

Delegate Hunter, Smith To Negotiate for Houses

Reeve Wm. F. Hunter and Cr. Wm. R. Smith were appointed by council on Monday to negotiate with land owners whose properties will be required for the widening of the Main Street railway bridge.

The town is seeking seven houses as well as varying amounts of land from other residents along the street, mostly on the south side of the bridge.

A council meeting called Saturday morning to discuss the purchases with owners proved something of a fiasco as Mayor Gibbons termed it, when some of the owners left before discussions took place.

Monday, the mayor said that not only should every property owner be advised of the valuation which has been made on his property, but should also know the values on others, too.

The clerk was instructed to mail valuations to each party concerned, with the understanding that each owner affected could find out other values by contacting the clerk.

"They won't have to do that," said the mayor. "I'm going to make a point of telling each of them myself."

He said the town would be in a better position to negotiate if every owner knows exactly what's what.

Both the mayor and Deputy Reeve Speight stressed that owners are entitled not only to compensation for their properties, but should be assured of relocating without any expense to themselves.

One owner has already informed council by letter that an incorrect purchase price was noted for his property, and that the valuation set is almost three thousand dollars less than the house cost him in 1966 plus improvements he has made.

Estimate Damage At $10,000 in Macintosh Fire

Fire Chief Erwin Lewis estimated fire loss suffered by Dr. Alastair Macintosh, 30 McIntyre Crescent, Thursday midnight, at $10,000. A newly built recreation room, rugs, drapes, chest-of-drawers and chairs and tables were destroyed and extensive smoke damage was done throughout the house.

Dr. Macintosh praised the speed of the fire department saying, "Five minutes after I placed the call the fire truck was there."

The Macintosh's are living elsewhere temporarily.

Other fire calls, Wednesday morning, and twice Saturday, were of a minor nature.

Neither driver was hurt in the accident which happened at 8:30 a.m.

Effective, Confident, Has High Praise For Firemen

April 23, 1968
10 McIntyre Crescent,

Dear Sir,

Recently I have had reason to be grateful to the Georgetown Fire Brigade, and I want to comment on their effectiveness as a fire fighting force.

A fire started in the basement late at night, and by the time it was detected it was certainly beyond my control.

Within five minutes of my call the fire brigade arrived. I was astonished by this rapidity, which speaks highly of their training. They were confident and effective, and they proceeded with a minimum of fuss.

The house had filled with dense choking smoke, the temperature inside was rising rapidly, and the rooms were now in darkness with failure of the hydro. Three of the firemen, suited and wearing respirators, plunged into the house and found their way down to the burning basement. This may be a routine procedure for them, but in any event it was cool professional courage of a high order. They would probably be the last to consider their actions unusual; but as an interested bystander I was very impressed, and I would like to say so publicly in your columns.

I am not only grateful to our fire brigade, I am proud to belong to the same community as these men.

In addition to their efficiency, they remained, despite the lateness of the hour, courteous and considerate to my wife and myself, and they exemplified the highest ideal of community service.

Yours sincerely,
A. E. Macintosh

Miss Deane Lay, a student of the National Ballet School, and daughter of the Vicki Lay School's lead instructor, took part in the performance.

The trip was convened by Mrs. E. J. Nemeth of Georgetown, and Mrs. G. Hickey, and Mrs. C. Coole of Bramalea.

Calf Club Dispersal Largest in Canada

The biggest dispersal sale held in Canada so far this year attracted many buyers at Hays Sales Arena last week.

Organized by Halton 4-H Club, the sale dispersed 148 head for a total of $31,085, at an average price of $216 a head.

It was the tenth annual sale for the Halton clubs.

Top price was paid for a Surodana Leslie Toro, a calf sold by Howard Tarzwell of Georgetown. It fetched $560 from C. M. Bottema of Indianapolis, Ind.

Doctor G. D. Strick of 3133 Brampton, paid the second highest price of $500, for a Brevise Mark Snow, consigned by Heritage Farm, St. George.

The sale attracted buyers from Canada, the U.S. and Italy. Mr. Bottema bought 35 calves. Dr. Strick bought eight, and Ugo Donzoni of Pavia, Italy, bought nine.

Sun Blinded Motorist Pedestrian is Struck

Helen MacDonald of 45 Market Street suffered only a bruise to her left leg when knocked down by a car at the corner of Church and Main Street, Friday.

Police said Miss MacDonald was crossing Church Street from the north side when a car operated by John Spence, of 6 Kents Avenue, made a left turn off Main knocking the pedestrian to the pavement. A police report said the late afternoon sun made visibility difficult for the driver approaching from that angle.

Miss MacDonald was examined and released at the office of Dr. A.W. Ashenbust across the street from the scene of the accident.

The accident happened at 5:40 p.m. and was investigated by Georgetown police constable Dennis Allen.

Passenger Hospitalized After Car Rolls Sunday

Two Toronto people were injured when a car rolled over at the corner of the 10th Lane of Equestrian and No. 17 Side-road, Sunday. The intersection is at the north-east corner of Georgetown Golf and Country Club.

