Ads That Pay

shenine $77-2201. Buying or The Herald is where find the results you

GEORGETOWN HERALD

The Home Newspaper for Georgetown and District

Authorized as Second Class Mail, Post Office Dept., Ottawa, and for payment of postage in cash

Georgetown, Ontario, Thursday, June 13th, 1968

med the appointments of Henry parking lot.

Helfant, Ed Wiener and Ed Mater did pass.

Printing - Publishing

The Goorgefown Herald has served Georgetown and District Printers and Publishers for century offering the

$5.00 per year; Single Copy Price: Ten Cents

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

ELLEN BIEHN

District high school.

and Mrs. Walter Biehn. 26 hind with 1,989,000. Queen Street, was one of 101 girls who graduated from the The consumption is checked Atkinson School of Nursing of every hour with any alarming Toronto Western Hospital. She jump quickly being noted. Norpeceived the Isaac and Georgia mally during a hot spell con-Weldon scholarship for past sumption reaches its peak in basic study and will enrol in the tre after supper hours when evnursing school at University of eryone is untering the lawn. By Western Ontario. London this prohibiting lawn watering, the fall, to study for her Bachelor town feels the situation can of Science in Nursing degree, be controlled until the new She is a graduate of Georgetown well is in operation.

Denies Claim Ottawa Not Cooperating With Avian Recent statements by Peter McWilliams, Conservative cand- NURSING DEGREE

idate in Halton, concerning lack of co-operation by the federal FROM WESTERN 'U' department of Transport in the Earbara Lindsay was a mem- the quests. A graduate of Ge- Reeve Hunter said he felt it three and four thousand dollars ally interfered with.

ment in Ottawa said that they have been in touch with Gord- . Miss Lindsay, who is the deated with second class hon- had checked and found no other; the same as any other departe ing," added the mayor, on Sampson, president of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Ours. Avian Aircraft company since lands over the Emery Street, is a Angler, Hunter Draw the publication of Mr. McWil- staff member of South Peel Angler, Hunter Draw liams' remark.

with Mr. Sampson Friday and uating in 1957

teontinued on Page 14.

Water Worries

crees of Bachelor of Science in at Clinton. He majored in mic-ing. Spokesman for the, depart- Nursing at a recent convocation, robiology in his course and gra-

Hospital, Cooksville, Following Has Three Winners

ing to South Perl.

No Lawn Watering Till New Well Ready

Until No. 4 well is in, there is still washing, and if it rains is a water shortage in town, Tuesday is washday. says town engineer Gordon Fan. At the moment the filtration cy, but "there's no cause for plant is being by-passed, since nanic we can maintain adequate it uses more water.

levels and pressure as long as The entineer stressed that ho lawn-watering is prohibited," he water problem is anticipated

Number four well should be completed within three tofour weeks. At the moment the underground development is finished, but the pumps have to be connected and the building

When the system is running at capacity, slightly over two. million mallons can be pumped daily. June 4 saw consumption. jump to 2054,000 gallons, while Ellen Biehn, daughter of Mr. June 5 and 6th ran close be-

The charts show that Monday,

Joins Department of Agriculture

RICHARD (RICK) BELL

the Dairy Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, follow- Commercial Footage ing graduation from the Univer-Bachelor of Science degree inmautical engineer. Walter - Me led in the nursing school at the was first, George Burrows of that don't need a lot of space NURSING GRADUATE Leish, said he had been in touch Guelph General Hospital, grad Brampto: account, and Art Me-out of business," he stressed Allister of Georgetown third, the company president had ex. She was in the Guelph hespi- in a lucky draw recently held! tal staff for five years prior to by Georgetown Anglers and

FIRST GRADUATE

University, at the first convoca- will be provided with an accoun- cluded. tion on May 31st. Pauling Rowe ting of the revenue that has received her Bachelor of Arts been collected by the town. cister Michelle and parents, Mr. Earlier in the meeting a let- would be changed by passiff; it and if new wells are being con- had been asked not to prosecute Georgetown District high school ing its jurisdiction under the added.

Richard (Rick) Bell has joined Would Set Minimum

Exercise of Science degree in Hunter and Cr. Hole to set a since then had satisfied himself accounting, the same as any gallons per day available. Fol- er has 30 feet of water and the vocation. His parents. Mr. and minimum square foot area for everything was all right. Mrs. Horace Bell R.R. 1, Geor- commercial buildings of 1,000 Continuing the mayor reminer In conclusion he stated that getown, grandmother Mrs. H.T. square feet, ran into trouble ded council the Parking Authority was never left development of an autogyro ber of the graduating class at orgetown District high school, is time for action, since at predevelopment of an autogyre her of the graduating class at orgetown District high senion, is time to action, since at pre-alreraft by a Georgetown firm University of Western Ontario, he will be at Walkerton briefly sent there is no restriction on the year. were denied in Ottana this week London, who weeked their do then will join the dairy branch the size of a commercial build. year, municipality with such restrict. ment. "If any member of counions. "This would affect stores cil falls for the suggestion of like the Dairy Queen, the prop- misappropriation they are anakosed Drive-In Restaurant, con- ing serious charges," he warnfeetlonary stores, in fact we ed. Listing some expenses of the The department's chief sero District high school, she enrol. George Atkinson of Port Elgin could force many small stores

> "In addition" said Cr. Ballentine, "the high price of commercial land usually keeps the type of business in line '

Deputy reeve Speight also felt it hit the small man and could force him out of business.

