BARNYARD NEWBORN HERALD FIRST DAY OF SPRING

Mrs. McNabb, Lloyd Chisholm Honoured by Guernsey Club

On Friday, March 15th, members and friends of the Halton-Peel Guernsey Club met in the Stewarttown Hall for the annual banquet and presentation evening. Mr. Bruce Hodgins, Secretary of Canadian Guernsey Breeders Association, congratulated the Halton-Peel club on hosting delegates to the world Guernsey conference last summer. These delegates visited at the farm of Mrs. H. D. MacPherson, and J. H. and J. D. Cameron.

He unveiled a new true-type picture of the Guernsey cow. This cow weighs 1300 lbs., is 54 in. at the withers, and produces 15,000 pounds of milk per year. One of these was presented to Mrs. John McNabb for having top scores in the all Canadian Guernsey judging contest. The other was presented to Lloyd Chisholm for his contributions to the Guernsey breed over the years, in regard to type. Lloyd was a member of the National Type Committee since it was formed in the early 1960's and was Chairman for a period of three years.

Production certificates were awarded to John Y. McNabb, Mel McCullough, Kingsholm Farm, W.G. Booth, J.H. and J.D. Cameron and Mrs. H. D. MacPherson.

Henry Stanley complimented the club on its showing accomplishments last year. He discussed the 4H records of the club members with Guernsey calves, and suggested it was time for Guernsey breeders to tighten their belts and cut costs by cutting labour saving devices, and producing more feed on their farms.

Hartley Cameron, Director to the Ontario Association, stated that the Halton-Peel Club was one of the smallest clubs in the province, but had the highest

4-H Girls Try Hand At Pie, Tart Making

Ashgrove Fruitie Tooties 4H Club held their fifth meeting at the home of Ann McClure and full-scale "Fruit-Late-yesterday" was answered by twelve girls.

The girls discussed using fruit for lunch and dinner, and making salad plates. Mrs. McClure demonstrated the art of making pastry. The girls were each to make a pie, or tart, during the next week.

They exchanged pastry recipes and had a chance to sample Mrs. Bird's butter tarts which she had brought along to the meeting. The girls discussed their skill for achievement day, and then had a chance to sample the delicious apple pie Mrs. McClure had made.

Why Fourth Gym? Wants Auditorium Instead

Dear Editor:

I read (with some measure of disgust) of the proposed addition to the Georgetown District High School. Now possibly I am lacking in intelligence, but I simply cannot understand the necessity for a fourth gymnasium.

For years many of us have sat quietly by, hoping against hope, that a new auditorium would be included in the next addition and each time the auditorium has been scrapped in favour of another gym. I'm all for physical fitness but really, isn't this carrying it to extremes?

Inasmuch as my tax dollars are helping to build these additions I am tired of being quiet and patient.

It strikes me as false economy when people from Georgetown are forced to go to Peel Composite School and pay in the neighborhood of $100 a night for a decent auditorium where you don't have to bundle your coat under you on the hard wooden seats and strain to hear what's being said on stage. Why should this money have to go out of town? The students of Georgetown High are entitled to adequate facilities in stage plays, operettas, commencements, etc., and it is up to us, the supposed, responsible adults to see that they get them.

At also happen to believe that Georgetown has a desperate need for an indoor pool where children and adults who cannot avail themselves of swimming lessons in the summer, would be able to learn. I am sure this too would pay for itself in a short time. However, I would be content with an auditorium to start with. Therefore, I earnestly plead that any person who feels their tax money is being foolishly squandered on another gymnasium, register their protest with the school board or council.

Finally, I would like to thank you Mr. Editor for allowing me the opportunity to air my views.

Most sincerely,
Mrs. Wm. Barratt

Pancakes, Bacon Breakfast in Open Air for Brownies

Brownies of the 3rd Georgetown pack and leaders Mrs. Betty Hill and Miss Nancy Parker kept company with dozens of mice when they went on a breakfast hike early Tuesday morning.

Each Brownie enjoyed fresh cooked bacon and pancakes in the open air. The outing was so enjoyed by everyone that they plan to repeat it later in the year.

College Royal President Is Former GDHS Student

8 Kenneth Ave. Apt 304, Willowdale, Ontario

Dear Sir:

I was interested to read of the splendid showing of Georgetown students in the University of Guelph's College Royal, held on March 9. I had the pleasure of attending the event and Jeff Nurse in particular performed well.

I am sure that it will please several residents of Georgetown and in particular the senior members of the staff of GDHS to learn that the President of College Royal for 1968 was a former GDHS student, Mr. Paul Hodgman.

Yours very truly,
H. T. Lewis

Says Facts not Straight In Art College Boycott

RR 3, Georgetown March 18, 1968.

Dear Mr. Editor:

A number of Georgetown residents, including the Editorial Staff of the Herald seem to be unaware of pertinent facts concerning the recent boycott at the Ontario College of Art.

I have come to the conclusion that the events at OCA have been confused with those at Georgetown District High School. Popularity had absolutely nothing to do with the boycott and this impression may have been gained from reports in newspapers which lacked any sort of background information.

Definite principles, and the law were involved. The two instructors were illegally dismissed from their positions. Their contracts were studied by lawyers and a definite infraction on the part of the Administration was found. With this number of the staff and a strong majority of the students protested for immediate re-instatement of the two instructors, and an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the dismissals.

Before the protest all the proper channels were tried, but they were firmly blocked by the Administration. Administration should never be questioned when dealing fairly and honestly for the good of the Institution, but when grave infractions on the part of the Administration come to light, immediate action to bring these infractions to the attention of the authorities is accepted practise.

Yours very truly,
K. C. Grant
