

Golden Wedding Celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Archie McEnery

MR. AND MRS. ARCHIE McENERY, R. R. 1, Georgetown. For 50 years good neighbours friends to Ballinafad area folk.

Liberal Association life-ber Archie McEnery and wife, the former Agnes Jane, still received congratulations from all branches of government when they marked their Golden Wedding anniversary on November 4th.

Harry Worton MPP and Mrs. McEnery called in to deliver their best wishes personally and Mr. Dr. Harry Harley made a phone call to the McEnerys next day.

Bennett in its official itinerary, visiting the McCarthy farm Tuesday Nov. 7 and the Bennett Scotsdale farm Thursday, Nov. 9th.

The group also visited herds at Streetsville, Milton, Barrie, Stouffville, Jarvis, Willowdale, Milliken, Shelburne and Unionville as well as a meat packing plant. They were interested to see the beef cattle judging at the Royal Winter Fair.

The purpose of the mission is to inform Argentine authorities first hand on Canada's high quality beef breeding stock. The excellent health, inherent feeding efficiency, hardiness, and the overall economic capability of Canadian beef breeding stock under a variety of climatic conditions were emphasized.

In the past, Canada has not exported purebred beef cattle to Argentina, but it is hoped
