

The Jacobin Man If It's Worth Winning Ed's Won It

Champion Jacobins

Ed McLean with some of his awards

A Norval man, Ed McLean, believes if a hobby is worth having, it's worth doing right, and proof that he practises his philosophy is borne out in the many awards which decorate one wall in the living room of his home. They represent his winnings in Jacobin pigeon shows all over the continent at which he has become a familiar exhibitor. At one time this year the only three Jacobin challenge trophies in North America were all on display in the McLean home. Other trophies and rosettes in the picture below were won by Ed at Jacobin pigeon shows at Columbus, Ohio, and Reading, Penn., in 1967, and at Atlantic City, N.J. in 1968. At left are Champion black and champion AOC Jacobin pigeons which earned their titles at the Grand National Pigeon Show in Atlantic City, January 15. Ed and his son Ron are also making names for themselves as experts on Jacobins and last month judged the International Jacobin Show in Port Huron, Michigan.

Reflow Rink, Norval School Children Enjoy Skating Again

The mild weather with heavy rain of last week melted the ice on the skating rink at Norval Public School but it is again being flooded and the children are once more enjoying the skating. Following the heavy snow fall, Orval Shee cleared the rink with his snowplough and several fathers assisted with the flooding. Norval Rover's Group have offered to look after the snow shovelling as a 'good turn' for the community, so providing the weather man co-operates there should be skating on the rink for a few more weeks.

Mrs. Lorne Cleave and Mrs. Ed. McLean from Norval United Church-UCW attended the Dufferin and Peel Presbyterian United Church Women held in Grace United Church, Brampton on Tuesday January 30.

During the morning session Mrs. W.G. Taylor, past president of Toronto Conference U.C.W. gave an enthusiastic talk on United Church projects.

Special speaker in the afternoon was Major A. MacCormac, Superintendent of House of Concord, a probation centre for boys, whose inspiring address on the work carried on with boys aged 16-20 that come under their care from the courts, left a message of hope for the future but must be done if they could work with the boys at an earlier age. The title he gave his speech was 'Little Is Much If God Is In It', and ended with the theme verse of the meeting, 'As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.'

Fred Fendley is home from Brampton Hospital with the good news that he did not have a heart attack as first suspected by the doctors. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Elmer Patterson who is a patient in Toronto General

Elect Church Officers At Stewarttown Vestry

St. John's Church Annual Vestry meeting was held in the Church Hall last Sunday following the evening service. Reports were received from various organizations. It is at meetings like this, where you hear about the work of the church - about the Guild - and the Sunday School, and the Choir, and the Action Group and the Cemetery Committee, etc. These are the organizations that serve the community, and by Missionary giving, people in many parts of the world are reached and helped.

Much of what is done is in the way of social service, and of a personal and individual nature, and it cannot be the subject of a public report.

The following officers were elected for the year 1968.

Vestry clerk: Miss Diana Armstrong; rector's warden Mr. Thomas Warnes; People's warden Mr. T. H. Briggs; treasurer Mrs. C.A. Grant; lay delegate Mr. T. Warnes; substitute Mr. K. Grant; Advisory Board: Mr. Briggs, Mr. Warnes, Mrs. Grant, Miss Armstrong, Mrs. K. Wilson, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Cy Wilson, Mr. Tom Maxwell, and Mr. Harry Savings.

Sidesmen: Mr. Tom Maxwell, and Mr. T. H. Briggs; Choir leader: Mr. Thomas Warnes; Sunday school superintendent: Mr. T.H. Briggs.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown, the former Barbara Hills of Glen Williams, who were married in St. John's Church, Saturday evening, Feb. 3rd. Rev. Canon J. E. Maxwell officiating.

We welcome Mr. David MacFarlane as a staff member at the Senior School.

Mr. MacFarlane comes here from Prince Edward Island and
