AND THIS IS NUMBER SEVEN

RAIDER JACK KEMSHED, back to camera, is set to slap home rebound but it doesn't come as the puck fired by team-mate Brad Johnson, out of picture, crosses the Oakville Blade goal line for Georgetown's seventh goal. The piece of action was part of a Sunday afternoon Junior C game won by Raiders 7-2. The same two clubs clash here this Sunday.

Are You a 'Sender' ... Or a 'Taker'?

The father who sends his boy to the arena usually tucks his feet under the chesterfield, sits back, turns on the TV, watches the Leafs, criticizes the commercials, then goes out and is not home when Junior returns from the arena.

The 'sender' wouldn't know the score of any of the lad's games — he has to bowl when the team needs an extra car to drive them to a game. All in all, he has just too much to do. But maybe Mom can go to the odd game, and a lot of Moms do.

BUT — Junior's team is in the finals! Now we find Mr. Sender one of the first in the arena. First of all, why isn't the heat turned on for the kids' games? I'm going to see about this. Why don't they give the kids decent sweaters? The manager ought to be shot for letting them play with those crummy slicks! And if the coach doesn't put Junior back I'm going right down and do something about that. Who in blazes ever told him he was a coach!!!!!!

We don't need to say to you: "Sir, are you a sender?" You couldn't be, you're going down to the arena this week because it is Minor Hockey Week in Canada. But if this is your first trip, please think it over and come back again.

Incidentally, please pass the word to 'Mr. Sender' and maybe he'll join you as one of those who will 'Take — Not Send his boy to the Arena'.
