

Expect 200 Will Play In Girls' Baseball League

The junior and senior girls softball leagues operated by the Georgetown Kinetics will provide organized sports for more girls than ever before this season.

At a registration session at the Georgetown Park main gate Saturday 180 girls ranging in age from 10 to 19 turned up to sign on. League officials expect the total will reach two hundred before the season is very old because last season's initial registration figure of 150 swelled to 170 during the schedule.

Teams will be set up at meeting tonight.

In the senior division, net-les have one team with a coach but no sponsor, while in junior ranks coaches are still to be found for two sponsored teams.

The teams' coaches and sponsors have been allocated as follows:

SENIOR
Ron Roberts, none; Doug Ditchfield, State Farm; Dave McLeod, Sunrocks-Halbert Real-ors; and George Bowen, Leone's Hair Styles.

JUNIOR
Mary Cooper, Dairy Queen; Donna Robbins, Superior Foods; Albert Enman, Beaver Lumber; Jack Handy Murray, Motors; Tom Hamilton, Georgetown Upholstering; Hank Russell, Kinette Krusters, Georgetown Cycle and Sports and Zenith Tool and Die have no coaches.

The umpire in chief is Harry Levy.

Ladies' Season Opens at Georgetown Golf Club

Georgetown Golf & Country Club ladies' section raised the curtain on their golf season Tuesday, May 7 with a monkey golf two ball which provided lots of fun for the 41 entrants.

The competition was followed by dinner after which the president, Marilyn Merritt, welcomed everyone and introduced the 1968 executive. Treasurer Gloria Sinclair gave a treasurer's report on the financial success of events sponsored by the ladies' section to date, and captain Bev Brown spoke on the upcoming events urging all to come out and participate.

The evening concluded with film, Golf in Alberta.

Prize winners were: Gloria Sinclair for first low gross; Shirley Wilson and Gertrude Ward for second low gross; Rosemary Matthews and Lynn McNair for third low gross; Helen Hambleton and Ruth Derbyshire for low putts; Marie Luyben and Vi Sholdice for most putts; Ida Walker and Gwen Timleck for most honest golfers; Connie Ferguson and Barb Adamson for high score on hidden hole; and Leanne Stitt and Bev Kovacs for low score on hidden hole.

Applications from would-be lifeguards and instructors have been turned over to Mrs. Bowden who will have charge of recruiting the pool staff. She completed her first season as pool supervisor and chief instructor last year.

President Leaving Town, Golfers Elect June Evans to Head Ladies

Perfect weather encouraged a large turnout of golfers at North Halton Golf Club ladies' opening day Tuesday, May 7, and it also encouraged some of the competitors to go on to play as many as 23 holes.

A Dutch Ball competition was won by the combined effort of Vi Clapp and Irene Macintosh. Second low gross was brought in by a threesome, Dorothy Young, Sophie Henley and Ann Smith.

After golf, some 50 players stayed for dinner and presentation of prizes. A ladies' section meeting was held afterwards.

Changes in the executive were made necessary by the resignation of two members, president Kay Butler and the chairman of the house committee of Jan MacKinnon both of whom are moving away from Georgetown.

The following were voted in by those present, June Evans, formerly vice president, became the new president; Inez Crichton moved from vice captain to vice president; and Vi Clapp became the new vice captain. Edna Malcolm was elected chairman of the house committee.

Retiring president Kay Butler was presented with a tray as a memento of her years as president.

Lose Three Stars, Seek Georgetown Newcomers

Georgetown's entry in the Halton Ladies Softball League, the Georgetownettes will be looking to find some talented girls to fill holes in the regular line-up when they hold their first practice Tuesday, May 21.

Three good-biting Georgetownettes won't be back to plague opposing pitchers this year. Pat Davison will be playing for Guelph, Betty Quackenbush for a Metro team, and Les Quackenbush is ailing.

All three were big factors in Georgetown's success last year. Al Murphy who coached the Georgetownettes through 1967 has switched to manager, and Bernice Dore, will be at the helm in the upcoming campaign.

An ad in the Coming Events column is asking any girl interested in trying out for the Georgetownettes to see a team official at the Tuesday practice opposite the Park Public School.

Milne's 39 Wins Sweep

Andy Milne's 39 was good enough to take the first low gross prize at Men's Night at Georgetown Golf and Country Club, Wednesday. Mike Purlan, last week's winner was second with Rich Vivian third, and Al Bitt fourth.

B. Cowtan was best of the net crowd. He was followed by Gord Robinson, Steve Peltz, Les Kovacs, Bert Kato and Ron Brooks.

Georgetown Golf men's section hold a ball sweepstakes with golf balls for prizes every men's night.
