Halton County crown attorney Peter K. McWilliams has resigned, it was announced Saturday.

McWilliams, who has served as county crown attorney since 1958, was required to quit because he has announced he will seek the Progressive Conservative nomination for the June 25

The resignation is required under a section of the Public Service Act and it was submitted to the Ontarlo Attorney General's office.

P.C. Nomination When amounting that he would seek the PC nomination, McWilliams said it was his intention to resign if he was named candidate at the Halton. Tory nomination meeting Saturday. His resignation came is a sarprise.

An-official at Queen's Park. in Toronto said a new Halton crown-will be appointed, and during the interim period Me-Williams' assistant, Murray Roulston will carry on the crown's duties.

Asked if Mr. McWilliams was quitting for good, the official said: "His resignation was, required by law and it is perman-

Public Safety

During his career as crown attorney McWilliams has campaigned for public safety and his latest move in this direction came last week when he released an extensive report dealing with unnatural deaths in that not one hopsital in the enthat not port was McWilliams' conclus-patients.

Warns Family Farms May in 1909. For years he took a The man who moved the Be Owned by-Industry raw materials, have an eye on ers and other products.

Agriculture Minister William them engaged in the manufac-Stewart's "switch or die" warn- ture and sale of goods and ser-Ing to family farms was greet- vices used in agriculture, or deed with mixed feelings by local pending an agriculture for their

the industry and investment." 3fr. Stewart warned that unless family farms conform to Mr. Siewart said that for some modern business practices and of these companies, securing east off their traditional ways control of the agriculture indthey may die and be taken over ustry would create a guaranteed. market for their feeds, fertilizby corporations.

Vast Capital

"We are concerned about reto indicate that vast amounts of ter's statement. corporate capital are either besaid Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Stewart is against anything similar happening here. I felt what the Americans did there.

"The Mexicans are getting some money back, but the really big profits go back to the son Newspapers Ltd. in 1944. Americans. I feel the government should do something ab-

Runs Dairy Farm

"Mr. Stewart says it is up to the family farmers to stop this but I think this goes beyond

A. H. McKane, who runs a dairy and grain farm at R.R. A. in 1952. Georgetown, said he folt that the family farm would survive and that it is already being run as a business.

"Family dairy farming will continue as long as dairying go es on in this country," he said

Galt Daily Publisher Was Native of Georgetown

Allan Holmes, 85, a native of Georgetown and publisher of The Reporter newspaper in the former Lillian Saunders.

pioneer in Western Canada. Af- Funeral Home in Galt. Interparticular importance in the re- ulpped to handle psychiatric ter working as a reporter on ment was at Mount View cemet-Winnipeg newspapers in the ery. early 1900s, he became part owner of the Prince Albert Herald prominent part in the life of mountain began by carrying Prince Albert, in northern Sask away small stones. - Chinese

M. Hueston, another Ontario-The next year they took over The Reporter.

they extended their publishing Township of Esquesing would interests by purchasing two oth- be the most satisfactory solution er Ontario papers, the .Welland to the current library controvhave steped in and stopped Tribune and Woodstock Sentin-library board." Prince Albert Herald was sold to W. L. Davis. The four Ontario papers were sold to Thom-

Mr. Holmes was a member of these people and is a govern- The Canadian Press for many mental problem. The Americ years and was a director of the ans do not want to come in for national news co-operative from the good of the bountry, but to 1948 to 1948. For many years be was a director of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Publishers Ast sociation and was its president

> After joining the old Winniper Telegram in 1903, Mr. Holmes rounded out his early carcer as a top reporter on the Manitoha Free Press under the late John W. Dafoe

> Mr. Holmes was prominent in Galt community life and, partic-ularly in the period following the Second World War, his views were reflected in The Reporter. By this time his writing was largely confined to editor-

He is survived by his wife

The funeral service was held Mr. Holmes was a newspaper at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at Little's

CHOICE

BEDDING PLANTS

BEGONIAS and GERANIUMS

BALED PEAT MOSS

WINDOW BOXES AND CEMETERY POTS FILLED

House Phints, and New Sun-Proof Latex Primes. Actnowl Save $2.50 on every (talloned J. B. MACKENZIE & SON LTD.

