Scottish Heather, Pipers At Hiltz-Calder Wedding

A recent wedding in St. John's United Church had a real Scottish flavour when the bride and groom were piped from the church following the ceremony. Pipers Alex Calder and Bill McKay of Oakville, were present for this time-honoured touch, while the bride's sister presented her with a silver horseshoe decorated with red and white carnations.

Wedding principals were Pauline Dorothy Calder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Calder, 95 Sargent Road and Michael Wayne Hiltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hiltz, Glen Williams.

Given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony, the bride wore a gown of bemberg organza over taffeta with hand clipped lace trim on the full skirt, chantilly lace bodice and lilypoint sleeves. A waist was attached at the shoulder and a headpiece of crystal and pearls held her bouffant illusion veil with scalloped edging. Her bouquet of red roses stephanotis and ivy also featured a sprig of heather brought from Scotland by Mr. Bill Rannachan.

Miss Jody Sargent was maid of honour; the bride's sisters, Mrs. Jean Hulme and Miss Sandra Calder and Miss Iris Rannachan were bridesmaids; and the groom's sister, Miss Pauline Hiltz, was flower girl. The maid of honour wore a gown with a deep red velvet bodice, sheath skirt with chiffon overskirt and a shoulder train of chiffon. The bridesmaids wore similar gowns, with red bows at the back. Their headpieces were red satin bows with crystal and pearls and shoulder length double veils. Bridesmaids carried cascades of white carnations, ivy and red velvet leaves, and the flower girl a white blossom basket with white carnations and red velvet leaves.

Rev. Robert Scrivens officiated at the ceremony and Bernard Shrubsole was organist. The church was decorated with standards of red and white glads. The groom's cousin Don Norton was groomsman; ushers were William Lorrman, the groom's brother Brian Hiltz, the bride's cousin, William Calder of Oakville; and the bride's brother Robert was ring bearer.

At a reception in the Delrex Banquet room, the bride's mother wore an autumn gold ensemble, brown accessories and fur jacket and a corsage of red and white carnations. The groom's mother wore a blue lace coat and dress ensemble, navy accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations. Guests were entertained by disc jockey Jim Dueschene, pipe music by the bride's uncle Alex Calder with drums played by her cousin Alister Calder. Roses from the reception tables were presented to the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. Charnock of Schomberg and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. L. Mino, of Glen Williams. Guests were present from Oakville, Oak Ridges, Toronto, Lake Wilcox, London, Schomberg, Georgetown and Glen Williams.

For her honeymoon trip, the bride chose a white and gold ensemble, white accessories and a corsage of orange delight roses. Mr. and Mrs. Hiltz are living in the Centennial Court Apartments, Maple Ave. E.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored at miscellaneous showers given by Jody Sargent and Mrs. M. Ferreday, and at a cup and saucer shower at which Mrs. R. Costley and Mrs. R. Hill were hostesses. Fellow employees at Orenda, Ltd. had a stag party for the groom in Caledon East Legion hall.
