Wednesday Fire

(Continued from Front Page) smoke and discovered flames in another part of the storey and a half house. By noon all that remained of the Montgomery home were the four downstairs walls. All contents including some recently purchased pieces of furniture and wall to wall living room broadloom were lost. The house was about to be sold but the deal had not been closed. Fortunately the loss was insured.

High School Addition

(Continued from Front Page) The high school new playing field, now in the planning stages, will likely have a buried watering system. "An artificial watering system is almost mandatory," Trustee E. Bodnar of the property committee told the board when he reported on progress of the playing field preparations.

$5,000 Plus Travel, Musk Ox Calf Price

It would cost at least $5,000 for a musk ox calf for the Halton Region Conservation Authority's 75 acre compound, near Rattlesnake Point, field officer Dave Murray said Monday. Last summer, the Authority was considering obtaining some musk oxen for the area, to go with a small herd of buffalo, and a family of elk that were obtained last fall from Alberta. One of the few musk ox herds

ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. David Russell of Acton are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday March 24th. They will receive their friends and relatives from two to four and seven to nine at the home of their daughter and son, 4 Main Street, Acton. No gifts, please.

ENGAGEMENTS

The engagement is announced of Barbara Hodgins, Georgetown to Mr. Terry Campbell, Glen Williams. Marriage plans will be announced at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Collins, 80 Stevens Crescent, announce the engagement of their daughter Patricia Evelyn to Mr. Steven John Pello, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pello, 35 Raylaw Crescent. The marriage will take place on Saturday, May 18th, 1968 at 4:30 o'clock in St. Bartholomew's United Church, Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl K. Travis, 96 Cornwall Road, Brampton, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Mearle Travis to Mr. Gordon Ross Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, Georgetown. The marriage will take place on Saturday, May 18th, 1968 at 4:30 o'clock in St. Bartholomew's United Church, Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Sadler of Brampton are very pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Lorraine to Mr. Brian C. Kinslie, also of Brampton. The wedding is to take place on August 17th 1968.

Ten Resignations Accepted

By the board, Teachers, M. Buelow, Miss E. Cary, F. M. Corning, J.R. Davies, Mrs. M. McInnis, J.G. Lovelock, V. R. McInnis, T.A. Redmond, Miss J. Rhody and R. Smith will leave at the end of the current school term.

J. Todd was appointed department head for academic subjects of the occupations program. G.D. Meakin was made major department head (History) and a bookkeeping teacher Donald J. Campbell was placed on a permanent contract with the board effective September 1.

A letter from the Georgetown planning board has any objections to an application to build two apartment buildings in the Mountainview Road - Sargent Road area. Their reply will state they have none.

In captivity is also located in Alberta, and the owner of the herd is asking $5,000 for a calf, so the Authority would have to pay that sum, plus travelling expenses to obtain any animals.

Carrier Service Soon For Moore Park Mail

Mail carrier service will soon be extended to the new Moore Park subdivision, presently being served by group boxes.

Dr. Harry Harley, MP told The Herald this week that authorization has been received for letter carrier service for the 174 home subdivision.

Postmaster Harold Marshall said that he expects that a door-to-door survey will commence this week, a necessary preliminary to the extended service. In this, it is explained that, at least 80% of the homes must have letter boxes installed to post office specifications, and include a visible house number on their house, before the service starts.

Rare Blood Type Among 351 Donors

Georgetown Red Cross officials are happy with the results of a blood donor clinic here Monday for several reasons.

As well as attracting 351 donors, the clinic also turned up one very rare blood type, well known 2B first-timers, and introduced live musical entertainment.

Of the 351 donors 18 were selected for a total of 333 actual donations.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, 1 Terry Court, are home from a southern vacation. They motored to Florida and stayed at Hialeah Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Helliwell have returned after flying to California for a two-week vacation with Mr. Helliwell's brother and sister. During their stay, they visited many places of interest in the state, and also spent an evening with former Georgetown residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Darlington, at Rancho Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gougeon, 10 Dufferin St., joined a group of Sealy mattress dealers for a week's sales seminar in Puerto Rico. They stayed at the Americana Hotel in San Juan. Their trip was somewhat marred when an oil slick from a grounded tanker made swimming in the ocean impossible for most of the week.