PRIVY COUNCIL APPOINTMENT

Lt. Col. R. P. Bourne of Georgetown, a member of the Royal Regiment of Canadian Artillery was recently promoted, from major and given a key appointment to the office of the Privy Council

During his one year tour of duties with the United Nations: Forces in Cyprus, he was em-

Bourne of Limehouse.

LINDA POWERS

A graduate of Georgetown Sick Children, Toronto.

Powers of Whitby, formerly of Jinice is a graduate of George, pool Lt. Col. Bourne is the son of Georgetown, she will join the town District high school and: Lt. Col. K. M. Bourne and Mrs. nursing stall of the Hospital for was an Ontario Scholar in her five years, the extra facilities fell on June 2 when heavy rain graduating year.

"Let's Go" Talk is Inspiration to Chamber If Georgetown Chamber of something new is a challenge" an advertising sign at the east Commerce doesn't set new rec- he said, urging members to get ern town limits.

ords of performance this year, behind projects and boost Ge George Michin is 1st vice preit won't be the fault of Joseph orgetown. sident; Bob Gougeon, 2nd vico Connell of Kifenener. Sandy Mackenzie became the president; Connell Smith, seeterloo YMCA, inspired members' He cited an industrial fair this with his talk "O.K., Let's Go" fall as a major Chamber plan. Lloyd Marks who served with at Monday's annual dinner meet asked consideration for a part Mr. Connell in the airforce durit ting at North Halton Golf &: Country Club.

Mr. Connell, one of Canada's new Chamber president, suc-retary; Ray Howson, treasurer; outstanding speakers, and see ceeding Irwin Noble in an elec- Alex Blackwell, Ron Dodokin, retary general of Kitchener-Wa-'tion of officers.

time secretary-manager, and ing World War II, introduced said the group plans to erect; him at the dinner. It was the usual 'pep talk' type of speech — with a difference. For Mr. Connell believes Collect 305 Bottles in what he says, believes in an problem so completely that his hour talk held his audience of Red Cross Blood spellbound right to his last word. Of Red Cross Blood Monday's blood donor clinic donors, offered blood, at the!

of beauty or a cummuters' met a good response. slum" he told the sixty businessmen present. "It depends on According to a Red Cross! the enthusiasm of groupss like spokesman, the 305 bottles of the Chamber. We are fiving in blood collected war 24 more enthusiastic approach to any spellbound right to his last word

times when it is so easy for a than at a similar June clinic

"You're old when something. Three hundred and twenty-) and Muriello Paulin and Sandra and hopes to become a physic- child came to Canada w

There were 22 rejects.

"Still in Existence" Council Water Shortage Shuts S & S Confirms Parking Authority Predict Month Long Crisis

Deputy Reeve Arthur Speight .: Reeve Hunter said he had and the other wells vill be re- ed the Reeve, "and we can keep habilitated to remove iron de- everything going until the new

When that is completed he. He reminded council he had

February and again in March

Cr. John Hole urged that well, in view of the situation.

Georgetown weather records

when local people sweltered in foresees a capacity of 2.9 mil- brought the subject up back in watering is prohibited," he stat- plans be prepared for No. 5

Georgelown is Moose Falls The 95 degrees record here again. A CBC filming crew Sunday is an all time high for which last fall adopted the June 9 but still a long way off town as home of Quentin Dur- Georgetown's hottest spell ac-

gins MP, feature_character in cording to local weather watcher

This one is entitled The Night go back to 1014, and in the 54

Nothing Happened and centres years since that time the peak

around an alleged flying saucer temperatures were hit in 1936

The show's star, Gordon Pin- degree weather concuded on

Georgetown, or Moose Falls, Since June 1 of this year residents won't see the results temperatures have averaged of local filming until the start 68.4 degrees, which is 8 degrees of the new fall season. above normal. The figures are:

sent, and well known character July 13 whn the thermometer

a TV series of the same name, Roger Smith.

actor Paul Kligman appear in reached 103.

A question on many citizens'! He told of a crisis last Thurs-Anthority he cited, $500 for re-On a live to four vote, with pairs to meters, $1800 to be paid minds was voiced by John Baker day night, causing a special the mayor, the deputy reeve to the police cadet, replacement 48 Moore Park at council Mon-council meeting to be held at and Crs. Roy Ballentine and Em- and repair of meters and $1100 day night, when he asked-for midnight and lasting till three merson opposed, council confir- to Armstrong Bros. to fix the an explanation of the water sit- in the morning. "We rescinded - lion gallons a day.

Being Filmed in Town

returned Monday to work on another episode in the series.

most of the footage shot here.

