

GDHS Developing Fine Wrestling Reputation

Examinations and Christmas holidays interrupted the boys' schedule and training program. They returned to school and another tough match with the Ontario Champs from Alliston and were unprepared for both events. At least the results seemed to indicate this. GDHS boys were defeated 41-18. Alliston had practised throughout the exam; this their success is understandable. Georgetown's four winners were:

122 lbs. Jim Hall by a fall.
 136 lbs. Vince Graham by a fall.
 157 lbs. Doug Hills by decision.
 168 lbs. Hugh Graham by a fall.

Also of interest is the fact that Jim Hall and Doug Hills were defeated 41-18. Alliston had practised throughout the exam; this their success is understandable. Georgetown's four winners were:

Lane's Midgets Still Flying, 16 Straight

Georgetown Lane's Midgets trounced Hespeler, 7-1 at home on Thursday night and followed on Sunday in Brampton by routing the Legionnaires 6-0 to extend their league leading streak to sixteen straight games.

Architect of the Hespeler win was Jerry Nash, who picked up the hat trick and assisted on one other goal. Captain Duwayne Hay scored two goals with singles going to Ray Inglis and Juri Kudrasovs. Ron Fogal picked up four assists as the left winger on the line with Juri Kudrasovs and Jerry Nash.

While Hespeler was completely outplayed as the shots on goal indicate, John Blair in stopping 27 of 28 shots played a brilliant game in the nets for Georgetown. Of the 27 shots sent his way 12 of them were difficult chances and on three occasions he stole the puck off Hespeler sticks.

Shots on goal: Georgetown 50 Hespeler 28.

Gibbons, Gray Awarded Centennial Year Medals

Using a bit of trickery, Monday night, council kept the mayor or from talking, and ended up naming him, along with Walter Gray, a recipient of the Canada Centennial Medal.

Last week the mayor would not let his name stand for the nomination, since he felt it would not be proper for a member of the council making the nomination, to receive the medal.

The "trickery" lay in the wording of the motion which said, "the mayor be excused from voting or taking part in
