

'Y' WILL HAVE A QUEEN

THE GEORGETOWN YMCA - YWCA will have a teen queen by the end of the month. The Y's teenage group leaders and assistants, 18 of them in-all, are the candidates and their vote catching campaigns will also double as a money raising scheme since they're selling vote tickets at 10 cents each. The general public are the voters, and they may buy as many tickets as they like from the candidate of their choice. It's a good way to not only held the 'Y', but show appreciation to the girls who devote so many volunteer hours In leadership. The winner will be announced at a teen dance in Holy Cross auditorium. May 24th. In this group are, back from left, Cindy Cooper, Andrea Chaplin, Lorraine Seck-Ington, Suzan Landry, and Becky Cooper, and in front Jane Hardy-
