What's happening to the old fashioned farm?

The modern farmer puts his trust in a computer instead of an almanac. He knows the day is coming when one man at a control panel will do the work of ten men on tractors. Keep up-to-date. Bring your family to the Royal to see what's going on. The best of Canada's livestock and produce is on display, with children's exhibits too. This year, there's a glimpse of the way things are going to be.