North Halton OPP said Alida Minervini, 23, was admitted to Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital with a broken pelvis and broken ankle, and the driver, Daniel Spinazzi, 27, treated for head cuts and abrasions to his hands, and released.

Constable Redpath placed damage to the car at $2,700.

Earlier the same day, cars operated by Robert Taylor of Glen Williams, and Olive Raine of Milton collided on Highway 7 at Norval resulting in $300, but no injuries. Constable Penrice handled this one.

Australian 'Billy Graham' Speaker at Youth Rally

Rev. Les Nixon, the 'Billy Graham' of thousands of out-back Australians, held the interest and attention of scores of young and older people at Friday night youth special at Maple Avenue Baptist Church.

Mr. Nixon treated his audience to many special numbers on his accord and Mel Stevens played a number of fraternal selections as well as duets with Mr. Nixon. Informative and challenging slides, as well as lively singing, created an atmosphere of evangelistic fervour.

Well chosen stories, tinged with good humour, gave Georgetown people a close look into the way of life of the people from down under.

The beauty of lush, fertile valleys and modern cities came into sharp contrast with bleak, barren deserts. Mr. Nixon, with his musical teams, drew many thousands of miles to present the gospel story. Modern city dwellers and agriculturalists are equally important in the expanded efforts of the evangelistic crusades. Mel Stevens, of local residence, has spent many months serving in Australia as a member of this evangelistic group. His playing in solo and accompaniment was a special treat on Friday.

A social hour in the lower auditorium followed the service.

UCW Hear Talk by Japanese Missionary

Unit One of Norval United Church UCW held their Easter Thankoffering meeting at the home of Mrs. Murray Laird on Thursday afternoon April 18 with 26 present.

Mrs. Ed McLean was in the chair and welcomed the guests who were present from Huttonville UCW and St. Andrew's UCW Georgetown.

Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Isabelle Fraser of Huttonville gave an inspiring devotional on the Easter theme. Mrs. Elaine Dickson played the organ for the hymns during the meeting.

Mrs. James Laidlaw introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. C. Moreman; wife of a missionary home on furlough from Japan, who gave an interesting and amusing talk on her experiences while there. Originally from Holland the Moremans came to Canada shortly after they were married and settled in Alberta, later going to Japan as missionaries. They have two teen aged daughters and a young son. The big problem for them in Japan is to get clothing for the children as they are tall and the clothing there is not made in all sizes. Shoes are also made in small sizes as most Japanese are small. While they are home on furlough they have to buy clothes and shoes for the next 3 years. This is quite an undertaking, especially for teen aged girls who have a habit of changing their minds about styles, etc.

Mrs. Guy Wilson gave the courtesies and Mrs. Hartley Cameron gave the dedicatory prayer.

Following the meeting a purse scavenger hunt was enjoyed with Mrs. Bill Graham and Mrs. Hartley Cameron the winners. Lunch was served by the hostess and committee of Mrs. Lorne Cleave, Mrs. John Doane and Mrs. Spencer Wilson.

Rev. W. Ridley and Rev. C. Moreman enjoyed visits to neighbouring farms during the afternoon. Part of Rev. Moreman's work in Japan was at an experimental farm to teach the Japanese better farming methods. In Japan they do not turn the cows out to pasture but keep them in a small shed. Rev. Moreman tried unsuccessfully to get them to pasture the cows.

— Mrs. Ed McLean

$700 to Retarded Earns Kin Citation

A highlight of last Friday's Kinette Kruse at Hornby Towers was the presentation to the Kinsmen Club of Georgetown of a certificate honouring the local club for its participation in the Kinsmen Golden Jubilee Project.

Kinsmen across Canada have united to build at Toronto a National Institute for the Mentally Retarded, and the Georgetown Kinsmen donated $700 from its service funds to this purpose.

President Bill Sunnucks accepted the award on behalf of the local club from Harry Isham an executive member of the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded. Mr. Isham pointed out that in addition to the money given this project, many local Kinsmen had helped renovate the quarters occupied by the Hope Workshop for Retarded Adults at Hornby.

Kin to Sponsor Three Pay $1 a Mile to Oxfam

Georgetown Kinsmen voted to sponsor three people in the May 4th Oxfam Walk at the April 15th meeting. The club agreed to pay $1 per mile to this charity for each mile walked by Kinsmen Dave McLeod and Art Ellis, and 12 year old Denise Milne, daughter of Kinsman Ken Milne.

These three will carry the banners of the Kinsmen Club of Georgetown along with those of any other sponsors they can muster.

Kinsmen Arch Hayden is also entering in the walk but has arranged for other sponsors.

The three Kin also have a side challenge among themselves on who will finish first. This promises to be an interesting sidelight since the loser won't hear the end of it.

Miss Denise Milne, a Grade 7 pupil at Holy Cross School will be walking with some of her girl friends.
