at home, as well as brothers Ray at Limehouse and Terry, John, Sid and Jim of Orillia and their families. She arrived Sept. 13 and will visit until Oct. 4. With her is the oldest of three daughters, Ann Lisa.

Large Attendance for Church's Anniversary

There was a good attendance with visitors from other congregations at both services of Limehouse Presbyterian Church 106th anniversary. Rev. Denis Gibson, B.A., B.D. of Tweedsmuir Presbyterian Church, Orangeville, was guest speaker, assisted in the evening by our regular minister, Rev. F. N. Young, B.A. Mr. Gibson preached two rousing sermons, which he entitled 'Unconscious Decadence' and 'There is no God'. Betty Ann and Mary Lou Brown sang 'The Lord is My Shepherd' at the morning service, and a Milton male quartette of Mr. McPhail, Mr. Wilson and the Locke brothers brought numbers in the evening. The choir, directed by Mrs. Bert Bentons with Mrs. Ronghley at the organ, sang anthems. A social hour was enjoyed after the evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson holidayed in Montreal, the Laurentian Mountains and Ottawa for two weeks. They attended Expo on several occasions and visited friends in Montreal and Ottawa.

Mrs. W. Mitchell entertained a number of friends and neighbours last Thursday in honour of her house guest, Mrs. Haines of Australia.

We regret that Mrs. James Findlay is hospitalized following a fall in her home on Saturday. We hope that she may have a quick recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Anderson held open house on Sunday for getting acquainted with Miss Debbie Lee who will be married to their son David on October 7th.

Visitors include: Mrs. Haines of Australia, Miss Pearl Scott, Mrs. H. Scott, Mr. James Wilton, Mrs. P. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Thompson and little son with Mrs. Mitchell and the Sanfords

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Price and family of Islington and Mr. and Mrs. Rennie of Orangeville with the Fred J. Shortills.

Rev. D. Gibson, B.A., B.D. of Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price of Hornby, Mr. and Mrs. W. Greenlees, Cathy and Mark Elliott of Campbellville and Mr. T. H. Price with the Bentons.

Mrs. E. Morrow of Toronto with the H. Nortons.

Eastern Handicrafts Shown by Speaker

The September meeting of Arts & Crafts of Georgetown was held at the home of Mrs. Annott Early. The trip to Niagara Falls in June was reported as a great success. There have been displays of crafts at the Horticultural Society show and also a float in the Fall Fair parade. Plans for the annual sale on October 14th at the Riviera were discussed. Brunch and tea will be served and there will be many interesting demonstrations. Mr. James Warren spoke on handicraft in Pakistan and Thailand illustrating his very informative address with slides.