WANTS WARMER WATER

The possibility of having

IN COMMUNITY POOL

He pointed out that he und- new one, prohibiting watering lison to the Parking Authority. "I will not be a party to a crstood even numbered houses completely, and providing for motion that casts a doubt on the could water, on even days and up to a three hundred dollar In addition the Authority treasurer's department" he conold on old days, and then was fine," explained the deputy told by his neighbours he could reeve. Cr. Ballentine also opposed not water at all. He asked how the motion suggesting nothing many wells are in operation. He pointed out that the police and Mrs George Rowe. 20 Ann ter from Dolokin and Sopinka now: "The Parking Authority structed. Finally he asked if the until the by-law is published. Downsview, attended the cere had been passed by the Park-! don't know theirs. We should seen, why was building allowed ing cans can be used but not emony. Pauline is a graduate of ing Authority, June 7, re-assert- give them some direction" he to continue. and plans to attend O.C.E. in by law which is still in existence Cr. Young was of the opinion water chairman, evidently ready been called by Smith & Stone and asking council to pass a rest hey needed no direction. Their for such a question, produced a who had to shut down at 3:30 lution such as the one they ladduties are spelled out in the three page explanation, which Thursday afternoon because of Act, and they have full control he read. He emphasized that lack of water. Upon hearing this there was an adequate supply of he suggested a special meeting of parking," he said. "It is only fair they get an water in the ground. He claims of council to ensure enough wa-accounting" said the mayor. He He claimed there was no crit- ed the new well, No. 4 would ter for industry. He contacted claimed he was concerned when icism of the treasurer's depart- increase the capacity by 600 gal- the mayor who was out of town, ing graduation from the University of Guelph. He received his Rechalar of Science degree in lowing the heavy summer-dem- reservoir has seven," continu-

LAWN WATERING

Jolley, Montreal and Miss Mary and was withdrawn for a week ority had a deficit of between alone to do its job but continu-

The mayor contended there Authority to the treasurer's de-Cr 'Steamer' Emmerson stat- partments "They made foolish; "Until the new well is in, we Cr. Roy Ballentine said he ed the books had been audited statements, without even check can supply everyone if lawn

GUNMAN

OPP have charged a man with Second Durgens Show a Hornby hold up (Story Page 6)

RECEIVES B.A.

JANICE CARTER

little warmer water in George-sighting.

town Swimming Pool was put: forth by Rex Cock, member of ployed as the Forces Economics District high school, Linda Pow- Janice Carter, daughter of Mr. the Swimming Pool Board at ers graduated from St. Joseph's and Mrs. Ormie Carter, Norval council, Monday night. He was flown home from Cyp. Hospital School of Nursing, Tor- received her Bachelor of Arts' He asked council to consider' rus last week and took up his onto when graduation exercises degree in Honour English at an additional $1180 to be addappointment immediately in Ot. were held in Convocation. Hall Convocation Hall, University of ed to the budget of $2,500 to tawa where he plans to reside. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Toronto on Friday. May 31st, cover the expense of heating the 10-

Mr. Cock claimed that over ches of rain as of the 10th. That offered would justify the cost. Cr. Emmerson said it would Oakville and Toronto, but only be discussed in committee.

The swimming pool is current ly being painted and will be! ready for business by June 22 compiling a list of record tempif all goes well.

HEADS for TEACHING pleted in about two weeks and cents to cover costs.

A newly-hired employee of Friday.

wrists.

MICHAEL CUMMINS

clinic in Holy Cross auditorium. and Mrs. John Cummins 18 Morris Street, received an Associate Diploma in Agriculture at the Brotherton told The Herald he In the afternoon, donors were University of Guelph recently, visited Coates Tuesday and entertained by a teen group The Michael, a graduate of George found him "in good spirits" Sudden Chill. Gait Butler sings town District high school is and plays piano with the trio planning to continue his studies. The injured man's wife al training teacher.

Loses Both Hands In Plant Accident

There has been only 1.01 in-storms were reported at Millon

Roger Smith is currently eratures for each day of the year. The project should be com-readers interested in obtaining a copy may have one by sending a self-addressed envelope and 10

a shower was observed here.

Economy Forms on Todd Road, Richard Coates lost both hands in an on-the-job accident there

Coates, who arrived here from the U.K. less than a week before the accident, was operating a press machine when both hands were severed at about the

He was rushed to Georgetown Hospital and then to Toronto Michael Cummins, son of Mr. General where he is still con-

Economy Forms manager T.

and are living in Geo

GAUGES TELL THE STORY

GEORGETOWN WATER committee chairman Arthur Speight and pumping station employee Dunc MacMillan che & water consumption at Number One pumping station on Maple Avenue. Last week consumption reached capacity causing council to wash out its restricted fawn watering by-law and replace it was a ban on watering. The situation will be touch and go for three to four weeks when the town's fourth well is hooked into "Georgetown can be a place dream to die." I new is a threat . . . young when seven people, 32 of them 'new Hornby play accordions.