

Georgetown Doctor Weds Nurse In Ceremony at St. Gregory's

DR. AND MRS. A. W. ASHENHURST

A honeymoon in Barbados and Antigua in the West Indies, followed the marriage on August 12 of Judith Marie Butler and Dr. Alexander William Ashenhurst. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Paul Butler of England, and the groom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Alexander E. Ashenhurst of Toronto, met while she was a nurse and he an interne at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. They are living in Georgetown where he has his medical office at 26 Main Street South.

The ceremony was performed by Father J.J. Sturtz in St. Gregory's R.C. Church, Toronto which was decorated with gladioli and pink carnations. The bride wore a silk organza wedding gown with empire waist and A-line skirt and a bodice of chantilly lace. A cathedral train bordered with chantilly lace, fell from the shoulders and a shoulder length veil of French tulle was caught in a cascade of flower petals. She carried a gladioli bouquet with gladioli petals, stephanotis and pink sweetheart roses. Miss Karen Gonneau was maid of honour and bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Drynan, Mrs. Donald Hartley, and the bride's cousin, Mrs. Guy Goodman of Montreal. They wore candy pink floor length A-line gowns of worsted shantung, with low square backs and flowing panels down the back. They wore matching shoes, pearl necklaces and bracelets and carried bouquets of pink garnet sweetheart roses and miniature carnations. The organist and three choir boys from St. Michael's Choir School, provided the music, the choir singing Ave Maria and Paris Angelicus.

Mr. Butler gave his daughter in marriage. Dr. Leonard Grov-Weston was groomsman and ushers were Dr. Danford McKay, Dundas and James Ashenhurst and Paul Butler, Toronto. Mothers of the bride and groom received afterwards at the Thorncrest Club, Islington. Mrs. Butler wore a full length dress of maize georgette crepe with antique gold lace applique on the bodice and a flowing cloak of gold berries and feathers and a cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a full length gown of aqua French lace and matching jacket with bracelet length sleeves, an aqua tulle bandeau and a gardenia.

Ordain Pastor Lohnes at Maple Baptist Service

A service of Ordination was held by Maple Avenue Baptist Church for the purposes of ordaining their pastor, Robert C. Lohnes.

The ordination council was made up of ten representative churches of the Fellowship of Evangelical Baptist Churches in Canada: an organization of some 430 member churches.

Pastor Lohnes was examined on the basis of a threefold statement including Conversion, Call and Doctrinal Beliefs.

The Moderator for the afternoon was Rev. Ron Mills of Bethel Baptist Church in Ferguson. The Clerk was Mrs. Frank Whitmee of Maple Avenue Baptist Church, Georgetown.

Rev. Lohnes' statement was accepted unanimously with commendation by Mr. N. Beckner who said it was the finest presentation he had heard in spite of the many like services he had attended.

The actual service of ordination was held at 7:30 p.m. with a full turnout for the solemn occasion.

A charge was given to the candidate by Pastor Frank Andrews of Faith Baptist Church in Oakville. Rev. Bruce Penny, a former pastor at Maple Avenue Baptist Church, gave a charge to the church. Rev. Ron Mills led in ordination prayer as the visiting ministers layed on hands.

Mrs. Lohnes was presented with a bouquet of roses by Mrs. Kenneth Gould, Sr.

The evening was climaxed by a stirring message from Rev. G. Douglas Routledge of Church Hill Heights Baptist Church, Scarborough.

The ladies of the church prepared and served dinner between the two services.

Describes British Local Council Work

Mrs. M.M. Wood of Harrogate England, now in Canada as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Bert Palmer, Albert St. was present at the September meeting of the Local Council of Women, on September 29 at the home of Mrs. R. T. Paul.

Mrs. Wood, who is chairman of the National Council of Women in Harrogate, gave a brief account of the aims and activities of the British Council and concluded by reading a list of resolutions drawn up by the Council for presentation at the next session of Her Majesty's government. These demonstrated the similarity of work of the councils here and in Britain.

