Candlelight Ceremony for Hyatt-Fisher Wedding

In a candlelight service in Boston Presbyterian Church on November 2nd, Edna Marie Fisher and William Stanley Hyatt were married in a ceremony performed by Rev. Stanley Smith.

Candelabra and standards of white mums and blue pompons decorated the church. Mrs. Henry Sloski was organist and the groom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilson sang Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony, the bride wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace which fell softly into a train. It featured a scalloped embroidered neckline and hip-point sleeves. A leaf and crystal headpiece held her scalloped elbow-length veil. She wore the groom's gift, a cultured pearl drop and earrings in sterling silver setting, and carried a cascade of American beauty roses, fern and atrophaitis.

Her sister Doreen was maid of honour and the groom's sister Mary Lynn Hyatt was bridesmaid. They wore floor-length Marina blue gowns of georgette over taffeta with elbow-length sleeves with marquis trim. A soft A-line pleat fell from the empire waistline. A headpiece, ric employee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lloyd Fisher, RR 3, and the groom who is employed with Applewood Motors, Streetsville, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyatt, RR 2, Norval. They are living at 12 Elizabeth St. S. Brampton.

The bride was honoured at several showers. Her hostesses were Mrs. Douglas Ismond, Norval, Mrs. Hugh Leslie, Georgetown, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter, Burlington, Ruth and Wilma Mason, Streetsville, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Carney and the A-grove community.

Receiving afterwards in the church hall, the bride's mother wore a cerise Italian wool suit matching feather hat, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother also received wearing a grape wool dress, trimmed with white pearl buttons and fur, black accessories and a corsage of orchid pink carnations.

Guests were present from London, Arthur, Rockwood, Burlington, Milton and Georgetown and included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Fisher, as an honoured guest.

Traveling to Nashville, Tennessee for their honeymoon, the bride wore a pink wool suit with fox fur trim, matching velvet hat, black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The bride, a Northern Elect-
