SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Several Georgetown ladies went to Port Credit to see a display of hand hooked rugs and smaller articles made by the students of Mrs. Lloyd Field.

Judith Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, 70 Maple Avenue E. has been accepted as a pledge by Gamma Phi Beta Sorority, Alpha Alpha Chapter, of the University of Toronto.

Mrs. Vic Torrance, of the Barber & Henley Travel Agency staff, was a guest of the Jamaica tourist board on a recent trip for a group of travel agents. The party flew to Kingston Jamaica, stayed there a few days, then visited Ocho Rios and Montego Bay, during their week's stay.

On December 3rd Mr. and Mrs. John McMurray, 114 Ray-Jawn Crescent, had a buffet luncheon for their daughter Dawn-Louise's first birthday. Guests from Toronto were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Lee and great-aunt Kath Lee; from Brampton grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John McMurray and aunt Linda McMurray, aunt Cheryl, uncle Bob and Robbie Kellett; and from Georgetown, grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Robert French and uncles Paul and Gregg French. Unable to attend were Mr. D. Donnelly of Brampton and Rodney Deforest of Georgetown. Dawn's aunt Cherie baked the birthday cake that looked like a pink teddy bear.

Office Not Closed Just Seeking Location

The Herald's policy of requiring that name and address of writers to the Mail Bag be published, was interrupted last week when a line of type was dropped at the end of a column.

M. Cardington, Chelvin Drive, was complaining of the closing of the unemployment insurance office which has been operating here on Wednesdays.

H. W. Fullard, manager of the Brampton Canada Manpower Centre, which operates the Georgetown office, informs us that the closing has been only temporary. The municipal office, at which the sub-office has operated, is overcrowded and Mr. Fullard is looking for accommodation elsewhere in town.

Various Trees Are Popular

Preference in Christmas trees varies across the country, with balsam and Douglas Fir probably the Eastern favourites because they retain needles two to three weeks indoors.

Scotch pines are growing fast in favour. A Norway spruce makes an excellent outdoor community tree, but it sheds needles soon in a warm room. Juniper and hemlock, while fine as Christmas greens, do not make ideal indoor trees.