Present also was Mrs. M.D. Simpson, Delrex Blvd., who gave an informative talk on 'Drugs and You'. Her material was based on literature issued by the consumer branch of the Dept. of Health and Welfare. She outlined the respective responsibilities of the Food & Drug directorate, doctor, pharmacist and drug manufacturer having to do with the handling of drugs, but emphasized that the basic responsibility rests with the consumer. She directed attention to the ways in which the consumer may apply his own safeguards in relation to the use of drugs, many of which are potentially dangerous.

Mrs. Clarence Hayes expressed the thanks of the Council to Mrs. Simpson for her address.

The Canadian Association of Consumers report was given by Mrs. F. W. Johnson. Mrs. A.M. Sutherland presented a Red Cross report drawing attention to a newly established branch of Red Cross work set up to seek the establishment of better international relations and promotion of better international understanding.

Mrs. J. Nieuwhof reported briefly for the Safety League. The afternoon ended with a social half hour, the hostesses being Mrs. Paul, Mrs. J.W. Kerr and Mrs. Hayes.

When did Niagara come into the picture?

A medical bill. A clothing bill. A car repair bill. They all seemed to come at once. Jack needed money in a hurry.

Answer: A Niagara Loan. Jack talked it over with the manager of the nearest Niagara Office. Besides getting the money, he got a lot of good advice on budgeting. With a Niagara Loan, Jack was able to pay all his bills at one time. And repay the loan on easy terms to suit his budget.

When you need extra money for any good reason, you can expect the same courteous, quick service at any one of 300 Niagara offices.

YOUTH-IN COLUMN

Car Smash, Hot Dogs Successful Fair Venture

by Richard De Sylva

The Fall Fair has come and gone for another year but this time Youth-In has left its hopelessly indelible and successful mark.

Youth-In contributed two concessions to the Fair — the hot dog stand and the Car Smash. The Car Smash was something new in Georgetown. We managed to get three old cars which we proceeded to paint up, and then cordoned them off where people could beat the h... out of them for only a quarter.

The hot dog stand was hidden under the grandstand but we still managed to sell all our hot dogs, pop and everything else we had right down to the last jar of coffee. The profit we made probably didn't come near to that of the bigger organizations but for our first attempt I think we did all right, besides we all enjoyed doing it and you can be sure that we'll be back in there again next year.

The coffee house we've always been talking about is coming closer and closer to becoming a reality. This coming Wednesday, the executive is going to see the Cedarvale Centennial Board about obtaining part of the building for our Coffee House. We can't say anything definite right now, but we are pretty sure the deal to get the Coffee-House will be successful.

Make way for another "Freak-Out" Dance people. Our next one is about a month from now. We're planning on two great bands playing in a really groovy setting, plus a new style of posters guaranteed to bring in the people even if it's for the sake of the poster alone. Keep your eyes peeled — they will look something like the poster advertising groups such as Jefferson's Airplane and the Grateful Dead. They won't blow your mind, or anything like that, but they will make you stop and think!

About a week ago we drew up a plan of action for the coming fall and winter. It covers not as much the fund-raising projects but the entertainment for Youth-In members, such as an all day auction, Halloween and Christmas dance, a trip to Yorkville and toboggan parties. For those that belong to Youth-In (in the words of the Beatles) a splendid time is guaranteed for all.

It's unny how bad news always gets left to the end but it's here and has to be said. Malcolm Clarke our former vice president resigned earlier because he intends to do some travelling, and now our secretary Bev Gosling has handed in her resignation (Grade 13 gets tougher every year). I'm not trying to make this sound like a eulogy, but both Bev and Malcolm really helped Youth-In get on its feet, we'll miss them both. Because of this elections were held last meeting, and Jan Laford is our new secretary and Finn Poustrup our new vice president, both of whom fit quite aptly in their new positions.

Our president Jim Egerton wants to thank all those who supported Youth-In and especially those who worked there.
