NORVAL

Moving to Alliston Friends Say Farewell

A farewell presentation was held for Mrs. Harold Collins and her brother Victor Graham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter on Saturday evening, December 9th.

Organization are busy with plans for a New Year's Party and dance in the parish hall on Saturday evening December 30. The Couples Club of Norval United Church are busy with plans for a New Year's party in the parish hall on New Year's eve. See the coming events for further information.

A Christmas eve service was held in Union Presbyterian Church Sunday December 24 at 7:30 p.m. with the Young People's group in charge.

The choir was composed of Y.P.S. members. Joan McDonald conducted the special service and Terry Leslie gave the sermon. Mary Dolson read the scripture lesson and Bryan Reynolds led in prayer. Christmas carols were sung during the service and Rev. R. Duncanson pronounced the benediction.

Unit Two of Norval United Church held their Christmas party at the home of Mr. Roy Laidlaw on Thursday evening December 14th.

Mrs. Don Cleave and Mrs. J. Thurbek gave the Christmas theme devotionals.

Mrs. Garnet Laidlaw and Mrs. W. Ridley were in charge of the program which consisted of a Christmas song contest. Those present were divided into groups of 5 and one from each group had to draw a Christmas song and the others had to guess what it was. The group that guessed correctly first won, then another one from each group had a turn at drawing a selected song.

A pot luck supper ended the enjoyable evening.

The January meeting will be the program planning meeting. Bring your ideas and help make an interesting program for the year.

Norval Presbyterian Church Sunday School Christmas concert was held in the church hall on Wednesday evening December 20th with Rev. R. Duncanson master of ceremonies. A varied program of individual recitations, solos, etc., and songs and skits by each class was enjoyed. The children of the church group put on a play and the Intermediate Class and the Young People's Class each put on a Nativity Play.

John M. McClure superintendent of the Sunday School, assisted Santa Claus in handing out the gifts to the pupils from the tree. Santa resembled Bill Donaldson remarkably.

Union Presbyterian Church Sunday School held their annual Christmas supper and concert on Friday evening December 22nd. The supper commenced about 7 p.m. and while the dishes were cleared up Mrs. R. Duncanson told the children a story after which the program was enjoyed with Rev. R. Duncanson as master of ceremonies.

An excellent varied program and readers of the Georgetown was put on by each class presenting a skit, song or play.
