Organized Canvass

The Georgetown Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society, as a result of a canvass here Monday was able to enroll 101 new blood donors for their upcoming clinic, an increase of 12 per cent. Of these 31 were already donors elsewhere.

The president of the Georgetown & District Branch, Mrs. A. M. Sutherland, who organized the canvass, was very pleased with the results and feels this success is due to the people who willingly went out to conduct this door-to-door canvass in the east and west subdivisions.

Members of the Youth-In-Candy Strippers, Rangers and many others took part in this drive.
