

Mrs. Thomas J. Fisher, 88, Lifelong District Resident

A lifelong district resident, Mrs. Thomas J. Fisher, 88, died in Halton Centennial Manor, Milton, on April 2.

The former Lillian Agnes Wilson, she was the daughter of John and Hannah Castle Wilson and was born on their 9th Line farm. Following their marriage in 1909, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher farmed on the 5th Line on the present Bruce McCleure farm. Retiring in 1944, they moved to town and lived on Charles Street.

Before her marriage Mrs. Fisher was organist for twelve years at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Hornby, and their marriage took place there. She later attended Boston Presbyterian Church, and after moving to Georgetown was a member of Knox Presbyterian and the Park Circle of the church.

Mr. Fisher died in 1960. She leaves two children Reta Mrs. A. G. Hunter of Burlington and Lloyd of R.R. 3, Georgetown; seven granddaughters and one great-grandson. She was predeceased by nine brothers and sisters.

Rev. Norman Young conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, with interment following in Greenwood Cemetery. Pallbearers were nephews George and James Fisher, Bob Lawson, Guy Russell, Frank Wilson and Spencer Wilson. Flower bearers were Harold Early, Lloyd Martin, Guy Wilson, Keith Winter, Leslie Fisher and Bruce McClure.

ONE LAST FLING

THE DAYS ARE NUMBERED for Georgetown Memorial Arena's ice. Depending on how junior hockey playoffs progress, the ice could be out before the weekend is over. Arena management offered skaters one last fling last Saturday but less than a dozen trailed the sunny sunshine for a final free whirl around the pond. Here Karen Neil laces on the blades to take advantage of the invitation.

Stewarttown Residents To Get Street Lights

With Stewarttown residents voting for street lights, a by-law authorizing Esqueting to sign a contract with Ontario Hydro was passed at Monday's meeting. The cost will be celebrated on Monday, May 20th.

Stewarttown taxpayers, Accon Limestone Quarries tender of $1 a ton delivered for grade A crusher, was accepted by council. They are ordering thirty thousand tons.

The Victoria Day holiday will be celebrated on Monday, May 20th.

Glen Churches Filled For Easter Services

Easter services at both St. Alban's and the Glen United were well attended last Sunday.

St. Alban's had two services 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. when Holy Communion was celebrated by Rev. H. Llewellyn which were his last services here. The church sang an anthem, "Hallelujah" and Easter lilies adorned the church. The United Church celebrated Holy Communion at 9 a.m. and the junior choir sang "An Easter Carol" and "Springtime" under the leadership of the organist Mrs. M. Spencer. Next hymn books were presented in memory of Mrs. Kate Smith. The Easter lilies were taken to two elderly ladies confined to their homes.

WHAT IT EASTER
Easter is joyful, lively and alive!
Filled with the wonders of spring,
It's tulips, crocuses, buds on trees,
And robins that cheerfully sing,
Easter is children hunting for eggs,
The bunny was careful to hide,
It's baskets of candy, fuzzy chicks,
And pink for a Sunday robe,
Easter is women in flowered hats,
New dresses and spats and white gloves,
It's a family gathering and a fancy dinner --
A season that everyone loves,
It's going to church with loved ones and friends,
And hearing the wonderful story
Of the hope and beauty this Holy time bring,
The promise of God's endless glory!

We extend sympathy to Mr. Bill McGowan in the death of his brother, Mr. Ernest McGowan. The funeral took place in Oakville on Saturday.

The Young People of St. Alban's Church as well as other young folk of the village had a clean-up around St. Alban's on Monday and then made a little presentation to the Llewellyn family. To Rev. Llewellyn they gave a small religious plaque, to Mrs. Llewellyn a milk glass candy dish and to Donna and Joanne boudoir decorations.

Congratulations to the double trio who won first prize at the Music Festival in Accon last week. Singing in it were Betty Campbell, Karen Klee, Robbie Heaton, Cindy Stafford, Kathy Klassen, Cindy Hancock, also congratulations to Cheryl Spence who won in her solo group.

Mrs. Clayton Allen celebrated her birthday on April 6 and entertained at dinner, her daughter, Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Everson and Carolyn, and granddaughters, Judy and Margo Williams and friends, Tom Maxwell and Jim Pew.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Longstreet and children, Vera and baby Gary of Erin visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. McGowan, for Easter.
