the various groups using Cedarvale to be patient, we are doing our best with the time and money at our disposal.

However, if this does not meet with the approval of all concerned I would suggest you appear at future Board meetings, which are held on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. I am sure that all members of the Board will welcome constructive suggestions and offers of assistance, which we have had already from some groups using Cedarvale who are aware of our problems.

We are happy to see people living outside the community using the Centre, but we expect them to be tolerant too.

All must keep in mind that Cedarvale must become reasonably self-sustaining and will, with a little more community spirit and tolerance. We have been in existence just one year now, please bear with us.

Thank you.

Robert Francis, Councillor Property Chairman, Cedarvale Board.

Cleaning Ditches No Joke, Says Ratepayer

86 Weber Drive, Sept. 18.

Dear Sir:

I read in last week's edition of the paper, that a certain member of the council laughed, and made a joke about a matter concerning a Georgetown resident I believe the resident submitted a bill to Council to the amount of $35 for his services rendered in the past 35 years, by keeping town property namely ditches in good order, also another Councillor offered to pay this resident for the time he had held office as roads commissioner, approximately $2. Comedians we can do without in Council.

I have been a resident for the past 8 years, and I have been cursed with the same job as the resident mentioned above (keeping a ditch clean and free of refuse) and I fail to see where it becomes a laughing matter.

If the Councillor's offer still holds, and he is so free with his money, I will gladly send the Council a Bill for my services rendered, but my wages are a wee bit higher than $1.00 per year. Because apart from labour alone I also bought material. For the amount of taxes I am billed for each year, I certainly shouldn't have to put extra money and labour into town ditches. The question is not what can I do for my town but rather what can the town do for me.

Wildflower Pictures Are Shown Nature Club

Norman Cramp was named president James White, vice president, Mrs. Cecil Davidson treasurer, and Mrs. Fraser Macdonald secretary at a meeting of the Georgetown Nature Club in First Baptist Church auditorium. The meeting marked the start of the club's second year of existence.

A Terra Cotta resident keenly interested in wildflowers, Mrs. E. Jaquith was guest speaker and spoke on Our Floral Heritage. She said a survey conducted in 48 American States and seven Canadian provinces indicated residents felt the showiest wildflowers are cardinal flower, showy lady slipper, New England aster, butterfly weed, finged gentian, marsh marigold, brown-eyed susan, bloodroot, blue iris, Virginia cowslip, and turk's cap lily.

She said two thirds of our wildflowers are native to North America, the remaining third introduced by settlers, some intentionally such as teasel, echinacea, and English violet, and others accidentally in seed and feed.

Dr. Jaquith operated a projector for pictures of wildflowers taken by Mrs. Jaquith in various parts of the province.

The Nature Club meetings will be held the third Tuesday of every month, the next being a film night October 17 dealing with trees and insects.

Fire Bomb Damages Home of Halton Counsellor

A Molotov cocktail crashed through the living room window of an Oakville home owned by the director of the Halton family counselling services early on Monday morning.

Bennie Vivian, his semi-invalid wife Merle and their 17 year old son James escaped injury in the 3 a.m. bombing. Fire damage to the home was estimated at $2000.

The bomb made out of a glass milk bottle filled with kerosene and facial tissue for wick broke into hundreds of pieces in the centre of the living room setting fire to a rug and window, drapes and chesterfield.

Mr. Vivian is a frequent Georgetown visitor through his duties as the clerk of juvenile and family court here.

The fire was extinguished by Mr. Vivian with the aid of his wife and son. Mr. Vivian ran next door to get help from Oakville police sergeant William Bowles a neighbour.

Sgt. Bowles had already been awakened by his son William, 19 who heard the sound of breaking glass.

Mr. Vivian a former Baptist minister, army padre, and provincial probation officer who established the Halton County family counselling services two years ago, said the bombing was probably the work of a client who disagreed with counselling advice.

Mr. Vivian said he has received several anonymous calls at all hours of the day and night since he became director of the family counselling service. Some of the callers threatened his safety, he said.

Car Theft is Charged After Double Collision

A Norval youth has been charged with theft and failing to remain at the scene of an accident following a double collision on Union Street, Thursday.

Police said the youth in a car registered to Dodge Brothers automobile dealership on Guelph St. slammed into a parked car on Union St. while making a left turn off King St. and then drove another few hundred feet collided with a second car.

The parked car is owned by Frank Asbeck, RR 4 Georgetown the second car by Robert Paul Hayward 36 Henry St. Police said Hayward was driving north on Durham and about to make a left turn onto Union when rammed by the stolen car.

Damage to the three cars was placed at $1,340.
