

Five Additions With Sixth on the Horizon

GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL WILL SPREAD EASTWARD BY SEPTEMBER '69

THIS AERIAL VIEW OF GEORGETOWN District High School on Guelph St. clearly shows the school's new property (on the left side of building) recently acquired through expropriation. The sixth addition to the school entered the talking stage at a board meeting last week. It is to go on the new land and be ready for September, 1969. Also visible here are St. George's Anglican Church rectory (right foreground), and Holy Cross School and church (left background.)

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

BY BILL COATS

Rules at bridge are made to be broken. When to break them is left to human judgment, hence, computers would never be good bridge players. Last week at the Acton Bridge Club I broke a rule that I cannot recall ever breaking before. Since it led to a good result I shall pass it on for what it is worth.

Both sides are vulnerable and the dealer is North.

NORTH
S-A K Q 2
H-9 7
D-A 9 6 2
C-7 6 2

WEST EAST
S-8 6 S-J 9 7 5 3
H-10 8 4 2 H-3
D-K Q 4 2 D-7 5
C-9 4 3 C-A K Q J

SOUTH
S-10 4
H-A K Q J 6 5
D-10 8
C-10 8 5

The bidding:

NORTH EAST SOUTH WEST
1D 2C 4H All Pass
Opening lead club - 9.

North's opening bid is correct. With two four card suits, the one below your shortest suit should be bid first. I sat East and I had a problem. I could not make a takeout double since I was so short in hearts. I would really like to show my spades but I didn't want my partner to lead spades. The clubs looked very nice but I have never overcalled on a four card suit. I finally bid two clubs so that my partner might have a suit to lead to. I could always bid spades later.

South's leap to four hearts closed out the bidding. With his solid six tricks in trump, this was a good call.

Maybe West would have led a club anyway, I don't know. But after East's bid, there was no doubt. After the club lead declarer did not have a chance. West led the club nine and declarer played the five. On the second club led, declarer dropped the ten while West played the four.

Since West would lead low from four clubs, declarer is known to have another. A third club was taken and now the stage was set. Declarer appears to have 10-tricks, once he gets the lead. There are six trump tricks, three spades and the diamond ace.

One trick disappeared when East led his last club. Declarer chose to play East for the heart ten and took a discard. West ruffed with the 10 for the setting trick. Even if declarer ruffs high the four one trump split now defeats the contract.

Maybe the next time I have ace, king, queen and jack of a suit I'll over-call again and see what happens.

Winners at Acton Bridge Club on Monday night - 1st, Dick Raymond, Mrs. N. Pattullo; 2nd, Mike Lorusso, "Duke" Wilson; 3rd, Gloria Coats, Bob Dickson; 4th, Cam Sinclair, Bill Wandell.

Mystery Trip Takes W.I. to Devil's Glen

Georgetown Women's Institute had a mystery bus tour on October 11th.

The ladies travelled as far north as the 'Devil's Glen' to view the beautiful fall colours. They returned home by Terra Cotta where they stopped for a delicious dinner catered by the Thimble Club.

SILVERWOOD

Sew Whats Learn More About Seams

Silverwood Sew Whats held their third meeting at St. George's parish hall in town. Roll call was answered with "How I prepare my material."

Eleven members learned about flat filled seams, French seams, pulling thread to ensure material being straight and when to "stay stitch" and why, also the proper way to use tracing paper and wheel.

Cole - McBride Wedding Vows In Holy Cross R.C. Church

The marriage was solemnized recently in Holy Cross Church, Georgetown, or Lynda Ann McBride, daughter of Mrs. Frederick McBride and the late Mr. McBride, and Gerald Charles Cole, son of Mrs. James Cole, St. John's Nfld., and the late Mr. Cole.

The church was decorated with baskets of white snapdragons and shasta daisies. Mrs. John Hutton, Churchville, sang The Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Mrs. R. Walter Ridley, Norval.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ted McBride, the bride wore an empire-style sheath gown of white Duchess satin with a panel of re-embroidered lace down the front of the gown. The elbow-length sleeves were overlaid with lace. The long train was attached to the gown with a large bow at the waist and was scalloped with lace. A headdress of organza petals, edged with pearls, held the seven-tiered bouffant veil. The bride's bouquet was of white gardenias and stephanotis.

She was attended by her sister, Nancy McBride, as maid of honour, and three bridesmaids, Susan Richardson, Toronto, Mrs. Hazel McBride, Brampton, sister-in-law of the bride ies. Her corsage was of pale pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole will be residing at 95B Keele St., Toronto.

DIABETES SCREENING

Munich is the first city in the world to screen its entire population for diabetes.

Changing World President Tells Ladies of Institute

District president Mrs. Webb was guest speaker at the October meeting of the Georgetown Women's Institute. Speaking on "The Challenge of Change" she told of today's mechanized way of life and the adjustments which must be made to be a participating member of today's society.

Miss Norma Thompson showed some pictures of Expo '68 as well as some beautiful ones around this area. Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. Lloyd Davison presented instrumental numbers.

The meeting was held in THE GEORGETOWN HERALD Knox Church hall and Mrs. Harry Bailey read a report from the district directors' meeting. A social half hour was enjoyed while lunch was served. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26 1967 PAGE 3