James St. Tel. 877-2207

2,3, or as much as 4 years. And now they re yours at

The Spring Coat Sale includes Wallhide Latex One

Coat Flat Wall Paint and Salinhide Latex Lo-Lustre Chamel for interiors. And for exteriors save on Sun-Proof

Oil Base House Paint, Sun-Proof Lalex House Paint

Which has 4 times the stretch power of other Latex
House Paints and Many Company Latex

- Free Delivery
- MON. THURS. 8 A.M. TO 6 P.M. FRIDAY 8 A.M. YO 8 P.M.

BUDGET TERMS AVAILABLE

SATURDAY B A.M. TO 4 P.M.

THE NAME BUILD ON

On his return to the east, Mr. Suggest Union Board to the Sarnia Observer in 1931. Solve Library Difficulty

Establishment of a Union; member, or $10 per year per Public Library Board for the family to be paid in full and to With A.D. McKenzie of Sarnia, Town of Georgetown and the expire 12 months after issue.

the Mexican government should al-Roview. At the same time, the ersy in the eyes of the present should Esquesing make a suita-In a news release issued to membership fee paid by Esque-The Herald this week the Geor- sing residents after May 15 getown Public Library Board 1968 will be returned in full.

stated "the board regrets the Mr. Holmes continued as pub- necessity for increasing the lisher of The Reporter and, as a charges to non resident memdirector of Thomson Newspap-bers and considers the most saters Ltd., contributed his exper- isfactory solution would be estience to its expanding group of ablishment of a Union Public Library Board for the town and township,

> The statement followed a motion making effective. Wednesday, May 15 the following membership fee for non residents of Georgetown; $4 per year per

Another motion which carried at a meeting May 7 was that, hle grant in aid of the Georgetown Public Library, in 1968,

> CONCRETE GRAVEL BUILDING SAND ROAD GRAVEL FILL and TOP, SOIL

Glan Willams + 877-3302

BUD" HAINES

GARNET

CHINESE

- 877-9791 28 Main St. S.

BEFORE YOU GET UP?

THE MORNING FEELING BEAT IN

It Could be Your Mattress — So Why Not Drop in at Comfi's NOW and See Their

FABULOUS SERTA MATTRESSES

DOCTOR'S JOURNAL TELLS YOU

THAT . . .

There is no substitute for sleep! Proper sleep is essential for good health and energy restoration - and deep, relaxing, luxurious sleep is yours with this famous 'Serta Orthopedic' mattress. You'll sleep as you have never slept before, buoyantly floating on 837 tempered steel coll springs that keep you firmly supported all night long and eliminate those tiresome morning backaches. Each mattress has been built and sewn by craftsmen, styled in Beige weven Irish damask with Gold overlay, with quality Sisal padding and thick layers of pure White cotton felt un both sides, finished with 'Serta's' famous stabilizer no-say-ever edge. Stop dreaming - Start sleeping on this Serta today!

SERTA ORTHOPEDIC OFFERS YOU:

- 837 tempered steel coll springs in the mattress alone
- High tempered, extra heavy gauge springs in box spring
- Expensive sissi padding for the m
- luxurious surface Layers of buoyant white felt, both
- aldes, for deep sleep
- · Serta's famous 'stabilizer edge' to
- prevent side-sag Timported woven trish damask in belge
- with pold overlay
- · All standard sixes: 3'3" single: 4' three-quarter: 4'6" double

SERTA'S FAMOUS 837 QUALITY MATTRESS

MATTRESS OR BOX SPRING

A PRICE THAT DEFIES ALL COMPARISON FOR SUCH SUPERIOR SLEEP COMFORT

39 Main St. N., Georgetown, 877-5777 AND 19 McMURCHY N., BRAMPTON