Hilkron Bantams Drop Their Final Game in League Schedule

On Tuesday, Jan. 23, Georgetown's Hilkron Steel Bantams came through with a superior team effort as they came from behind to tie the visiting Burlington Bantams 1-1.

Burlington jumped into an early first period one goal lead, to set the stage for Georgetown's come-back. Up until the last half of the third period Georgetown had missed several opportunities around the Burlington net. However, perseverance finally paid off as Alec Owendan scored from Dennis Norton to make the game score 1-1.

Georgetown at Milton

On Saturday, Jan. 27, Georgetown's Hilkron Steel Bantams finished the regular season on a sour note by dropping their final game to the Milton Bantams by a score of 3-1. This game was a complete reverse to the game played on the Tuesday night before.

The Georgetown team started off by playing good hockey for the first ten minutes but gradually slowed down as the game progressed. By the middle of the third period Milton was ahead 2-0.

Then with five minutes to go

Seek Hockey Greats as Attraction for Tournament

Georgetown Kinamen hope to use NHL hockey greats of the past and present as drawing cards when they lift the curtain on the 1968 edition of the International Bantam Hockey Tournament here in March.

That's one of the features the Kin are working towards. They also plan to bring last year's tournament champions, Georgetown, back for an encore in an exhibition game between local Midgets and Richmond Hill. The championship Bantams are almost all members of the Georgetown Midgets this year.

Another feature could be a Tyke match.

Though the journey will lose some of its perennial entries from other provinces because its winter holiday dates are only observed in Ontario, it will retain its international flavour. Four United States teams booked to chase A Division honours will come from Detroit and a city suburb, Rochester, and Port Huron.

Forty-five teams in all will take part in the tourney and eight teams are on a waiting list and ready to come in, should a vacancy occur.

Mrs. Jessie Hayes is in charge of feeding the hundreds. Mrs. Donna Moores is finding lodging in local homes for them. Jerry Perkins heads a refereeing staff, and various Kinmen have taken on the remaining tasks, timekeeping, providing transportation between the arena and billet homes etc.

The tournament runs from March 16 to 23.

Hay, Fowler Amass Eleven Points Each in 2 Games

Lane's Midgets extended their undefeated skein to nineteen straight games in thumping Acton twice, on Tuesday night at home 20-0 and in Acton on Wednesday night 11-0 in regular Tri-County league encounters. On Monday evening, Georgetown travelled to Milton, handing their traditional rivals a 7-0 shellacking.

In both Acton games, it was never a question of who would win the games but by how many goals. The Acton team could not muster any attack worthy of note, nor could they skate with the speed merchants of the big red machine. As a result, Georgetown controlled the puck out-shooting Acton in both games 77-10 and 55-5. Weldon, the Acton goalie, should have sued his mates for non-support as Georgetown snipers were all around him taking pot shots at will.

Leading the Georgetown attack in the two games was the Captain Dwayne Hay with seven goals and four assists and Marty Fowler with three goals and eight assists both for 11 points. Since so many points were racked up, description of all goals and assists would be impossible, so a brief summary is listed below.

DWAYNE HAY

Dwayne Hay	7	4
Marty Fowler	3	8

Ray Inglis	1	2

Bob Sargent	0	1

Marty Fowler with two goals and two assists led Georgetown to an easy 7-0 romp at Milton Monday night. The shut-out was the fifth in a row for the duo net minding team of Doug Unsworth and John Blair, allowing only sixteen goals in nineteen games. The game also marked the return of two injured players, Paul Fendley and Neil Korzak, sidelined for two months with major injuries. Paul responded by potting a goal and assisting on two others and Neil fired a goal and assisted on one other.

Other goals were scored by Ray Inglis from the point, Benny Heppes on a perfect pass from Dwayne Hay and Jerry Neil. The Midgets fired thirty two shots at the Milton net-minder while Doug Unsworth of Georgetown only had to stop 9 in recording his fourth shutout of the season.

Novices Host to Preston Tonight in the Play-offs

Bliss Novices hosted Burlington here on Tuesday, January 23. They were the perfect hosts and allowed their visitors to return home with a 3-1 win. The Eagles played well but they found the Burlington net minder almost unbeatable.

Burlington scored in the first period, Pynes from Dekker. The second period was scoreless. In the third period at the 4:30 mark Hamilton from Glen made it 2-0. Georgetown certainly had most of the play but a goal seemed impossible. Finally at 17:50 Dean Popiel, assisted by Mike Forbes put the Eagles back in the game. The Georgetown goalkeeper was lifted and a sixth attacker added but as sometimes is the case this move backfired. Netherly of Burlington scored on the empty net and it was 3-1 Burlington. This was the last game of the schedule for the Bliss Eagles. They meet Preston here on Thursday, February 1st in their first play-off game.

In the regular season schedule, the Bliss team played 18 games. They won 10, tied 3 and lost 5. They scored 67 goals and had 38 scored against them and this is how the boys finished.

In their first encounter the Spartans defeated the locals by a score of 34-22. However, the locals have improved greatly over the last two weeks, and Monday held Spartans to a 25-24 score. At half-time the score was 14-13 for the Spartans, both teams picked up 11 points in the last half.

For the Rebels it was Dave Ward picking up 11 points and Benny Heppes with 6. The Spartans best players were Peopre with 10 points and Wright with 7 points.
